LOCAL NEWS.

BALL BROKEN UP.—The young men of Fairfax Court House and neighborhood gave a ball last night, the pleasure of which was marred by an incident not mentioned in the programme. A school house in the village had been metamorphosed into a ball room, and was crowded with a large company, all of whom had, apparently, enjoyed themselves until after midnight. At that unpropitious hour, when the dancers were taking their places for the Virginia Reel, a young man named Turley made an attack upon William Thomas with a champagne bottle, smashing it upon his head, and cutting him on the throat with the "ragged edges" of its neck, which he retained in his hand. Thomas drew his revolver and fired at his assailant, but his weapon being struck by a bystander at the moment of its discharge, the ball flew wide of its mark, and Turley, seizing a chair, renewed the attack. Thomas then fired again, and his aim not being interfered with, would have killed his man had not the ball entered the arm of constable Beale Howard, which was around the latter's neck, and served as a shield. It is needless to say that at the first discharge of the pistol the ladies and most of the male attendants left the room, and were not very particular about the way, manner or style of egress—the one purpose manifested by all being to get out of that house in the shortest time possible.

TOURNAMENT.—A tournament was held yesterday, at Farmwell Station, W. & O. R. R. The crowd commenced to gather early in the day, and by 10 o'clock there were at least 500 persons on the ground. The Knights formed in line in front of the judge's stand at 11 o'clock, and were addressed by E. M. Lawe, who delivered a short but very eloquent charge. At 11 o'clock the riding commenced and continued until about 12 o'clock. The following were the successful Knights: G. N. White, Knight of Loudoun, Knight of Leesburg, J. T. Drane, Knight of Spotsylvania, C. F. Burgess, Knight of Fauquier, and G. O. Ferguson, Knight of Albemarle. The assemblage then proceeded to the pavilion, which was erected for the occasion, in a beautiful grove near by, where G. N. White, Knight of Leesburg, crowned Miss Alice Atkinson of this city, Queen of Love and Beauty; J. T. Drane, Knight of Spotsylvania, crowned Miss Laura J. Bauckman of Loudoun, 1st Maid of Honor; C. F. Burgess crowned Miss Nellie Bauckman of Loudoun, 2d Maid of Honor; G. O. Ferguson crowned Miss Bell Egan, 3d Maid of Honor. The remainder of the day was spent in dancing and other social enjoyments, in which all present took part, and to which nothing occurred.

ACCIDENT.—Last night about 9:20, as the regulating train was making up the express freight that leaves here on the Virginia Midland Railroad each night for Fauquier, Beaufort, Burgess, a brakeman in the yard, in attempting to get up a moving section of the above train, lunged his foot in a switch and was thrown down by the side of the passing train and had his left foot cut open from the ankle to the great toe, causing a painful and serious, though not a fatal, wound. Dr. M. M. Lewis was upon the ground in a very few minutes and rendered the necessary temporary assistance. The wounded man was taken to his home (the residence of Mr. Joseph Reynolds, the Yard Master, on King street, between Henry and Fayette) and this morning had the crushed bones reset, and is now doing as well as could be expected.

THE HEBREW NEW YEAR.—The Hebrew New Year, or Feast of Rosh Hashanah, marking the 5635th year of the Jewish era, occurs on the first and second days of the Hebrew month Tishri, which will be the 12th and 13th of September. Services will be held this evening, the festival, like others, commencing at sunset. With the orthodox the festival will be continued until sunset on Sunday, while the reformed only keep one day, and the holiday ends for them on Saturday evening. The festival is always devoutly celebrated, places of business are closed, and the household abstains from work of all kind. The new year is followed by the week of preparation, which closes with the Day of Atonement. A portion of the congregation of the Synagogue in this city, will hold their services at the residence of Mr. Bartholomew, on King street, between Lee and Fairfax.

