

LOCAL NEWS.

EVERY MAN WHO WISHES TO VOTE MUST BE RE-REGISTERED.

RUNAWAY COUPLE.—Mr. Frank Dodson, of Rappahannock, and Miss Alberta Bruce, of Culpeper, arrived here on the freight train yesterday afternoon, and took the six o'clock boat for Washington. They were bent upon getting married, and accomplished their object, though under difficulties. They got aboard the train at Culpeper Court House, where an aunt of the young lady did her best to prevent the elopement, but being sent from the depot thereupon, she went some distance off to buy a pound of candy, the train started before she could get back, and, as already stated, the pair reached here in safety. When they arrived in Washington the City Hall was closed but they succeeded, after a long search, in finding the clerk of the Court, from whom the required license was obtained. But their troubles were not yet over, for though they found several ministers, all of them were engaged and could not perform the marriage ceremony, and it was not until they were on their way back to the depot that they came across a church in which service was being held, and going in there they waited until the conclusion of the service, when they stated their object to the preacher and were married by him. They returned here on the midnight train, and stopped at a boarding house until this morning, when they returned to Culpeper—a happy, if not a sensible pair.

ALEXANDRIA COUNTY ITEMS.—Up to three o'clock yesterday the registration for Arlington Township, at Ball's Cross Roads, stood twenty-seven white to fifty colored.

A neat Episcopal church is being erected in the village of Arlington, opposite the postoffice, and a handsome Presbyterian church at Ball's Cross Roads.

George Ott Wunder, esq., is setting out a vineyard on his land in Washington Township. An elegant cottage residence is being erected near Summer School, in Washington Township. An experienced fruit grower in the county informs us that while there will be but few peaches, no other fruit, or crop, is at all injured.

All the public schools in the county were inspected yesterday by Superintendent C. C. Carney. He reports the white schools in a very flourishing condition. In the colored schools, which have worked remarkably well this year, the number of pupils is comparatively small, the larger children having been withdrawn, to go to work. Several schools are preparing for exhibitions at the close of the session.

LET NO CONSERVATIVE FAIL TO REGISTER!

THE EASTERN BRANCH BRIDGE.—In the U. S. House of Representatives, yesterday, Mr. Chipman reported from the District Committee the bill to aid in the construction of a bridge across the Eastern Branch, with an accompanying report, as follows: "The Committee on the District of Columbia report back House bill 3,082, with accompanying papers. Your committee recommend that the subject be referred to the Committee on Appropriations, and that that committee be requested to report to the House, in the Sundry Civil Appropriation bill, a sum sufficient to rebuild the present unsafe Navy Yard bridge in a substantial manner. While the committee are of opinion that true economy would require the bridge to be of iron and masonry, it is recommended, however, that under all the circumstances, a less expensive bridge would meet present wants. It is believed, however, that a less sum than $150,000 would be insufficient." The bill and report were referred to the Committee on Appropriations.

THE PRINCE GEORGE'S COUNTY, (MD.) CLERKSHIP.—A letter to the Baltimore Sun, from Upper Marlboro', written on Tuesday last, says:—"This morning, at 9:45, Mr. Brooke, the recently elected clerk of the Circuit Court for Prince George's county, called at the Clerk's office, received his commission, was sworn in, and left his bond for record, and will take charge of the office on Monday next, the day prior to the assembling of Court. Mr. Widdcombe requiring until that time to close his unfinished business of his short term. It was amusing to bystanders to witness the strict courtesy and decorum interchanged between the rival competitors who have just emerged from one of the closest and most exciting campaigns ever witnessed in this county. Mr. Widdcombe has served a notice upon Mr. Brooke that he will contest his election, before what tribunal I am unable to state."

IN ORDER TO VOTE, REGISTER!

