TUESDAY EVENING, APRIL 23.

How to Pop the Question.—Pitts is a capital business hand. He examines the goods he is thinking of purchasing, and then says: "Well, I'll look around, and if I don't find anything better, I'll call and take this."

There is a very curious breach of promise suit pending in a Vermont court. A lady who was evidently past the years of the brightest hopes, bargained with a young man to sell him her farm for $20,000, provided he would take her with it, for better or worse.

CANDIDATES.

OUR fellow-townsmen, GEORGE BRYAN, will be supported for the Mayor by MARY VOTERS.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE CITY OF ALEXANDRIA: Believing I have discharged the duties of the Mayor to the satisfaction of the people, I respectfully announce myself a candidate for re-election, and solicit your support.

ANNOUNCEMENT.—D. L. Smoot, esq., having declined being a candidate for reelection to the office of Commonwealth's Attorney for the city of Alexandria, and in consequence of my friends, I have consented to be a candidate for the same, subject to the decision of a convention in case one is desired or called.