POLICE REPORT.—The following cases have been reported at police headquarters since yesterday afternoon: The agent of Knox's Express Company, for doing the business of that company without license, was dismissed as the charge was not sustained. John Carter and Julian Burke, colored boys, for fighting on the streets, were fined and discharged. Sarah Norton, for abusing Polly Dorsey, both colored, was fined, as was also the complainant. Several more parties, arrested for keeping dogs without license, were fined and discharged.

ARLINGTON.—The public school in Arlington opened on Monday the 6th, with an attendance of thirty nine scholars. The Arlington Social Club are going to resume their meetings next week. Among the members are President Hatch, and Messrs. Newton, Corbett, Graham, and others, well known for their goodhabittiveness. At a meeting of Excelsior Lodge, I. O. G. T., on Wednesday night, resolutions of regret for the death of Mr. Patton, and of sympathy with his bereaved family and friends, were passed, and feeling tributes paid to his memory.

NARROW ESCAPE.—The Baltimore Gazette says: There was a narrow escape from a collision on the Lone Bridge over the Potomac river, connecting Washington and Alexandria, on Wednesday. The freight train of the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad and the Midland Express met upon the bridge, and were only about thirty feet apart when the engineer of the passenger train reversed his engine and ran back to the nearest shining, thus avoiding destruction and death. The freight train was four minutes on the time of the express train. These two roads use the bridge jointly.

MOUNT VERNON.—The owners of the steamer Mary Washington have issued a card in which they say that a few days ago, Captain Frank Hollingshead of the steamer Arrow, notified Superintendent Hollingsworth, of Mount Vernon, in strong language, that unless the gates, in the rear of that mansion, were closed against the visitors by the Mary Washington, he would break the contract, and the Ladies' Mount Vernon Association might sue him for the 50¢ cents he now pays them for every passenger he lands there.

RUNAWAY PREVENTED.—The two horses attached to the buggy of Mr. Alfred Roberts, took it into their heads to run away this morning, near the intersection of King and Royal streets, and though the little colored boy who was sitting in the vehicle did his best to hold them, had gotten a fair start when their owner rushed out of a store, placed himself in their way, and as they attempted to run over him caught them, by the bridles and at the imminent risk of his life, brought them to a halt.

PROPERTY SALE.—R. F. Knox, auctioneer, sold yesterday for John S. Fowler, assignee, 283 acres of land in Stafford county, belonging to the estate of Geo. W. Cropp, bankrupt, to Robert Stringfield, of Culpeper county, at one dollar per acre.

RECOVERING.—W. D. Irving, who stabbed Mr. Joseph Mattingly, passenger agent of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, in the left breast with a dirk knife, in Washington, on Wednesday evening last, and who was subsequently arrested, has been released on $2,000 for appearance daily until the case is disposed of. The injured man is recovering. Irving, it is said, formerly lived in this city.

GIFT CONCERT.—It is understood that tickets for the grand gift concert for the benefit of the Montpelier Female Association are being disposed of at a rapid rate, and that the large number of clerks employed by that association are constantly engaged in the different departments into which the business of the association has been divided.

CORPORATION COURT.—The September term of the Corporation Court, Judge Lowe to preside, will commence on Monday next. The entire term will be occupied with motions and chancery causes.

ROBBERY.—The barn at Burgundy, the residence of Mr. Thomas Walsh, was broken into by thieves last night and robbed of two sets of harness and a saddle and bridle.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

A man giving his name as William Duhe, who showed symptoms of insanity, was arrested in Washington yesterday, but was afterwards released. He pretended to be a geologist from Virginia, and had the appearance of a man of education and culture. When released he stated that he intended to leave at once for Virginia.

General Sherman has issued an order for the firing of a national salute of twenty-one guns from Fort Fort on Monday next, it being the occasion of the excursion of the Mexican War Veterans to Marshall hall, and when the veterans expect to have a glorious time.

Among the freight brought here this morning by the little steamer Fairy, Captain James Quinton, which plies between this city and Farmington were eighteen hogsheads of tobacco and upwards of three hundred bushels of wheat.

