TANNING WOODCHUCK SKINS.—Seeing so many different ways for tanning furs, woodchuck skins, &c., I thought I would send you my way. I have tried various ways, and I think my way is the least labor, and the furs tanned as well, if not better, than any I ever saw. I take the first premium on tanning at our country fairs when I take any of them.

Woodchucks are best caught in winter or spring. In an open winter I have caught them every month but December. They come out very early in the spring, and it is very easy catching them—at least, I never had any trouble. Find where they come out, set the cap, and in the mouth of the hole, cover with leaves, and I am sure of a woodchuck the first time one comes out.

For tanning, salt the skins, roll up and let them lie for four days in the salt; then take them and stretch and let them dry straight and smooth. Then take an old shave or something similar, and make an board, six inches wide, to work on, and flesh the skin pulverized; then for each skin take of salt and pulverized alum one tablespoonful, equal parts for each skin, dissolve the salt and alum in warm water just enough to wet the mixture, put it on the skins warm, roll up the skins and let them lie from two to four weeks; then partially dry them; then take sand paper and rub them till dry and they will be ready for use. There is oil enough in them to make them soft and pliable.

Woodchuck fur is nice plushed. It makes good trimming for children's caps and nice mittens, and does not cost one fourth as much as yarn, and it wears them by half for mittens. I make the inside of the hands of the best fulled cloth I can find. It will outwear the best deerskin I ever saw, and is much warmer, and wetting and drying does not make them hard like deerskin. I have tried them both, and I want no more deerskin for me unless for chopping.—A. W. W., in the Country Gentleman.

INNOCENT BLOOD.—It is said that innocent blood has miraculous powers. It cries aloud from the ground, and its cries are ever heard. It is said that Mrs. Surratt's partakes of this nature, for on no other principle could be explained the extraordinary fact of Butler, of all men, becoming its organ for vengeance and redress. The ways of Providence are mysterious, and when we cannot comprehend them, we must await patiently their development.

While Butler raises the cry of innocent blood against the murderers of Mrs. Surratt, others see in his haunches with the same cry. The New York Times has the following:

"Gen. Butler in the war hung one man, who was unarmed, defenceless and wholly in his power, without a trial or a semblance of one. He imprisoned and tortured under false pretenses, an army Chaplain for not inventing, or asserting when he had invented for him, a false statement about a brother officer. And he now seeks to infuse into the public mind, by cowardly insinuations, an infamous calumny against the President of the United States. The country will treat it and him as both deserve."—Rich. Whig.

AN ILLUSTRATION.—The Daily Advertiser, impoverished, hung by authority of military courts, without its remonstrance, has come to the conclusion that these courts form "no creditable page in our history." A large portion of the American people arrived at this conclusion in advance of the Daily. The Boston Journal assures the South "that the Republicans of the North have no desire or intention to force their principles upon the people of the South." The Military Bill, the Supplementary Bill, the threatened Confiscation Bill, do not indicate coercion! When the apparition of a turtle appeared to a famous caterer in his dream, the caterer assured the turtle that he was his friend, and that it was very wrong to disturb his repose by such an intrusion. "My friend, are you?" answered the turtle. "If you are my friend, what do these words you chattered on my back mean, Soup to-morrow?" Boston Post.

There were three Barnums running for Congress in Connecticut, and among them the Museum man was conspicuous. This man is a humanitarian, a philosopher, a benevolent creature, filled with tenderness for his colored friends. He made a speech the other day, from the report of which we extract the following:

"Mr. Barnum protested that he did not hate the Irish, but he objected to the 'dimocracy.' He said he would confess that he had once been a slaveholder.

"Mr. Rogers, of Milford—Did you free your slaves or did you sell them? but that was when I was an ignorant 'democrat.' The showman, who is now rich, mark you! sold his slaves because he was 'an ignorant democrat,' and pocketed the money. Very well, now that he is an enlightened Republican, let him pay over the sum he received for his slaves to the Freedmen's Bureau.—Norfolk Virginian.

