Foreign News

From Spain our dispatches report a force of Royalist troops concentrating for an attack upon Seville. The Revolutionists are said to be very strong on the seaboard, holding several important towns. Two regiments of Royal troops, sent from Madrid to Cadiz to quell the insurrection there, are reported to have revolted while on the road and gone over to the revolutionists. The Royalist account of the fight at Santander states that after a short engagement the revolutionists were worsted and took refuge in the fleet in the harbor.

The London Times and Telegraph have articles on the speech of Reverdy Johnson at Leeds. They exult in the good sense and pacific tone of Mr. Johnson's utterances and say, if he who knows the whole case is certain of an adjustment of the difficulties pending, the public may be sure of it.

Rev. Henry Hart Milman, dean of St. Paul's Church, in London, is dead. La France says the rights gained by the U. S. in the treaty with Nicaragua were gained by France and England, by the stipulation in the treaty of 1850.

RAFAEL'S CARTOONS.—A house in Park Place has just published the seven celebrated cartoons of Raphael in chromo-lithograph. The pictures are large and effective in coloring, and fine similes in drawing. They are sold to the public at a price within reach of all. The well-known subjects are: "Paul Preaching at Athens"; "The Charge to Peter"; "The Death of Ananias"; "Elymas the Sorcerer Struck Blind"; "The Miraculous Draught of Fishes"; "Paul and Barnabas at Lystra"; and "Healing the Lame at the Beautiful Gate of the Temple." These cartoons, known among art votaries as "Raphael's Bible," were painted in 1513 by order of Pope Julius II, as designs for the famous tapestries of the Sistine chapel at Rome, which were executed after them at an outlay of 50,000 gold ducats. At the suggestion of Peter Paul Rubens they were purchased by Charles I. of England, and lodged in that palace of art, Hampton Court, where, until lately, when they were removed to Kensington, for two hundred and fifty years they have attracted connoisseurs and art students of all lands, to win their homage. The chromo-lithographs referred to are the first fair-similes of these works ever published, and represent as faithfully as efforts and bold coloring of the painter.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Abraham Wenger, living 7 1/2 miles North of Harrisonburg, near the Valley turnpike, has sold his fruit farm containing 118 1/2 acres, to Maj. S. M. Yost, of Harrisonburg, for $55 per acre, equivalent to cash. This is one of the most valuable fruit farms in the county. It has on it about 2,500 young bearing fruit trees, including the best varieties of peaches, pears, apples, &c., and a small vineyard of a superior quality of grapes.

At the Horticultural Fair in Richmond, Tuesday, a counterpane, manufactured nearly half a century ago, in Stafford county, by Mrs. William Alsop, from cotton grown upon the plantation of the maker, and a beautifully embroidered shirt, the bosom of which alone contains over thirty-three thousand stitches, attracted no little attention.

St. John's Church, on Church Hill, in Richmond, is now over one hundred years old. This is the identical spot where Patrick Henry denounced the British government, and gave utterance to the immortal sentiment, "give me liberty, or give me death."

The bridge across the Shenandoah River at the White House in Page County, has been completed and pronounced a most excellent and substantial bridge, reflecting very great credit upon the Contractor, Mr. R. N. Bruce, of Sperryville.

Mr. Edward Wilroy, an employee of the Powhatan Steamboat Company, dropped dead about noon yesterday in Rockets near Richmond. Mr. W. was apparently in excellent health up to the hour of his death.

The Annie Collins, of Nova Scotia, is now in the dock at Richmond, loading for Havana, Cuba, with car wheels and freight cars, made at the Treadgar Iron Works of Richmond.

The Fredericksburg News says: "We learn that a party of gentlemen with a large capital, have in contemplation the creation of a large plaster mill here."

Seventy-five students have arrived at the Deaf, Dum and Blind Institution of Virginia. One hundred and thirty-eight are expected in all.

The Richmond Theatre will be opened by John T. Ford, on October 6th.

Tom-Pins are now the favorite and popular pastime of the young gentlemen of Lynchburg. The Tobacco Factories at Danville are closed.

GOING UP!—There are in this county quite a number of the deluded believers in the Rev. Mr. Thurman's idea, that certain of God's people are to "go up" to heaven on Sunday, the 27th of September, about three o'clock in the afternoon. In other words, that Christ is to make His appearance at that time, for the purpose of consummating the object indicated. Many of these people are amongst the most industrious, frugal and honest of our population. A majority of these were originally members of the Tunker Church, a German organization of christians, of high respectability and influence in the Valley here. They are an honest people in pecuniary matters, and like all honest folks, they have been engaged in settling up their old accounts preparatory to their advent on Sunday afternoon. In fact, we learn, that some of them have gone so far as to disregard the advantages to debtors of the stay law, and have paid all their debts whether contracted before or after the time.