The rear door of the commission store of Mr. Thomas Perry was found open by the police last night, but as nothing was missed after a thorough search of the place, it is supposed the door was left open accidentally when the store was closed for the night.

The Cumberland papers of yesterday note the departure of several boats for this city, but there were no arrivals reported here up to noon to-day, and the Maryland, Bluen Avon and Hampshire and Baltimore Companies have not acceded to the demands of the strikers.

Accounts from the Rockville Agricultural fair are of the most favorable character. Large numbers, of whom many are from this city, are in attendance; the display of stock excellent, and the racing unusually fine.

At the instance of one of the crew of the schooner Lizzie Dwyer, which arrived here yesterday from Windsor, that vessel was searched for $65 which had been stolen from him, but which was not found.

The excursion made by the Oesolia Club to Carlin's Springs last night is represented by those who were along as one of the most delightful affairs of the sort that have occurred this season.

The first political discussion between Gen. Eppa Hunton and Mr. James Barbour, candidates for Congress from this district, will take place to-morrow at Salem.

A race track, a quarter of a mile in circumference, has been laid off near the Poor's House, and will be used as practicing ground for the fast stock of this city.

A small cargo of oysters arrived here this morning from Lower Machodoc creek. They were the first that have reached here this season.

The weather has turned warm to-day, the thermometer, in the shade at noon to-day standing at 85°.

Auction sales of valuable property and a vessel are advertised to take place to-morrow.

MARRIED.

In Washington, Thursday, September 1, 1874, by Rev. Dr. Tiffany, CHARLES CARLINGTON SMITH, Esq., to Miss FLORIDA F. CRUPPER.

DIED.

In Baltimore, on the 10th instant, DAVID J. DOWNEY, aged 24 years, 1 month and 10 days.

AGUE CONQUEROR.

THIS IS QUININE, ARSENIC OR POISONS. This is strong language, as Physicians and Chemists have for years tried to compound a preparation that would entirely cure Fever and Ague without the use of strong medicine, such as Quinine, Arsenic and other poisons injurious to the system. There is no case of Fever and Ague, Intermittent or Bilious Fevers, Congestive Chills, Night sweats, Liver Complaints, &c., that this remedy will not cure at once and permanently. It purifies the Blood, Liver, Spleen, and all secretory organs so effectually that the Chills will not return during the season, even when persons have had them for years. Sold by HENRY COOK & CO.

And all druggists and storekeepers in the country. 16-603m

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE GAZETTE.]

Political.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 11.—The Democrats of the Nineteenth Ohio district yesterday nominated Dr. B. Woods for Congress.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., Sept. 11.—The Republicans of the Second district yesterday nominated H. B. Straff for Congress.

OMAHA, Sept. 11.—The State Temperance Convention at Lincoln yesterday made the following nominations: For Congress, J. G. Miller, contingent Congressman, J. R. Fairbanks; Secretary of State, J. Schurz; State Treasurer, W. G. Olinger.

OMAHA, Sept. 11.—The Democratic State Convention at Lincoln yesterday was the largest Democratic convention ever held in the State. Col. J. W. Savage was nominated for Congress and A. Tuxbury for Governor. The platform adopted declares:

First. For resumption of a specie value as the basis of the currency; resumption of specie payments by the Government as soon as possible without disaster to the business interests of the country by steadily opposing inflation, and for the payment of the national indebtedness in the money of the civilized world.

Second. For individual liberty and opposition to summary laws; for free commerce and no tariff except for revenue purposes.

Third. For a rigid restriction of the government domain, both State and National, to its legitimate domain of political power by excluding therefrom all executive and legislative interference with the affairs of society, whereby monopolies are fostered by privileged classes and arrangement and individual freedom unnecessarily and oppressively restrained.

Fourth. It is thought the duty of the State to protect its citizens from extortion and unjust discrimination by chartered monopolies.

Fifth. That we appreciate the beneficial influence of railroads in developing the resources of the country and favor liberal legislation in that direction, but only on a basis of taxation equitable in its application both to citizens and corporations.