RELIES FOR SALE.—The editor of the State Line Gazette (Bristol), desiring to accommodate himself to the new political dispensation, offers for sale:

"A well bound volume, containing the late Constitution of the United States, the Constitution of Virginia, now Military District, A. No. 1, also the Virginia Bill of Rights, and the Kentucky Resolutions of 1776. Any one desiring to preserve these relics of the barons, is extending from 1776 to 1861 will do well to call."

AS CABLE MESSAGE.—The following cable dispatch is said to have been received in New York a few days since:

Mr. A. L. New York: Third episode John, thirteenth and fourteenth verses. X. B. Being interpreted the dispatch would read: I had many things to write, but I will not ink and pen write unto thee. But I trust I shall shortly see thee, and we shall speak face to face. Peace be to thee. Our friends salute thee. Greet the friends by name."

KNOW THY DESTINY.—MADAME E. F. THORNTON, the great English Astrologist, Clairvoyant and Psychometrist, who has astonished the scientific classes of the Old World, has now located herself at Hudson, N.Y. Madame Thornton possesses such wonderful powers of second sight, as to enable her to impart knowledge of the greatest importance to the single or married of either sex. While in a state of trance, she delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychometre, guarantees to produce a life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, together with date of marriage, position in life, leading traits of character, &c. This is no humbug, as thousands of testimonials can assert.—She will send, when desired, a certified certificate, or written guarantee, that the picture is what it purports to be. By enclosing a small lock of hair, and stating place of birth, age, disposition and complexion, and enclosing fifty cents and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture and desired information by return mail. All communications sacredly confidential. Address, in conditions, Madame E. F. Thornton, P. O. Box 223, Hudson, N. Y. mh 2-1y

A YOUNG LADY returning to her country home, after a sojourn of a few months in the city, was hardly recognized by her friends. In a place of coarseness, rustic, almost rude, she had a soft rosy complexion, flushed face, smooth hair, and instead of twenty-three she really appeared but eighteen. Upon inquiry as to the cause of so great a change, she plainly told them that she used the CIRCASSIAN BALM, and considered it an invaluable acquisition to any lady's toilet. By its use any lady or gentleman can improve their personal appearance an hundred fold. It is simple in its combination, as Nature herself is simple, yet unsurpassed in its efficacy in drawing impurities from, also healing, cleansing and beautifying the skin and complexion. By its direct action on the cuticle it draws from it all its impurities, kindly healing the same, and leaving the surface as nature intended it should be, clear, soft, smooth and beautiful.—Price $1, sent by Mail or Express, on receipt of an order by W. L. CLARK & CO., Chemists, No. 3, West Fayette st., Syracuse, N. Y. The only American Agents for the sale of the same. mh 12-1y

WONDERFUL, BUT TRUE!—MADAME REMINGTON, the world-renowned Astrologist and Somnambulist Clairvoyant, while in a clairvoyant state, delineates the very features of the person you are to marry, and by the aid of an instrument of intense power, known as the Psychometre, guarantees to produce a perfect and life-like picture of the future husband or wife of the applicant, with date of marriage, occupation, leading traits of character, &c. This is no imposition, as testimonials without number can assert. By stating place of birth, age, disposition, color of eyes and hair, and enclosing fifty cents, and stamped envelope addressed to yourself, you will receive the picture by return mail, together with desired information.

Address, in confidence, MADAME GERTRUDE REMINGTON, P. O. Box 297, West Troy, New York mh 12-1y

FERTILIZERS, &c.
GUANO AND FERTILIZERS.
The subscriber has on hand a full assortment of the most approved MANURES, which he is prepared to sell in any quantity desired, at the LOWEST MARKET RATES.

As the prices are uniform the farmer can obtain his supplies as well by correspondence as though he were to purchase in person.
I OFFER:
Peruvian Guano, of the best quality, from the same section as Peru, which it closely resembles in texture and appearance. It is much richer in Phosphate, but has less Ammonia. For stiff soils or stiff sub-soils it will answer quite as well as Peruvian, and it costs but two thirds the price of that article.
Mexican Guano, of four grades.
Ground Bones.

Whitecock's Cerealizer. The high reputation borne by this article as the most effective and reliable crop producer made in the United States, induces me to ask the farmer to test it alongside of any manure he may apply.
This article is manufactured by the same house, and contains all the best qualities of Peruvian Guano and Ground Bones.