If the universal belief in Mr. Thurman's doctrine, ideas and program would have this happy effect upon all classes of debtors, we could wish it wider diffusion. Dayton, a little village, four miles out from Harrisonburg, is one of the places in this county from which some of these people expect confidently to go up next Sunday. Preparations have been made, their worldly affairs all arranged, a series of meetings are in progress, and everything is in readiness for their translation on high!—Rockingham Register.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—Capt. Robert Lincoln and his bride, accompanied by his mother and brother, and Mr. Edgar Welles and Mr. Edwin Stanton, Jr., left at noon for New York yesterday. The wedding, it is said, took place earlier than was intended in consequence of Mrs. Lincoln's proposed departure for Europe on October 1st.

A brief has been prepared in support of the appeal taken by the counsel for the government from the decision of Judge Wylie in the Surratt case. It presents questions of special pleading.

Rev. Dr. Gurley, of the N. Y. avenue Presbyterian Church, has been brought to his home in this city from Cambridge, New York. He is in a very precarious condition, but small hopes of his recovery are entertained.

In the Washington Circuit Court on Thursday, in the case of James T. Close vs. John T. Price, for the use and occupation of land, Close claimed $350 rent of Price; but Price filed assets greater than the claim; and obtained judgment for thirty eight dollars.

Two suits in the Circuit Court here to recover damages against justices of the peace for false imprisonment have resulted disastrously for the plaintiffs, the jury in each case finding for the defendant.

The new department of agriculture, with its improved grounds, heating apparatus, furniture, &c., cost in the aggregate about $142,000.

Mr. B. H. Hill, of Georgia, now in New York, has written a letter to the New York Tribune, in relation to the late riot at Camilla, brought on by the persistent disregard of law in holding armed assemblages of colored people led on by white men, who are deluding and running them. The Baltimore Sun says: "It is impossible to read, without profound sympathy, calm and truthful picture of the sad and afflicted condition of the people Mr. Hill's account, and their overwhelming anxiety for their liberties, lives and property, and of the cogent reasons and motives which they recognize as compelling them to act with the utmost prudence and forbearance. The man who cannot feel for his fellow being, thus situated, and who, worse than that, can deliberately pervert the subject of vituperation, must be utterly cold and heartless. It is additional misery of the quiet and orderly members of society that provocations to outbreak are offered and persisted in, thereby compelling a community to submit to the hazard of all that they hold dear, or if they endeavor to save themselves, to be held responsible for all the excesses that the unruly and turbulent may avail themselves of the opportunity to commit."

IMPUDENT.—This morning the wife of one of our most respectable citizens stepped into a large dry goods house on Baltimore street, to purchase some articles, when a foppishly dressed young man followed her in, and handed her a card containing the following: "You beautiful woman—I saw you a moment ago—you look so good and beautiful. How can I get acquainted with you? Do send me your address and let me write to you and then I'll get properly introduced. Do excuse me, but I cannot help this seeming rudeness; I am an honorable gentleman. My address now is M. D. Landon, U. S. Treasury, Washington, D. C. I am deeply in earnest and perfectly honest. Pardon if you please."

The lady at once handed the impudent card to her husband, and the writer, who styles himself an ex-member of the American Legion at Petersburg, will suffer for his impertinence if it is possible to find him.—Baltimore Commercial.

LOUDBON COUNTY.—The ceremonies of laying the corner stone of the Masonic Hall in Lovettsville were very interesting. Excellent addresses were delivered by Revs. Mr. Landstreet and Richardson.

Mr. Joseph Birky died, suddenly, at his residence in Leesburg, on Thursday morning last. He had lived for a number of years the office of Recorder of the town of Leesburg, and in all the relations of life won the confidence and esteem of his fellow citizens.

The A. L. & H. Railroad, gives notice that an excursion train will leave Leesburg on Friday morning, October 2d, (next Friday), at 7 o'clock, A. M., to connect with the steamer Arrow, for Mt. Vernon. Parties can visit Fort Washington or Mt. Vernon as they choose. Round trip tickets $2.—Leesburg Washingtonian.

HENRICHT IN THE FIELD.—"Now, while no one objects to persons from other States coming and settling among us as citizens, acquiring interests, and assuming responsibilities in common with all other citizens, we must confess that all good and loyal citizens do object to strangers coming among us and being placed in power and positions which empower them to manipulate the entire political machinery of the whole State."—Harrison's paper.

The tumult of war on the career, lingers in vigor since the declaration of hostilities by the negroes on Monday last. He has become a real "rebel," and accepts the nomination for Governor in opposition to the "gentleman from Michigan," who now occupies the Executive chair by military appointment.—Rich. Dispatch.

