RIVER NEWS.—Navigation, safe for steamers, may be said to be suspended now on the Potomac. As far as the eye can reach, both up and down the river, there is nothing to be seen but ice, and though it is broken and floating in the channel, it is of sufficient thickness to be dangerous to sailing vessels either from its liability to cut them through or to force them ashore. From Giesboro up to the Washington wharves, the ferry boats had to break a track this morning, but they have been running regularly all day. From the forks of the channel up to Georgetown there was no open track, this morning, and the ice was so thick that a tug boat which started to tow the schooner A. F. Bailey from Washington to that port was compelled to give up the job and come down to this city. Since then, however, the steamer Lady of the Lake opened a track between Georgetown and Washington, but the tide is so low that though a track is now open for coal for St. Thomas is detained at Georgetown. Her pilot was here this morning trying to get a tug to attempt to pull her through, but the tug Atlantic came up this morning towing two schooners, the R. T. Dancock and the Loretta Bell, loaded with lumber, and increasing her tow here by taking on the steam barge Mount Vernon, started for Washington this afternoon. The schooners Ames and Mason, light, passed up this afternoon for Georgetown in tow of a tug boat. The steamer Express, which started from Baltimore on Tuesday afternoon, for this port, has not yet arrived, nor is it known where she is. The trip of the Maryland ferry boat, and of the Zaidie, Fairy and Arrow have been suspended, and whether or not the Wawaset will start for Cone river to-morrow is at present unknown. The steamer Lady of the Lake started for Norfolk this evening.

COLUMBIA FIRE COMPANY.—A meeting of the Columbia Fire Company was held last night. Wm. Kilgour, President, in the chair. A committee consisting of Messrs. Rishell, Janney, Falls, Herber and Strauss was appointed to confer with committees from other companies in relation to a parade on the 22d of February. Mr. Kilgour made an address to the company, and stated that he would not serve as President again, as he had held that office for two years, and he thought the honor should be divided among the members as there were others entitled to that position; he thanked the company for their kindness to him while at their head, and would do all in his power to advance the interests of the company as one of its members. The annual election of officers will take place at the regular meeting in January, 1873.

DR. MUNSEY.—A gentleman who returned from Baltimore, last night, confirms the melancholy report which has been in circulation for some time past concerning the indisposition of Rev. Dr. Munsey, who was stationed in this city a few years ago, and whose brilliancy and eloquence had won for him an extended reputation. Owing to excessive mental labor his brain has become affected—temporarily it is to be hoped—and for the present, at least, he has been relieved of all his duties, and is undergoing medical treatment.

OYSTERS.—There are no oysters now at the dock unsold, and unless the weather speedily moderates and the river opens, there will soon be a dearth of what may now be considered one of the necessary articles of food in this market, and supplies will have to be ordered by rail from Annapolis or Baltimore. Fortunately, some of the dealers have large stocks on hand. The tug Atlantic which arrived up this morning, reports one vessel loaded with oysters ice bound in Quantico Bay.

RUNNING HYDRAULS.—The police, at the instance of the President of the Water Company, have reported the names of those persons who by allowing their hydraulics to run, have rendered the sidewalks in front of their premises dangerous by the accumulation thereon of ice, and as such persons are offenders against a law of the Corporation, they will be proceeded against as the law in one instance and the regulation in the other directs.

HOSPITAL.—The ladies who have undertaken to establish a hospital here and who will solicit contributions for that object in a day or two, counterpane renting, leasing, or buying the building on Wolfe street, adjoining the Female Orphan Asylum, known as the Widows' Home, for that purpose, should prove insufficient to afford the required accommodation.

FOR THE PENITENTIARY.—Sheriff O'Neal, with J. W. Graves and policeman James Walker, as a guard, left here this morning for Richmond, having in charge William Williams, five colored, sentenced to the penitentiary for five years for robbery, and John Rollins, colored, sentenced to eighteen years for murder. Both were ironed, and Williams pretended to have a violent fit just as he was leaving.

TO TAX PAYERS.—The City Sergeant having had the State tax bills for 1872 put in his hands for collection, very politely requests all indebted to settle up, by timely paying the same and expense to that officer and the delinquent. It has to be done, and the sooner the better. Like a dose of medicine, very nutritious, but when taken, the good effects are felt afterwards.

THE ICE CRAP.—Several of the ice dealers and owners of ice houses are making arrangements for gathering and storing their ice crop for next season's use. It was reported this morning that water was let on the Canal last night, to a depth sufficient to allow all the ice houses to be filled from the ice that the prevailing cool weather will make upon it.

RAILROADS.—Nearly the whole of the old railroad bridge across the Potomac has been taken down, and the work of removal is proceeding as rapidly as possible. The grading for the double track on the Alexandria and Washington railroad is being pushed forward with vigor, but the double rails cannot be laid until next year.

RAIDERS' FATE.—Willis Foley, who, with readyman John Nightingill, went on a raid night before last, in which they seized and bore off from his own domicile, a man who refused to let them have liquor without money, was fined by the Mayor this morning. His partner was examined yesterday evening and will be suspended.

