THURSDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 5.

DAVENPORT BROTHERS' MATINEE.—The Davenport Brothers seem to grow more astonishing as their performances are studied. Last evening Willard hall was filled by a mystified audience, and although the committee used every exertion to ascertain the means used in their illusions yet all their efforts failed, and the committee were obliged to acknowledge themselves beaten. Mr. Spencer Gregory and Dr. Armstrong were appointed the committee by the audience, and both of them went into the cabinet with the Davenports, and although they were banged on the head with the guitar, slapped on the face with hands, and had bells rung in their ears, and even their watches and wallets taken from their pockets and laid on the floor of the cabinet, yet both Mr. Gregory and Dr. Armstrong declared neither of the Davenports stirred hand or foot while these feats were being performed. The Davenports are certainly very mysterious persons, and their illusions seem almost too marvellous for mortals to produce.— Wash. Republican.

SHAKER SHREWDSNESS.—The Shakers take advantage of the crisis to put forth the following advertisement:— "Wanted.—Men, women and children can find a comfortable home for life, where want never comes, with the Shakers, by embracing the true faith and living pure lives. Particulars can be learned by writing to the Shakers, Mount Lebanon, New York." Within four days after its publication, they had one hundred and thirty-five letters, and two-thirds of them from young men. Each applicant has received a circular with the rules of the society. An influx of converts is expected. Advertising for new believers is an odd idea, but the Shakers are shrewd.

THE J. BUMGARDNER OLD RYE WHISKEY

Is still made under the personal supervision of Mr. J. Bumgardner, Sr., and of the same materials and by the same process as it has been for the last fifty years. It is guaranteed to be perfectly pure—entirely free from any adulteration whatever, when obtained direct from the proprietors. The public is cautioned against spurious imitations and counterfeiters of this sole manufacturer and proprietor of the "Bumgardner" Whiskey that has gained such a widespread reputation. Our Whiskey took the FIRST PREMIUM for the "BEST AND PUREST DISTILLATION" at the only three Fairs at which it was exhibited during the last five years, viz: Richmond, Lynchburg and Staunton.