CHEERING PROSPECT.—Mr. Daniel W. Lewis, of Fairfax county, who has just returned from an extended trip through the South-western portion of the State, gives a flattering account of things in general in that section. He says the wheat and grass never looked more promising, while the cattle are grazing in thousands on the hill sides upon the luxuriant pastures. In Bedford, Botetourt, Wytbe, Pulaski, Washington, &c., the crop prospects were never more flattering, and the people are, in consequence, in high spirits, looking hopefully forward to "that better time to come."

"Man never is, But always to be blest."

At Wytheville he saw specimens of coal, taken from a mine about four miles from that place, considered there almost equal to the famous English Canal.

POLICE REPORT.—The following cases have been reported at police headquarters since yesterday:

Charles Anderson, colored, for disorderly conduct at Fishtown, was dismissed with an adjournment.

Joe Mitchell, colored, for interfering with the chain gang, was locked up for examination. Policeman Wm. Johnson has resigned to accept the position of watchman at the sash factory of Rishell & Hooge.

Two lodgers only applied for and were furnished with sleeping accommodations at the station house last night.

BROKEN LEG.—A colored man named Joe Ford, wagon driver for Mr. Arthur Broadwater, of Fairfax county, while on his way from this city to that gentleman's farm, yesterday afternoon, with a load of guano, accidentally fell from the wagon, and one wheel passing over his thigh, fractured it midway between the hip and knee joints. The accident occurred near Mr. David Watkins' house, on the Little River Turnpike, and that gentleman having sent for Dr. McCormick, put the doctor and the injured man in his carriage and sent them to the latter's home, where the doctor applied the necessary dressing.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—It is stated that some seventy or eighty of the members of the Second Presbyterian Church have sent a communication to the session of the 1st Presbyterian Church expressing their desire to worship in that church, with their pastor, Rev. Dr. Bullock, and that there is strong ground to believe that the proposition will be favorably entertained. Should it be accepted, the 1st Church will have the largest Presbyterian congregation in the city, and will doubtless increase its membership under the teachings of their much esteemed and able pastor.

HAVING YOUR NAME ON THE OLD REGISTRATION BOOKS WILL AVOID NOTHING.

DON'T PUT OFF REGISTERING.

MASONIC LOTTERY.—The drawing of the Masonic Lottery at Norfolk, took place on Tuesday. A large number of tickets were held in this place. The capital prize of $25,000, was drawn by James Reid, a baker of Norfolk, who held ticket No. 77,509. Wm. B. Diggs, ex-sheriff of Norfolk, drew the second prize. Number 3803 drew $6,250. Number 2,178 drew $2,500. The following drew $125 each: 31,777, 26,022, 17,513, 77,479, 43,607, 10,532, 2,678, 68,981, 86,686, 73,586, 53,127, 98,780, 7,409. Prizes ranging from $25 to $125 are very numerous.

CHILDREN'S FAIR.—As will be seen by a notice elsewhere in to-day's Gazette the children of Christ Church will hold a fair for the benefit of the poor of the city on the evenings of next Monday and Tuesday at the Assembly Rooms. The children have been making and collecting articles for this fair for some time past, and the tables will contain many things both useful and ornamental. The object is certainly a commendable one and will well merit a large attendance and large pecuniary receipts.

THE TAX BILL AND THE RETROCESSION SCHEME.—The Petersburg News deprecating the desire manifested here by some for retrocession to the District of Columbia, says:—"Washington is worse taxed than Virginia. Richmond, Petersburg and Norfolk are as severely taxed as any three cities in the State, but they have no idea of annexing themselves to Washington, North Carolina, or any other country." They intend to fight the battle out on the Virginia line if it takes them a century."

THE PRICE OF ICE.—The season's rates for ice in Boston have been published. The following are the prices: For 12 pounds, $24 per year; for 20 pounds, $36 per year; for 30 pounds, $48 per year. By weight, 50 pounds and upwards, 60 cents per 100 pounds, or just twice the price of last year. These rates, it is understood, with a slight increase, will be charged here.

LOOK AT THE FIGURES AND SEE THE NECESSITY FOR REGISTERING.

