DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENT.—A respectable audience, though by no means the overflowing one usual on such occasions, attended the Dramatic Exhibition given by the Patrick Henry Society of St. John's Academy, at Liberty Hall, last evening. The play selected was a translation of the beautiful drama by Madame DeGaulis, called "The Cross of St. John's," and it was produced with more attention to costume and scenic effect than is usual in amateur performances. Nearly all the actors did their parts well, though some spoke too low to allow of a judgment as to their merits by any but those who occupied the front seats. With-out being considered invidious, we may say that the characters of Simeon Merx, by Richard J. Collins, Theodore DeMauville, by Henry L. Mathews, of Galveston, Texas, and Schulman, by Edward M. Sandy, jr., of Tappahannock, Va., were generally considered to have been best sustained. The drill, by a detachment of sixteen cadets (all the stage would hold,) under the command of Capt. Hannie Price, was very good. The boys marched and wheeled in excellent time, and handled their rifles well, reflecting much credit on Col. Picklin, their military instructor. The afterpiece, "The Unwarrantable Intrusion," was a very humorous affair, and was exceedingly well rendered by Glenn Brown and Arthur Gregory of this city. The whole affair was highly creditable to Mr. John A. Veitch, under whose able superintendence it took place, and we only regret that our young friends had not their usual crowded audience, as it was, probably, the very best entertainment they have ever given.

MORE OF THE "MONEY BUSINESS." &c.—The following letter from Alexandria appears in the Washington Chronicle:— "To the Editor of the Chronicle: In my former article I stated that no amount contributed for election purposes, (this year, I mean,) exceeded two dollars. I emphatically repeat this, and I might "rest my case here" as the lawyers say.

No one will acknowledge that two dollars a year is a liberal donation, even from an office-holder receiving only one thousand dollars per year. Nor is it a contribution to the "full extent of their ability."

Something more than liberal gifts are necessary, and required, from Republican office-holders. They must take great interest in every election, local, State, or national, and are expected to be present at ward meetings, particularly on the eve of an important municipal election.

And here let me declare, and I challenge proof to the contrary, that no prominent incumbent of a government office has been seen at a ward meeting this year, or taken an active, energetic part in the interests of our party.— This apathy on the part of white Republicans is the subject more generally talked of by the colored voters than the need of money. They need funds, of course, for printing, hiring vehicles for aged and infirm voters, expenses of meetings, &c., but they require more than anything else, the presence of office-holders at their meetings and being sustained and encouraged by them. The success of our party demands this. In Democratic times the absence of an office-holder at political meetings was sufficient cause for removal.

A RATE REPUBLICAN.

Alexandria, May 7, 1871.

MILITARY VISIT TO MOUNT VERNON.—The Fifth Regiment of Maryland National Guards, of Baltimore. Col. Jenkins commanding, will arrive in Washington at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning, and after giving the President a marching salute, will take the steamer Vanderbilt at 11:30 a. m. for a visit of a few hours to Mount Vernon, passing this city about noon. The regiment will start 350 strong, with their old gray uniform, white belts, knapsacks and blankets rolled, and one day's rations. They are armed with their new breech-loading muskets, and among the rank and file there are men who fought on both sides during the late civil war. The parade will be the first since the retirement of Col. Herbert, who until recently had been in command from the organization of the regiment. The steamer Arrow will transport the regiment from the Vanderbilt, lying in the channel, to the Mount Vernon wharf.

NOMINATIONS.—In reference to meetings for nominating candidates for municipal officers, the Warrenton Index makes these remarks applicable, at this time, to all localities.

"Every one, even aspirants themselves, recognize the necessity for holding these meetings. They aid in harmonizing discordant views, assist in concentrating the strength of the party, and are a guarantee of the success of an acceptable ticket. Every conservative citizen who feels an interest in good local government should attend. Those who fail to attend have no just reason to take exceptions at what is done. They are more responsible for indifferent nominations than those who have a button-hole visit served upon them by office seekers. Nominations will be made whether few or many attend and to those nominees the meetings will pledge their support, and throw the onus of dividing the party and catering to a certain element in our midst, upon such as are not disposed to incur a little trouble at the proper time."