METHODIST CHURCH CASE.—This case was still continued during the last week, the interest manifested by our citizens being unabated. It is unnecessary for us to say that this is a most important case, as it will be cited as a precedent in all the courts in contested ownership of churches, and there are many such disputes, existing at this time, growing out of the late war.

There has been much ability displayed by the counsel on both sides in arguing this case, and its conduct reflects much credit on the bar of Winchester. As we go to press the case is still going on. We suppose it will be several weeks before the decision will be made known to the public.—Winchester News.

THE PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION.—In the name of impartial suffrage, Congress has forbidden Virginia, Texas and Mississippi to vote at the coming election, and it is now desired to know whether the votes of those States are to be counted as making up the total vote of the Electoral College. If so, that total will be 317, and 159 necessary to elect. If not, the total will be 294; necessary to elect 147. The point seems to have been left open as placing a discrepancy of eleven votes at the disposal of Congress, to manipulate according as the light of the election returns, the interests of moral ideas may require. If Seymour should get 148 votes, it would be no election and must go to the House; if Grant should get 148, it would be all right, a fair election, will of the people, glorious triumph, and so on! Let us have peace.—N. Y. World.

FATAL AFFRAY BETWEEN BROTHERS.—We learn that a serious difficulty occurred in Horn-town, Va., on Saturday night last, between two brothers named Joseph and Elisha English, the former a hotel keeper at that place. It appears that during some dispute about property, Elisha made towards his brother with a drawn knife, stabbing at him and cutting his clothes in shreds. He escaped through a window and went to a neighbor's. Elisha pursued him, however, and let him know that he "had him just where he wanted him!" whereupon, in self defence, Mr. English seized a hoe and knocked his brother Elisha down, from the effects of which he died on Tuesday night. The hotel keeper is a small, quiet, gentlemanly man, while his brother was large and muscular.—Newtown Record.

Ugh!—On Sunday evening last about 8 o'clock, as Mr. Charles Craggs, of this city was standing in front of the Episcopal church, attentively listening to the music of the choir, he was attracted by something glistening on his clothing near his waistband, and putting his hand on it, was considerably shocked to discover that a snake had quietly wound itself around his leg and crawled up to his waistband. With a feeling of terror he shook off the hateful reptile, which quickly glided away through the grass. The clothing of Mr. C. was marked by a streak of slime.—Cumberland Ec.

The Paris wits spare nobody. See how they treat our friends, the doctors:

"At the hospital of —, the doctor arrived, grave and thoughtful.

"How many dead have you this morning?"

"Nine, sir."

"Devil! didn't I give you prescriptions yesterday?"

"Yes, sir; but one of the patients refused to take any."

The National Council of the order of O. U. A. M. have had their annual session at Wilmington, Delaware. The order is reported to be in a flourishing condition. The new officers were elected and installed.

As wood is now so scarce and so high, would it not be well to call the attention of those who are poor, to the fact that it will not be possible for them to be supplied with wood, and that therefore, they must procure a cheaper fuel.—The cheapest fuel that can be used is Cumberland coal. One ton of this, with economy, will keep a stove fire going for five or six months. Let every poor person therefore try at once to procure a ton of Cumberland coal.

ONE WHO CARES FOR THE POOR.

Can any one tell me why I should put up on my house or fence—"paste no bills." What right has any man to deface my house with his show-bills any more than break my windows? Is it necessary for me to stick up a notice—"break no windows?" XX.

At her residence, on the Heights of Georgetown, Friday morning, September 25, CATHARINE ANN, beloved wife of David M. Green, aged 30 years. Burial at Trinity Church, in Georgetown, next Monday morning, at half-past 9 o'clock.

New York Day Goods Market.—There has been a very active business in dry goods during the past week, mostly, however, among the jobbers, who boldly took the initiative step in reducing the price of staple domestic cottons below the prices demanded by the manufacturer. The movement does not produce the effect it was expected to, for the commission houses did not make concessions in response to this movement of the jobbers, and it is not unlikely that some of them will have to replace their stocks at prices above those they sold at.

GEORGETOWN MARKET.—The sales at the Merchants' Exchange during the past week amounted to 5100 bushels of white Corn, which brought from 117-120, and 900 bushels of inferior 112; 15,536 of fair to prime Wheat brought from 22-24-71, and 1050 of poor quality sold at 20-24-10.

Gold advanced 3/4 per cent at New York yesterday, closing at 42. Governments were active and generally unchanged; the 5-20s 3d, however, declined 1 per cent. Railroad shares were all higher and stronger. All the Border State stocks were higher except Tennessee, which declined a trifle.

American silver is selling in New York at 61 1/2 below the price of gold. Mexican dollars are held at 102 1/2 in gold.
