TUESDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 26.

HE CAME FROM VIRGINIA.—A young gentleman of this city, in whom we have the most perfect confidence, gives us the following conversation, which he overheard between two colored citizens on the evening of "Sam, does you know Jonah?" "Jonah! Who is he?" "Why Jonah that swallowed de whale; don't you know him?" "Why dar de big moufled soul, was he from Virginy?" "Of course he was from Virginy." "Well, the Virginians always was hell for fish."—Maysville (Ky.) Bulletin.

A doctor went out West to practice his profession. An old friend met him on the street one day, and asked him how he was succeeding in his business. "First rate," he replied. "I've had one case." "Well—and what was that?" "It was a birth!" said the doctor. "How did you succeed with that?" "Well, the old woman died, and the child died. But I think I'll save the old man yet!"

Corn-cobs are extensively used in Europe for fire lighters. They are first steeped in hot water containing two per cent of saltpetre, and after being dried at a high temperature, are saturated with fifty per cent of resinous matter. These lighters, which are sold at $3 to $4 the thousand, are employed with advantage and economy in private houses and for lighting factories.

A young Canada farmer has invented a machine, which is said to work satisfactorily in model, for reaping grain. It cuts the stalks, gathers them in a bundle, twists a band of straw and binds the sheaf, cuts the ends of the band, and throws the sheaf aside.

It will be found that Matin Ague Mixture excites an appetite and improves the general health. For children, as well as adults, it will be found a most effective and pleasant remedy.
