

THE GAZETTE.

MONDAY EVENING, DECEMBER 14.

A BRILLIANT WEDDING.—The event of last Thursday was the marriage of Captain Harry I. Warren, of the steamer Vaadribil, of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac line, to Miss Alice Hurkamp, of this city, daughter of John G. Hurkamp, esq. The marriage took place at 3 o'clock in the afternoon at the Presbyterian church, which was well filled with the beauty and fashion of the city. After the ceremony had been performed, the bridal party adjourned to the residence of the father of the bride, where an elegant reception party was held and a sumptuous collation spread. At 5 o'clock the newly married pair took the cars for a bridal tour through the Northern cities. Groups of well wishing friends accompanied them to the depot and waited their heavy adieux as the train bore them off on their happy journey. To the heart-felt aspirations then expressed for their continued health and happiness, we here modestly ask to offer our own.—Fredericksburg Star

EXRA CORNELL.—Exra Cornell, the founder of Cornell University, died at Ithaca, N. Y., after a long illness. Mr. Cornell was born at Westchester Landing, in Westchester county, Pa., January 11, 1807. He was of Quaker parentage. His father was a potter, and carried on business at Larrystown; but in 1819, he removed to De Ruyter, in Madison county, young Exra then being only twelve years of age. The youth remained with his father until his nineteenth year, but his advantages of education were meagre, and when he began his life for himself it was with a very small stock of book knowledge. In 1826 he left home to seek employment, by which he might be able to support himself. He found work at Homer, where he remained about two years, but in 1828 he removed to Ithaca, where he engaged in business as a builder. From all this it will be seen that he began his career under no very propitious circumstances.

THE NEW YORK GRAND OPERA HOUSE.—It was reported to New York on Thursday, that Alexander T. Stewart, the millionaire dry goods dealer, had purchased the Grand Opera House, in that city from the Erie Railroad Company, for which he paid $600,000. The original cost of the edifice was $750,000. During the Fisk and Gould regime a portion of the building was fitted up in palatial style as offices and headquarters for the Erie magnates. Mr. Stewart is already the owner of Niblo's Theatre and the Olympic.

Lockwood, Huffy & Taylor, 933 Pennsylvania Avenue, WASHINGTON, D. C. SELL THE BEST

DOLLAR CORSET

IN THE CITY. Dress Makers recommend it as being the best Corset to fit a dress over, because it is cut in such a manner that the front and back seems fit like seams to a dress. And it is superior to any other Corset now in use, because its peculiar style of cutting gives sufficient firmness at the bottom, without folding at the top; gradually and closely fitting to, and over the hips, is longer front and back than ordinary Corsets, and in fact is the only Corset cut in this form. In addition to the DOLLAR CORSET will be found a large assortment of other makes at the following prices—$1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2.50, $3.50 and $5.