STREET GRADING.—The contractors for grading Oronook and North Pitt streets, were at work on the latter this morning, and will have made a valuable improvement when they shall have filled up the rugged and unsightly gully there, once known as "Piper's Cove."

TOWN CLOCK.—The town clock, the arrival of which was noticed in yesterday's Gazette, was raised to the steeple of the new market house as soon as it reached here, and will be put in position when the dial and the man who is to adjust it arrive, which will probably be some time next week.

RELIGIOUS REVIVALS.—The religious revivals in progress in the Methodist Protestant and Methodist Episcopal churches continue to attract large numbers to those churches, the nightly meetings being usually crowded. There were no meetings, however, last night.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, December 12, 1872. SENATE. In the Senate, to-day, Mr. Johnston, of Va., presented a number of memorials from Virginia asking the passage of the French Spoliation bill.

On the motion of Mr. Lewis, of Va., the Committee on Claims were discharged from the consideration of the claim of J. M. Ransburg, and that leave be granted to withdraw the same.

A resolution was introduced for surveys for a ship canal from the Mississippi river to the harbor of Fernandina on the Atlantic coast.

The Senate at 12:40 took up House bill for reorganizing the Internal Revenue Bureau and diminishing the number of officers thereof.

Mr. Sumner favored the collection of the whole Internal Revenue by stamps.

Mr. Anthony explained that the liquor and tobacco tax could not be collected by stamps. Officers were required to enforce the collection of the tax.

Mr. Trumbull favored the reduction of the number of officers of the Internal Revenue. He complained that the Internal Revenue Districts had not been consolidated as required by law. The present law required less officers than the one before the Senate, although this bill was entitled an act to reduce the officers.

The discussion was continued.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES. The House of Representatives considered the Senate bill authorizing the change of U. S. registered bonds to coupon bonds.

Mr. Holman, of Ind., opposed the bill, and Mr. Dawes, of Mass., spoke in its favor, and it was finally passed on a yeas and nays vote.

At 1:30 the House went into Committee on the Whole and resumed the consideration of the Pension and Homestead bills reported yesterday.

The bill will probably pass this afternoon.

LATER. At 3:30 p. m. the House is still in session considering the Pension and Homestead bills.

THE WATER LINE. There is beginning to be some interest felt in the District on the subject of obtaining national aid to carry the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal to the Ohio river in accordance with the original design. The fact, however, that absolute title to the James River and Kanawha Canal will be conveyed and that canal made substantially a free channel of transportation at once, while there would be very much opposition to such a course in the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, gives the Kanawha canal scheme a vast advantage. It is, however, impossible to overestimate the advantages which would accrue to the District cities, and especially to Alexandria, if the terminus of the great canal thoroughfare from the West could be made at these points on the Potomac.

TELEGRAPH NEWS.

[Special Dispatches to the Alexandria Gazette.] Further Particulars of the Late New York Fire.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—Mary Ann Fagan, a victim of the Fifth Avenue Hotel fire, died in great agony at Bellevue hospital yesterday. The fire originated, according to evidence before the fire marshal, in a servant's room on the third floor. One of the proprietors says, however, the origin of the fire is not at all known. Another of the proprietors says, he ordered an alarm to be given after the discovery of the fire. Both are of the opinion that the poor girls met their death from suffocation. The loss on the building will be only $10,000. The furniture was damaged to the extent of $80,000. An eye witness says there is no doubt that if an alarm had been sounded on the discovery of the fire, the girls would have been rescued. The general impression is that the hotel proprietors, in their anxiety to save the furniture and carpets wanted to put the fire out themselves. The loud piercing screeches of the girls on the top floor were distinctly heard in the basement. At this time the fire had made great headway, but even then a hotel employe, whose attention was directed to the great glare said, "Oh, its nothing," and again, "These girls will scare the guests if they go on that way." General Shaler, fire official, says the alarm was not given soon enough. Chief Engineer Perly says the location of the fire was first telegraphed to him at eighteen minutes past eleven; the firemen were on the ground five minutes later. He thinks there was an unaccountable delay at the hotel in giving the alarm. The tortuous ways of the interior of the building prevented the firemen doing very effective service. The firemen of one company says that at first he was refused admittance to the hotel with the excuse that they did not want a panic among the guests. He finally insisted on entering. The fire marshal says nothing like sufficient precautions had been taken to guard against a loss of life, in event of a fire at the hotel; that he finds no efforts were made in the hotel to rescue the girls. He thinks the authorities were so concerned about the baggage of the guests that human lives were forgotten; besides the workmen were looking after the baggage instead of attempting to rescue the endangered people. An employe says he ineffectually endeavored to tear off the screens of the windows where the girls were confined. Over twenty-five thousand persons went to the morgue yesterday. The sights there were of the most ghastly character. The press of this city calls for a thorough investigation. Six bodies are yet unrecognized. Three of these cannot be identified. Some of the bodies look like mummies that are so blackened. Three of the mummies were found in a room as though burned embracing each other. A great deal of indignation is manifested towards the authorities in their course in sending the corpses of the unfortunate to be stared at in all their horrid disfigurement at the morgue, which is intended only for the reception of unknown dead. Some charitably disposed citizens propose aid to the relatives of the burned.