REGISTRATION.—The registration books in the several wards of the city made the following exhibit at four o'clock this afternoon:

Table with 3 columns: Ward, White, Colored. 1st 152 87, 2nd 152 88, 3rd 278 195, 4th 138 206.

CONVICTS.—The City Sergeant and his guard have returned from Richmond, having safely lodged the four colored convicts they carried there in the penitentiary. The last words said by Elias Jordan, who was sent there for attempted rape, before the door was closed upon him were, "I am not guilty of the charge for which I am imprisoned."

REGISTRATION IS NOW GOING ON, REGISTER!

THE CALF TRADE.—Loudoun county must certainly produce more calves than any county in the State. The freight trains arriving here on the W. & O. R. come in loaded with calves nearly every day. A commission merchant yesterday received thirty-three at one time, and the cry is still they come.

POSITIVELY THE LAST WEEK of the stock of a New York wholesale house at auction. It is announced that owing to the large balance of Woolens, Silks, Linens, Carpets, &c., &c., still unsold at the bankrupt sale of foreign and domestic dry goods by Messrs. Green & Williams at their auction house, corner of Tenth and D streets, Washington, D. C., the sale will be continued during this week, but will positively be brought to a close at the end of this week. Do not stand on the order of going, but go at once.

RETROCESSION SCHEME. WASHINGTON, May 7, 1874.

The May term of the General Term of the Supreme Court of this District is wearing on a pace, and as yet there has been no day set for the hearing of the case of Payne vs. Phillips, the demurrer in which is intended to raise the question of the constitutionality of the retrocession of Alexandria. At the first call of the calendar no attorney representing either party being present, the case was passed. Afterwards Judge Willoughby applied to have it set down for a special day, but that was refused by the Court.

In the course of a few days the case will come up on the regular call of the calendar. Judge Willoughby has prepared a brief of 33 pages, examining the question at length, and giving all laws bearing upon it. It is understood that Mr. Burke, Attorney for the Commonwealth in Alexandria county, will not prepare a brief nor argue the case, but will, in accordance with the advice of the Attorney General, take no further part in the matter as a public officer.

The Arkansas Troubles. ST. LOUIS, May 7.—A special dispatch to the Democrats from Little Rock gives a long account of the capture, escape and return to Little Rock of Associate Justices Bennett and Searle. After being taken from St. John's College they were moved under escort of Lieut. Summerhill and a squad of men to a retired field on the outskirts of the city where orders were received from Gen. Blocker, and the party then marched to a point fourteen miles distant where a dispatch from Brig. Gen. Crawford ordering the party to proceed to Benton, was received. Two miles from that place the party was met by Gen. Crawford with a squad of men. Gen. Crawford was drunk and gave Lieut. Summerhill entire charge of the prisoners in whose custody they remained at Benton until their escape. Lieut. Summerhill states that on Tuesday Gen. Crawford received orders from Gen. Blocker, that he should protect the lives of Bennett and Searle to the fullest extent, provided he could do so and prevent rescue, but at all hazards he was not to permit them to be rescued. Lieut. Summerhill also states that he met a man at the depot in Benton who told him he saw written orders at Baxter's headquarters for the prisoners' summary disposal or assassination, and that he (Summerhill) replied that such an act would not be permitted by him while he was alive and the prisoners remained in his custody. Being convinced that violence was intended to Bennett and Searle and determined not to be a party to it, he conferred with those gentlemen, told them the facts, disavowed any complicity in the matter and proffered his services to them to aid in their escape and safe conduct to Little Rock. He gave each a revolver, provided horses and under pretext of removing them to a more secure place, dismissed the guard, induced continued intoxication by Gen. Crawford, decoyed him to another house and with sheriff Thompson, at ten o'clock on Tuesday night, he departed with his prisoners. Sheriff Thompson had no knowledge of Lieut. Summerhill's real purpose. Messrs. Bennett and Searle were suspicious of Lieut. Summerhill, but being armed and each having a horse concluded to trust him, relying upon themselves, however, and future probable opportunities. Arriving at a point where the road diverged Judge Bennett presented his revolver at Summerhill's head and said, "You are now our prisoner" and Searle drawing his pistol demanded Thompson's arms. Bennett's revolver was accidentally discharged, which frightened Thompson's horse and he and his rider dashed away into the darkness. Bennett and Searle, with Summerhill as a prisoner, then continued and shortly after came upon a squad of United States infantry under Lieut. Morrison, who had been sent out to effect their rescue if possible. Not recognizing the men Bennett jumped from his horse and broke for the woods and could not be found. After their true character was ascertained, Searle and Summerhill were taken to the United States garrison and afterwards to the State House. In about an hour Bennett was brought in by another squad of soldiers who had been sent out to search for him.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A grand concert, we understand, is to be given in this place the latter part of the present or early in the next month, the proceeds of which are to be devoted to the furnishing of one of the rooms at Mount Vernon, in accordance with the plan suggested that each of the original thirteen States should furnish a room in that mansion. One of the most accomplished and energetic of Alexandria's daughters has taken the matter in hand, and its success is assured. Alexandria will do her duty in the premises.

