

THE GAZETTE. FRIDAY EVENING, APRIL 1.

A HARD ROAD TO TRAVEL.—We have a printer in our office who lives four miles from town, and who goes home twice a week. He has a rough and adventurous road to travel: First he passes a house where a man was killed by lightning; then he passes by the public gallows; next where a man hanged himself; and where a man was found dead; next he passes by a place where a man hung his wife; next he passes a house used by medical students many years ago for dissecting human beings; next, a place where a crazy man killed his mother; next the place where the whigs in the revolution shot four Tories; and next the place where Gen. Graham thrashed out the Tories in the revolution. And our printer has seen nothing like a ghost yet!—Hillsboro Recorder.

MISCELLANY.—Indiana papers speak of a lawyer who charged a client $10 for collecting $9, but said he would not press him to pay him the other dollar, for a few days, if it would be more convenient for him to let it stand.

Charles A. Dana has sued the Republican newspaper in Chicago to compel the payment of a note for $20,000 due for services as editor of that paper and for stock promised him. It appears that he was to receive $7,500 salary, annually, &c.

Over forty persons have been massacred and several hundred horses captured and many houses burnt in an extensive raid of the Comanche Indians in Western Texas.

A day or two since, an unfortunate woman in Boston, deserted by her lover, followed him to the place where he boarded, intending to kill him, but not finding him, killed herself.

The Richmond Enquirer says that since the war the facility and also the practice of obtaining divorces has increased in Virginia.
