GENERAL PRYOR.—Ex-General Roger A. Pryor, late of Virginia, had some words with counsel to whom he was opposed in a case on hearing before Judge McCune, in the Special Term Room of the Superior Court, this morning. When the case had been disposed of, the two counsel met just outside the door of the court room, and the dispute was renewed. General Pryor waxed wroth, seized counsel by the nose, tweaked at him, and then, giving him a vigorous shaking, and showering epithets, remarkable for their vigor and terseness, upon his unfortunate head. Counsel threatened the vengeance of the law upon the belligerent General, but the latter turned upon his heel and walked away, thus ending the scene.—N. Y. Commercial.

COMPULSORY HASH.—There is an energy in the keeping of boarding houses in Arkansas quite unknown in the North. The proprietor of a private hostelry in a town of that State, having heard frequent complaints from his boarders about the regular recurrence of hash, prepared himself to crush the rebellions spirit. At the next morning meal he placed two revolvers beside his plate, and remarked, "Whoever says he doesn't like hash lies." He then began distributing hash, and no man declined it.—Boston Herald.

The ladies of the Second Presbyterian Church will hold their usual Festival at the A. & W. Rooms next week, commencing Tuesday, May 23d.

IN PRINCE WILLIAM COUNTY COURT. May 2d, 1871.—Alexandria and Fredericksburg Railway Company v. Joseph M. Nagley. And in order to cause the Court to dispose properly of the said sum of money ($225) it is ordered that Wm. E. Lipscomb, one of the Commissioners of this Court do ascertain and report what persons are entitled to said sum of money and in what proportions said Commissioners shall make an order of publication requiring all persons interested to appear before him that their respective claims may be passed upon. Said order of publication shall be published once a week for four successive weeks in some newspaper circulating in this county. L. A. DAVIS, Clerk.

COMM'R. OFFICE, BRENTSVILLE. May 6th, 1871. To Joseph M. Nagley and all others interested. Take notice that I have fixed upon Monday the 6th day of June, 1871, for the purpose of executing the order of which the above is a true extract. Wm. E. LIPSCOMB, Commissioner in and for Prince William Co., my 1—lawyer.

VALUABLE REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

100 ACRES OF IMPROVED LAND, on the Middle River Turnpike, 7 miles from Washington and 4 from Alexandria, with a beautiful view of the latter city and of the Potomac river. The improvements consist of a BRICK DWELLING, buildings, and an abundance of choice fruit of all descriptions. The farm is well watered, and has on it a plenty of timber.

300 ACRES HEAVILY TIMBERED LAND—situated on Washington city—same distance from Alexandria, and about 3 miles from a station on the W. & O. R. R., offering a ready market for wood and timber. A FARM, in Fauquier county, 6 miles below Warrenton, and within two miles of a station on the Warrenton branch of the O. A. & M. R. R. The tract contains about 400 acres; is well timbered and watered, and is considered fine grazing land. The above property, the title to which is without defect, will be sold cheap and upon accommodating terms. Apply to A. B. Gazette office, Feb 11—tf

THE SINGER FAMILY SEWING MACHINES. The sales of this machine, as shown by official returns, far exceed those of any other company and have left all rivals far behind, 127,823 having been sold during the year 1870, being more than 40,000 in advance of their sales of the previous year, and over 44,000 more than the sales of any other company.

UNSETTLED WAR CLAIMS. AT ITS LAST SESSION CONGRESS, AS an amendment to the army appropriation bill, directed the President to appoint a commission to ascertain and adjust the claims of all loyal citizens in the South for Quartermaster and Commissary supplies furnished to the United States during the war. Under the head of Quartermaster are included hay, straw, wood, rent of houses and lots, grain, horses and mules, &c.—As commissary stores are included cattle and hogs, flour, corn meal, &c. As yet the rules which will be adopted by the commission concerning proof of loyalty and the furnishing of supplies are unknown. It is very necessary, however, that all claimants should have their claims presented at once, so as to have whatever benefit may result from priority of application, if any.

Under-signed will receive and promptly attend to all claims of parties who deem themselves entitled to compensation under the above act of Congress. References by permission: Hon. F. E. Spinner, Treasurer of the U. S. Hon. LeRoy Tuttle, Asst. Treasurer U. S. Hon. Alex. Ramsey, U. S. Senator from Minn. Hon. Lewis McKenzie. Hon. Clinton Lloyd, Chief Clerk H. of R. WAR CLAIMS. Congress having just passed an act creating a commission to examine claims of loyal citizens of the South for stores or supplies taken or furnished for the use of the army of the United States during the late war, the undersigned, CHARLES WHITTLESEY, late Attorney General of the State of Virginia, and WESTLEY WILLOUGHBY, late Judge of the Supreme Court of Appeals of Virginia, having associated themselves together for the purpose of giving special attention to this class of claims, offer to prosecute such claims, and hereby solicit the attention of claimants to their facilities for securing successful results thereon. CHARLES WHITTLESEY, UNITED STATES COMMISSIONER. ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR IN BANKRUPTCY. Congress having just amended the Bankrupt law so that nearly all parties can be discharged from their debts, and substituted by the fifty per cent. clause, so-called, another opportunity offers to secure the benefits of this most effective and permanent measure of relief. The above-named will make bankrupt business a specialty; will procure discharges on the most liberal terms which cannot fail to be satisfactory. Being United States Commissioner he will endeavor to visit the different counties on court days, and thus save parties the trouble and expense of coming to Alexandria in beginning and proceeding with their cases. Discharges can be obtained here before Register Hill as promptly as in Richmond or elsewhere, and at much less expense to parties. It may be desired that the Bankrupt act, in connection with the Homestead exemption, which it is now believed will be secured to the bankrupt under the bankrupt law, is the only relief now offered to parties struggling in the hopeless bondage of old debts.