THE FISHERY.—The river continues full with a strong current and some drift wood is making its appearance. The water is so high at, and rushes so rapidly past, Georgetown that vessels cannot reach the wharves there. In consequence of apprehended danger at the draw of the bridge across the Potomac, the local trains between here and Washington that stopped running yesterday morning have not yet recommenced their trips, but the cars of the through trains are pulled over the dangerous place by ropes attached to locomotives which remain at either end of the draw. The trains from Harrisonburg do not arrive now until nine o'clock at night, in consequence of the injury mentioned yesterday to the bridge across the north branch of the Shenandoah River.

TABLEAUX.—This evening the Ladies' Festival for the benefit of the Methodist Protestant Church will conclude with a series of tableaux, and, as the fortunate possessors of those pretty faces that have nightly attended are to represent the living pictures, the representations will be impressively beautiful. The fancy articles, confectionary, &c., &c., will be sold by auction—sale commencing at 10 o'clock. All who wish to spend a pleasant evening should be present. There will be no postponement on account of weather.

RAIN.—Old folks call this the "long season in May"—that is, a season of continued rain for several days, which generally happens in this month, in this section of country.

A RADICAL MEETING.—A public meeting of the Radicals of the city was held at the Colored Old Fellows' Hall, south Columbus street, last night. There were present W. D. Massey, O. C. Whittlesey, Joseph Colton, W. L. Penn and Joseph Miller, white, and about sixty-two colored persons. Mr. Miller, the President of the club, called the meeting to order, stated its object, and made a motion that O. C. Whittlesey be appointed secretary pro tem. The motion was seconded, but before it was put J. A. Seaton, arose and said he objected to it; that Mr. Miller had made a motion and seconded it himself, which he had no right to do.

Mr. Massey—You don't understand what you are talking about. Seaton—I do.

Mr. Massey—I seconded the motion myself. Seaton—You didn't, sir.

Mr. Miller—If the colored gentleman will sit down and pay attention to what is going on perhaps he will learn something. Seaton—I'll learn you something, old fellow. A number of hurried and excited speeches were then delivered, most of which were utterly unintelligible and mere outbursts of "zeal" and bad feeling. The house had to be called to order time and again. In one of the speeches, a colored man took occasion to say that he hoped they would be particular about what they had to say, "as de was a porter on hand to ridicule 'em in de papers."

Mr. Massey was nominated and elected President of the meeting for the term of six months, and John Birrell secretary. On taking the chair, Mr. Massey explained that the object of that meeting was to further the organization of a Republican party for the town of Alexandria. That it had nothing to do with Ward meetings, and that he hoped all the Republicans would unite in trying to effect a permanent organization; that he thought it best to elect a Vice President and quite ready to elect a Vice President and John Beckley, colored, was put in nomination and elected by a majority of 26 votes over G. L. Seaton and Edward Evans. The successful candidate then addressed the meeting expressing his thanks for the "honor" done him in electing him Vice President of the club; urged a co-operation of the Four Wards, and said it would be a glorious organization and it would last until the end of time! That they had made a great point—"quoniam divi vixisse decessit aliqum quo possimus ostendere factum nos vixisse," that John Seaton had caused a good deal of disturbance in the meeting, but he was excusable as he did not know any better, and hoped he would be quiet in the future.

Seaton—That man Beckley has made a personal attack on me, but I won't "little my self" to answer him. He minds me of a tale which my grand-mother told me 'bout old Gin'l Washington. Gin'l Washington was coming from church one day, and he saw a pretty little white thing in the road and shot at it. The thing shot back "in its peculiar way" and Gin'l Washington had to bury his clothes. A man makes nothing by fighting with skunks. (Applause and laughter.)

O. C. Whittlesey was then elected Corresponding Secretary of the club. A committee of Finance, consisting of two from each Ward, was appointed. The meeting became very disorderly and a motion was made to adjourn. Seaton—I demand the attention of this here meeting. I'm full and can talk a volume. (Cries of order, order.)

The meeting then adjourned, subject to the call of the President.

2nd Ward—2 white added, and 1 white and 1 colored transferred.

3rd Ward—5 white and 2 colored added, and 2 white and 2 colored transferred.

4th Ward—3 white and 3 colored added and 2 white and 1 colored transferred.

M. E. CHURCH SUNDAY SCHOOL.—At the anniversary meeting of the M. E. Church Sunday school, held at the parsonage of that church last night, the following officers were elected to serve during the ensuing year: I. C. O'Neal, Superintendent; J. C. Clark, Assistant Superintendent; Lorenzo Harmon, Secretary; and J. A. Dyon, Treasurer.

