COMMUNICATED

THE LEVELLER—By J. B. Johnson.

Some minds are engrossed with subjects not only absurd in form, but unreasonable in nature; and when they are preposterously bent by misconceived notions, it is almost impossible to wean them from the prejudice acquired by a misdirected attention.

Among the many notions which have risen, that of the "Equality of All Men" is the greatest favorite with the Leveller. If all men were equal, there would be no dispute about the subject.

The above FIRST-CLASS COMPANIES, having complied with the law passed by the last Legislature, requiring a deposit of $25,000 from each, in bonds of the State, the undersigned is now prepared to issue policies in all, or either of them on all descriptions of property, in the city or country, against loss or damage by fire, and on inland, coastwise and sea risks, on terms adapted to the hazard, and consistent with sound and reliable underwriting.

BALLARD HOUSE, RICHMOND, VIRGINIA. JOHN P. BALLARD, Proprietor. THOMAS E. BALLARD, Proprietor. The undersigned take pleasure in announcing to the travelling public (as well as to city boarders) that they have returned to their old business again, and from this day they are ready to cater to the taste and comfort of all who may favor them with their patronage. They have purchased all the furniture in the establishment, all of which is of the very best quality, and selected with great care from the best furnishing houses in New York, within the last twelve months, and much of which has never been unpacked; indeed, the hotel is furnished in the most superb style.

Having leased the establishment heretofore known as the Summer Garden, No. 182, King Street, 3d door west of Washington Street, I would beg leave to introduce myself to the citizens of Alexandria, and also to the travelling community, as a caterer for the strictest epicures. The Garden being a pleasant resort, within reach of all, I am determined, as far as my power shall be able, to keep every thing in the strictest order, so that their shall be nothing to mar the pleasure of my guests.

THE BAR ROOM is an elegant one, and shall be furnished with the best of liquors, etc., etc. We pledge our best and most attentive care to our customers, and expect from our old friends ladies and gentlemen of Virginia, and the whole country, their support and hope to receive a liberal share of the public patronage.

JOHN P. BALLARD, Proprietor. THOMAS E. BALLARD, Proprietor. RICHMOND, September 1, 1866. [sep 8-1m]

The Court doth adjudge, order and decree, that one of the Commissioners of this Court do take an account between the estates of Robert Allison, dec'd, and James G. Allison, dec'd, and that the particular account be made and ascertained in conformity with the order of the Court in the bill mentioned, bearing date the 30th day of April, 1866; and also, if anything, is now due on the single bills and promissory notes, in the bills mentioned, and marked Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 4; that he also procure what real estate, if any, James G. Allison died seized of, at its value, which he then, thereupon, by deeds of trust, judgments or otherwise, he has also taken and set aside, and account of the complainant, Jonathan Roberts, administrator of the personal estate of the said James G. Allison, and that by publication, to be published in some public newspaper, in some newspaper to be printed in Alexandria, Va., upon the creditors of the estate of the said James G. Allison to bring forward and exhibit their claims against the said estate, such publication to be equivalent to personal service, within 90 days from some day to be fixed by the said Commissioner, and the Court doth further order and decree, that said Commissioner do report his proceedings under said order, with any matter which he may deem pertinent, or that any party interested may require him to report specially. Extract—Teste.

W. B. GOODING, Clerk. COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE, Alexandria, Va., August 1, 1866. As one of the Commissioners of the Circuit Court of Fairfax County, I hereby give notice that at my office, at Fairfax Court House, I shall on the 2d day of October next, proceed to execute the decree of the said Court, of which the above is a copy, and the creditors of James G. Allison, dec'd, are hereby notified to bring forward and exhibit their claims against the estate, within ninety days from the date of this notice. THOMAS MOORE, Commissioner in Chancery, August 20-1aw4w Circuit Court Fairfax county.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF FAIRFAX COUNTY, June term, 1866, Turner Dixon's Executor vs. L. Adams, et al; executors, same. These causes are consolidated. It is by the Court ordered, a judgment, and decree, that Thomas Moore, or some other Commissioner of this Court, do ascertain and report what payments have been made on account of the debt of the said Adams, since the institution of these suits, if any, and how said debt was paid, and the amount now due from the defendant to the complainant, principal and interest. And it is further ordered and decreed that the said Commissioner do ascertain and report the present amount of the debt of the said Adams, and the location, boundaries, &c., and whether the deed of trust thereon from the defendant, Austin L. Adams, to Alfred Moss, for the benefit of J. C. Gunnell, has been satisfied or not, how and by whom, and if not wholly satisfied what balance is now due Turner Dixon, and all other matters which may be deemed pertinent. Extract—Teste. W. B. GOODING, Clerk. COMMISSIONER'S OFFICE, Alexandria, Va., August 1, 1866. Notices hereby given that I shall on the 2d day of October next, at my office at Fairfax Court House, proceed to execute the decree of the Circuit Court of Fairfax County, of which the above is an extract. THOMAS MOORE, Commissioner in Chancery, August 20-1aw4w Circuit Court Fairfax county.

VIRGINIA, to wit:—In the County Court of Fairfax County, August rules, 1866, P. Hoffman Troth vs. Wm. M. Chichester, Sylvanus B. Chichester, Thornton M. Chichester, Jackson M. Chichester, Henry L. Chichester, Pandorus M. Chichester, Wm. M. Hume, administrator of estate of William H. Chichester, and all persons claiming through or under said estate. Plaintiff vs. Defendants. The object of this suit is to remove a cloud of title by reason of apparent heirs of the above mentioned parties upon a certain tract of land of about 131 acres, being a part of the tract called Mount Airy, situated near Accotink, in said county, now occupied by plaintiff, and described in a deed recorded in Liber 7, No. 2, Fairfax records, at page 102, and to secure the title to the above named plaintiff.

It appearing by affidavit filed that the above named defendants, except Wm. M. Hume, are not residents of this State, and that there are parties whose names are unknown to the plaintiff, it is ordered that they appear within one month after due publication hereof and do what is necessary to protect their interests. A copy of this order is published in the Alexandria Gazette, on the 21st day of August, 1866. F. D. RICHARDSON, Clerk August 21-1aw4w

Mem.—The object of this suit is to obtain the decree for the sale of a tract of land, formerly the property of Keziah Carter, deceased, and the proceeds of sale distributed to those entitled thereto. It appearing to the Court that Keziah Carter, deceased, and her heirs, are not residents of this State, it is ordered that they appear within one month after due publication hereof and do what is necessary to protect their interests. A copy of this order is published in the Alexandria Gazette, on the 21st day of August, 1866. F. D. RICHARDSON, Clerk. sep 6-1aw4w