If the refuse from the gas works is to continue to flow into the river, the drain through which the discharge is made should at least be covered, so that vehicles passing along Oronoko street can avoid being splattered with the corroding matter.

Italian organ-grinders from Washington visited the city in numbers to-day, and music was in the air of several of the streets. One of them had the most intelligent, or best trained, and the most erect walking monkey ever seen here before.

The police were called upon last night to assist a man who lived on north Pitt street who said he had attempted to commit suicide by taking laudanum, but who, it was afterwards discovered, was shamming.

The Radicals of the 3rd Ward will meet at the old Court House to-night, and those of the 4th Ward at the colored Odd Fellows' Hall to-morrow night, to determine upon plans for the approaching election.

A colored man who has just served out a term of imprisonment in the penitentiary has registered in the 24 Ward, but will be arrested should he attempt to vote, as by law, he is prohibited from voting.

The ladies of St. Paul's Church are busily engaged in preparing for the festival to be held for the benefit of that church in about two weeks, and so far have been quite successful in their appeals for contributions.

It is understood that the ladies will hold a festival at an early day for the benefit of the Library, which institution, we are pleased to learn, is again rapidly rising in public estimation.

Col. A. G. Newton, formerly the popular proprietor of the Mansion House, was in this city yesterday, and contemplates, it is said, resuming charge of that hotel or opening a large boarding-house in this city.

At a meeting of Alexandria Washington Lodge of Masons, held last night, it was determined to hold a festival at an early date for the purpose of raising funds to assist in paying the debt incurred by the building of the Temple.

Alexander Clarke, brother of Grace Greenwood, and editor of the Methodist Recorder of Pittsburg, will deliver a lecture, entitled "The Race of Minnows," at the M. P. Church this evening.

Hagan's Minstrels, a colored burlesque opera troupe, will give performances at Sarepta Hall to-morrow night and Saturday night, and at a matinee on Saturday afternoon.

The weather to-day, though clear and bright, has been remarkably cool for the season. A heavy white frost was visible at Vienna, and at other points in this vicinity, this morning.

A pack of dogs made an attack upon a cow belonging to John Seaton, colored, on Nailor's Hill, last night, and had nearly succeeded in killing her before they were driven off.

The rumor that a break had occurred in the C. & O. Canal, at Harper's Ferry, is understood from intelligence from that point to be incorrect.

The Ward Superintendents of the Conservative party will meet at the office of the City Sergeant to-night.

The ball of the Osceola Social Club at Sarepta Hall, last night, was a very agreeable affair.

There is considerable complaint of the manner in which the registration is conducted in the 3rd Ward.

Rev. Mr. Dinwiddie, late of Kentucky, will preach in the 2nd Presbyterian Church next Sunday.

The steamer Palisade has been chartered to run fruit from the Severn river to Baltimore, and will leave here for that city in a day or two.