Sixth. That we believe the people are the source of all power and that their will and not the wishes of a mere party of demagogues should govern and form the real basis of all Republican governments.

John A. Thery was nominated for Secretary of State; Robert Jordan, for State Treasurer and Montgomery Lancaster for Attorney General.

The Convention adjourned.

From China.

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., Sept. 11.—Mail advices by steamer from China state that a large fire occurred in the suburbs of Shanghai, covering an area of one hundred square yards. Many families were rendered homeless.

Japanese advices say that since the assassination of M. L. Haber, Acting German Consul at Hakodadi, by a fanatic native, all foreigners go armed.

Many rice and vegetable fields at Sumatra have been laid waste by a volcano in that district, vomiting fire and cinders and snobs high in the air, and one hundred and eight houses have been buried by the falling sand. There was a continuous discharge of ashes for ten days.

An extraordinary phenomenon has occurred in connection with it and, it is generally supposed, with the volcanic disturbances.—From a plain in the volcanic region there arose in a brief space of time three mountains, one of which covered an area of two and a half square miles and is one thousand eight hundred feet high, the others being of considerably smaller dimensions. A tract of land also rose from the ocean at an adjacent point on the coast. The newly-raised land measured one thousand eight hundred feet by five hundred feet, and it was connected at one end with the main land.

Pork Packers' Convention.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Sept. 11.—The National Pork Packers' and Provision Dealer's Convention assembled yesterday morning under permanent organization, with Wm. Hamilton, of St. Louis, as President. A number of Vice Presidents were also chosen with W. H. Maxwell, of Cincinnati, as Secretary. The resolution offered Wednesday that in all rules governing stands of meats cut, the manner of curing and packing the same, one but curers and packers be allowed to vote, but that in the discussion of such rules before the convention, only accredited dealers in product from other commercial bodies in the United States be permitted to participate, was defeated.

A report of the Business Committee on the Chicago standard of packing was adopted. The convention adjourned sine die.

Forgery—Distribution of Assets.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—Two more alleged bond and title deed forgers have been arrested. One of the persons arrested had been committed to the Tombs to wait investigation and others have been sent to the House of Detention for witnesses.

Judge Barrett of the Supreme Court has issued his opinion in the suit of Dinsmore and others against Adams and others, involving the distribution of the assets of what is known as the old Adams Express Company. The decree regarding the distribution of the assets of the company is opened and certificate holders are permitted to come in and assert their claim to a share in the property of the Southern Express Company.

Frightful Collision.

LONDON, Sept. 11.—A terrible collision occurred this morning on the Great Eastern railway, near Norwich. Fifteen persons were instantly killed and thirty were injured, some of whom, it is feared, will not survive.

Some of the persons arrested by the Montpelier Female Humane Association and the reputation of a few of them enables me to commend them as fully entitled to the confidence of the public. No act or representation inconsistent with honor and integrity need be applied in the conduct of representations of these gentlemen.

The Montpelier Female Humane Association, chartered by the Legislature of Virginia and the Circuit Court of Orange county, proposes, by a series of Grand Gift Concerts, to establish and endow a "Home for the Old, Infirm and Destitute Ladies of Virginia," at Montpelier, the former residence of President James Madison. The Association is under the control of eight trustees, six of whom are elected biennially by the stockholders and two appointed by the Governor of Virginia.

Governor's Office, Richmond, July 3, '74. It affords me pleasure to say that I am well acquainted with a large majority of the officers of the Montpelier Female Humane Association who reside in the vicinity of my home, and I attest their intelligence and their worth and high reputation as gentlemen, as well as the public confidence, in new and substantial means liberally represented among them.

Alexandria, Va., July 28, 1874. My personal acquaintance with a majority of the gentlemen controlling the Montpelier Female Humane Association and the reputation of a few of them enables me to commend them as fully entitled to the confidence of the public. No act or representation inconsistent with honor and integrity need be applied in the conduct of representations of these gentlemen.
