CHRISTMAS.—Monday next being CHRISTMAS DAY, in accordance with ancient custom, business will be suspended in this place, and no paper will be issued from this office.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.—At 9 a. m. yesterday, an examination of the first grade of Snowden School for colored boys was commenced at the school house on Pitt street between Gibbon and Franklin. It was conducted by Mr. Wm. F. Carne, one of the trustees from the 1st Ward, and embraced Spelling, Reading, Geography, English Grammar, and History of the United States, in all which the pupils evinced considerable proficiency. This examination lasted until 12 o'clock, and was very thorough. At one, the City Superintendent appeared, and examined the boys in Arithmetic. As is usual in examinations, many failed in Numeration, but in Fractions and Decimals, and especially in Cancellation, they worked well reflecting great credit upon their teacher, Mr. Wm. F. Powell. Mr. O. C. Whittlesey, a trustee from the 4th Ward, who was to have examined the 2nd and 3rd grades, being too much indisposed to attend, the Superintendent examined those grades in Reading only, after which the children were dismissed. At Washington, Custis, Peabody, and Lee Schools, the City Superintendent presented medals. In the first named school, the boys of the 2nd grade, under the charge of Miss Virginia E. Clarkson, and those of the 3d, under Miss M. Ellen Price, filed into the room occupied by the 1st grade, and stood around the walls, and in lines along the areas, and though there were at least 120 boys present, many of them very young, the ticking of the clock could be heard throughout the room, so admirable was the order preserved, and the little fellows while filing in, marched with a steadiness and quiet which we have never seen excelled in a school anywhere. If any of our citizens want to show their friends what Alexandria has done already in the way of public schools, they need not be ashamed to take them to Washington School, for though the house is old, and the furniture mostly of a primitive character and of little value, the discipline preserved by Mr. Eicklin and his assistants would place the school in the first rank anywhere. The Superintendent spoke a few words of congratulation to the boys, and then presented the medal, a handsome silver one, shaped like an elliptical leaf, with the following inscription: "Alexandria Public Schools, 1871, Superintendent's Medal." On the reverse, and "To John Lynch of Washington School," on the reverse.

Next proceeded to Peabody School, 1st and 2d grades, where he found the girls in perfect order, anxiously awaiting his arrival, and equally ready to share in a certain big ice cake, which their accomplished teacher, Miss Law, had upon her desk. Here the medal was given to Jennie M. Richards and the girls had a good time with the big cake before departing.

Custis School, 1st and 2d grades, was then visited, and the medal presented to Jere. Guilford White, a little boy, who for the cleanness and neatness of his reading cannot be excelled in Alexandria.

Lastly, the Superintendent came to Lee School, under the charge of Misses Lena K. and Jennie K. Shay where, also, the girls had been gathered into one room and were very anxiously awaiting his arrival, it being very nearly four o'clock. Here the medal was presented to Miss Annie Cogswell, and it is but justice to the teachers to say that better order or a more intelligent looking assemblage of girls is seldom to be seen than they exhibited. To all the schools, the Superintendent gave holiday until Tuesday the 2d of January, and he notified Lee School that it would be reopened at Mr. C. J. Powell's School house, on Queen street, near Columbus, and the 3d grade of Custis, under Miss Walsh, that it would be removed to the front room, 2d story, of the Institute office on King street, below St. Asaph, immediately after the vacation.

RIVER NEWS.—The Aquia Creek mail boat due here yesterday at half-past eleven in the morning did not arrive until about half-past four in the afternoon, and many of her passengers fearing that she would be unable to force her way through the ice above here, landed at this city and took the five o'clock train for Washington. She went down again this morning, until about an hour and a half behind time. Until further notice the day boat on this line will leave and arrive here as usual, but no night boat will be run, nor will any connection be made at Aquia Creek with the boats on the lower Potomac line. The boat that arrived yesterday evening reports the tug Atlantic, with the schooner A. F. Kibber in tow, off Indian Head, having gotten through the worst of the ice. The Atlantic, when she leaves her tow will proceed to Baltimore and run in the harbor of that place during the winter. The steamer Utility for Ally's Point left here this morning in the wake of the mail boat. The Norfolk steamer Lady of the Lake due here yesterday morning had not arrived when this notice was written this afternoon, and the river may be said to be blockaded to every thing but the Aquia Creek line, and partially so to that CHRISTMAS.—Christmas, always the peculiar holiday of the people of Virginia, and now more so than ever, because the only one they can heartily enjoy, again approaches. Let those who can, make the most of it, for the time will soon come when even its joyous festivities will pass unheeded by, save only as reminders of once happy days, gone, alas! for ever. Then let Old Christmas Nick fill the stockings to their tops; let powder in every conceivable shape be burnt, and horns of all sorts blown; let presents be given and mince-meat pies be eaten, for in a few brief years, at most, such pleasures will be only sources of regret.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—At a meeting of Ellsworth Post, No. 4 G. A. R., Department of Virginia, held at Alexandria on Monday night last, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: E. E. A Coroner's inquest was held upon the body and a verdict rendered of death by accidental drowning.

MR. NEALE.—In its editorial summary of the proceedings of the House of Delegates, the Richmond Whig in noticing Mr. Neale's remarks on the debt question, says of that gentleman, "Mr. Neale is the youngest member of the House, and when he arose, he attracted universal attention. His manner was modest, but composed, and his elocution graceful and pleasing."

SENDING TO WASHINGTON.—The Washington Star objects strongly to the "cobbing" of persons convicted of petty larceny in this place, and ordering them to Washington—and says that "the police authorities must exercise vigilance, to see that Alexandria's convicts are not packed upon Washington."
