SATURDAY EVENING, AUGUST 17.

COOLNESS OF MIND.—Yesterday evening an incident occurred which was shocking and serious, yet pleasant. As the train going North was passing by the Rome and Watering railroad shops at a fair rate of speed, a brakeman on that road was walking forward on the same track. The noise of the shop prevented his hearing the approach of the train. Workmen near, who saw him, danger should to him, but he did not hear them. Nor did he notice the approaching train until it was at his heels, then realizing the danger of his position he united all his forces in one spring to free himself from so imminent a danger: but 'twas too late. Just as his feet left the ground the engine struck him at that portion of his body where the seat and piked him heels over head twenty feet in the air. He landed with his feet picked up his hat, and in excited enthusiasm shouted, "Three cheers for Groceries! Another vote saved!"—Vicia Observer.

HOTELS.—The N. Y. Times recently contained an article on the necessity for good second-class hotels. It says: "As a general rule, our moderate priced public houses are apt to be only a shabby imitation of those where the charges are of a more extravagant description. This is not what is needed. If a hotel with a moderate charge is made a comfortable resting place for the traveller it must be by the means of a great deal of the showy furniture and many of the table luxuries considered necessary in a first class hotel. Complicated cookery and apartments adorned with large mirrors and velvet carpets must give way to plain rest and bedchambers of which the principal embellishment is the evidence of regular and vigorous use of broom and brush."
