MONDAY EVENING, JANUARY 26.

HOW PEOPLE GET SICK.—Eating too much and too fast, swallowing imperfectly masticated food; by taking too much fluid during meals; drinking poisonous whiskey and other intoxicating drinks; keeping late hours at night and sleeping too late in the morning, wearing clothing too tight, so as to relax the circulation; wearing thin shoes, neglecting to take sufficient exercise to keep the hands and feet warm. Neglecting to wash the body sufficiently to keep the pores open. Exchanging the warm clothes worn in a warm room during the day for light costumes and exposure to evening parties. Starving the stomach to gratify a vain and foolish passion for dress; keeping up constant excitement, fretting the mind with borrowed troubles; swallowing quack nostrums for every imaginary ill; taking meals at irregular intervals.

CONSTERNATION reigned in the district attorney's office in New York, a few days ago. One of the messengers laid a small packet on the desk before which Mr. Allen was sitting, with the remark that a man had brought it. Remembering that peculiar packages had recently been sent to Comptroller Green and to ex-Judge Morris in Brooklyn, Mr. Allen feared that an infernal machine was hidden under the wrapper. Accordingly he called his brother assistants and held a council of war. Should the package be dropped into a bucket of water or sent to the police headquarters? That was the question. At length the messenger agreed to open it, and as he proceeded to lift the cover gently the assistants and clerks secured away to their desks. The contents were two pair of slippers and a letter.