PROPERTY SALE.—Col. Hodges of Washington has purchased sixty acres of land on the Arlington turnpike, from Mr. Harvie Bailey, at $65 per acre. It is understood that Col. H. will at once set about improving his tract, and that he will use it as a dairy farm from which to supply Washington with milk.

THE CUSTOM HOUSE.—The roof of the Custom House leaks so badly that arrangements are being made to have it removed and a new one put on as soon as the prevailing wet weather ceases.

PERSONAL.—Thomas P. Fitzpatrick, esp., State Senator from Nelson, is in this city on business. Mr. F. is looking very well and is moving around with his accustomed energy.

POLICE REPORT.—A young man, taken up for disorderly conduct last night and locked up in the station house, was turned out upon the promise of his father that he would appear at a future examination.

Hugh Strider, arrested on the charge of breaking his way into the house of Mrs. Joseph Clark, on West street, between King and Prince, through a window, between six and seven o'clock last night, and stealing a watch, some clothing and jewelry from the room occupied by a young man named Patton, was locked up in the station house to await an examination.

LECTURE.—It will be seen by the notice which appears in to-day's Gazette, that this community is soon to have the opportunity of again hearing Rev. James A. Duncan, D. D. It should be an additional inducement to insure the attendance of his numerous admirers, if any were needed, to know that the small admittance fee charged is to aid the students of Randolph-Macon College in building their society halls. This is a praiseworthy effort and deserves success.

CANAL NEWS.—The Chesapeake and Ohio and Alexandria canals so far as heard from have sustained but little damage—only a slight break at "Mercesville" has as yet been reported. Boats are detained by high water at "Big Slack-water." The Consolidation boat "Creole," sunk at Oldtown on Friday last. It is doubtful whether she can be raised without having her cargo removed.

ARRESTED ON THE CARS.—A man named Gee, who had stolen some money in Lynchburg, was arrested on the passenger train, bound to this city, yesterday, at Gordonsville. The police here had been apprised of the theft, and on the "look out" for the thief, when the train arrived, but, as above stated, he had been secured at Gordonsville.

MR. VERNON COTTON FACTORY.—The necessary repairs to the boiler at the Mount Vernon Cotton Factory having been completed, work, which was suspended there yesterday morning, was resumed at half-past four o'clock this morning.

INSTALLATION.—The installation of Rev. W. A. McAtee as Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will take place in that church to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock.

Attempt to Throw a Train off the Track.

DEPOSIT, N. Y., May 8.—It is just made public that an attempt was made on the night of April 30, to throw express train No. 12, on the Erie railway off the track near Deposit, N. Y. The train was descending the summit grade approaching this station, when at Seward's crossing it ran into some obstructions. Its weight and speed, however, overcame the resistance and the danger, was escaped. The watchman at once began removing the obstructions when he was assailed by a shower of stones from the wood on the side of the road and was compelled to abandon the work and procure assistance. The train was more than usually heavy and contained the director's car upon their way to the city to assist in arranging a new time table. If the effort had been successful it would have been attended with a great loss of life. The grade here is fifty feet to the mile and the speed of the train 40 to 50 miles an hour.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Quil Drugging.—This is now admitted by the medical profession as a fundamental principle of healing science. It is wisely provided by the human economy that whenever anything is wrong in the physical system the natural forces of the body are brought to bear to expel the disease. The great aim, therefore, is to strengthen the natural powers. This has been kept in view by the skillful compounders of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which operates to give fresh vitality to all the organs of the body. The effect of this medicine upon the stomach, the liver and the kidneys, is prompt and decisive. The patient, who is wise enough to quit drugging and try the Bitters, soon feels as if he had taken a new lease of life, and as he continues the use of the article, he is enabled to find the streams of health gushing through his frame. It is prepared with great care, and its component parts are entirely vegetable. It is free from the objections so often urged against preparations of the kind. As a medicinal agent, it has no equal, while its pleasant flavor and healthful effects have made it a general favorite. It is free from all properties calculated to impair the system, and its operations are at once mild, soothing and efficient. All who have used Hostetter's Stomach Bitters attest its virtue and commend it to their friends.

Even those who are in the enjoyment of perfect health frequently have need to have recourse to tonics as preventives of disease. We are never too well armed against the assaults of "the ills that flesh is heir to." In such cases, vitality is lost, and the system is weakened, and the vigor and elasticity of the system.
