

NEWS OF THE DAY.

Accounts from Quincy, Ill., state that water in the Sky levee bottom rose rapidly Wednesday, and at noon yesterday the overflow extended from river to bluff at many points between the towns of Hannibal and Louisiana.

Gov. Hayes, of Ohio, has issued a proclamation warning the striking coal miners of the Tuscarawas Valley against interfering with those who are willing to work, and stating that if necessary a sufficient military force will be sent to that region to quell any disturbance that may arise.

The negroes of Richmond and Manchester, together with a large number from Petersburg, yesterday celebrated their emancipation and the adoption of the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Amendments by a parade of military and civic organizations.

J. J. Gregg, a prominent citizen of Augusta, and for many years connected with cotton manufacturing interests, was shot yesterday at Graniteville, South Carolina, while attending a stockholders' meeting of the Graniteville Cotton Factory.

There is said to be a great scarcity of small change in Washington, New York and other cities in consequence of the redemption and retirement of fractional currency, and it is intimated that Congress will be compelled, before its adjournment, to provide for this want by the reissue of a portion of the currency so retired.

The Senate Committee on Postoffices and Postroads has discussed the subject of readjusting the salaries of Postmasters on the plan proposed by the Department for grading them in accordance with the business in all cases.

A heavy horse backed a carriage, containing a family by the name of Kerr, into the river at the Falls of Schuylkill, near Philadelphia, yesterday afternoon. The occupants, five in number, were precipitated into the water, but all were rescued except Isabella Kerr, aged eighteen, who was drowned.

The Nebraska Democratic Convention which met at Omaha yesterday, adopted resolutions in favor of hard money and reform, and also in favor of Gov. Tilden for the Presidency.

The Emperor of Brazil arrived at Omaha yesterday, and after driving around the city, took the Pacific express train at 12:20.

On Wednesday morning the residents in the usually quiet neighborhood of Seventeenth and Oxford streets, Philadelphia, were thrown into a state of excitement by rumors of a murder having been committed in that locality.

Sergeant Norberry, being notified, proceeded with a squad of men to the scene, and took possession of the premises No. 1602 Bouvier street, running between Seventeenth and Eighteenth streets, near Oxford, before which a large crowd had assembled.

The revival business is one of the best paying interests in the country, judging from the receipts of Messrs. Moody and Sankey in New York last Tuesday afternoon, when the collections amounted to $200,000, of which sum, however, it is said, the revivalists take no part, being sufficiently recompensed by private subscriptions from all parts of the Union.

Ex-Archbishop Williams has virtually acknowledged to the Committee on Expenditures of the War Department that he paid $30,000 for election purposes in New York by order of the President.

It is said that the contract between the Washington city Board of Health and the Odorous Excavating Company is of such a character that the abolition of the former must be the result.

The village of Dundee, the western terminus of the Midland Railroad, is growing rapidly, and Dundee, on the opposite side of the river, is one of the most prosperous towns in the State.

Judge Wylie and Mr. Thomas Bryan both pronounce the charges of corruption brought against them by a Mr. A. J. Amler, of St. Louis, entirely false.

It is understood that Dr. J. B. Johnson will be a candidate for Mayor at the approaching municipal election.

The April 22d number of Little's Living Age has been received from its publishers in Boston.

Mrs. DAVID DUDLEY FIELD, whose death at the Carrollton Hotel occurred on Wednesday evening, and was mentioned in yesterday's Sun, was a daughter of Josiah Polk, of Somerset county, Md., and granddaughter of Dr. Troup, formerly owner of Darley Park, Baltimore county. She was a niece of Gen. W. H. Winder, who was at the battle of Bladenburg; a niece of Herschel V. Johnson, who was a candidate for Vice President on the ticket with Stephen A. Douglas, and a niece of the late Col. James Polk, so well known to Baltimoreans. Mrs. Field was first married to Dr. Samuel J. Carr, of South Carolina, (a relative of President Andrew Jackson,) who at one time commanded at the Pikeville (Md.) arsenal. After the death of her first husband she lived with her mother at "The Dairy," in Hartford county, Md. Ten years ago she married Mr. Field, in New York. For some years she had been a sufferer with heart disease, which finally produced her death. Her only surviving brother is Dr. John C. Polk, of Hartford county, Md., and she leaves an only son, Charles Carr. Her remains will be interred at Greenmount Cemetery.—Balt. Sun.

FOREIGN NEWS.

Diaz is busily engaged in organizing his forces at Matamoros. His partisans say it is preparatory to a march on Monterey, but from the fact that he is remaining in the forts around Matamoros it is doubtful about his advancing. There is nothing new, therefore, at Matamoros. A box of arms was taken across the river a few days ago for private parties at Matamoros, but the collector of Brownsville gave orders that no more should be allowed to pass over the river while the city is in the hands of the revolutionists, without direct authority from the Secretary of the Treasury. Telegrams have been received ordering Gen. Potter, the present commander on the line, to duty in Kentucky, and it is reported he will be relieved by General Devin. Gen. Latorra is still at Brownsville with his family, awaiting the approach of the Mexican Federal forces. He seems confident Matamoros will soon be in the hands of the Government forces. All the Mexican officers at Brownsville assert that Matamoros was only lost through the treachery of Gen. Toledo.

Lord Lytton has committed suicide. At the coroner's inquest yesterday the jury found a verdict of suicide while in a state of unsound mind. Deceased had been for a long time in a state of great mental depression. Lord Lytton, who was under the charge of a keeper, precipitated himself over the banisters at his residence, 18 Park Crescent, on Tuesday morning. He was terribly bruised and lingered until Wednesday morning.

In the free handicap race at New Market, yesterday, Mr. Sandford's horse Peckness came in fourth, the race being won by Maitland.

CONGRESS.

The following proceedings of Congress yesterday are additional to those published in the Gazette of that date:

In the Senate, petitions were presented against any change in the present tariff, reason being that the manufacture and sale of envelopes by the Government and against the abolition of the local pension agencies, and referred; also a petition praying the abolition of compulsory pilotage. A resolution authorizing the publication of 10,000 copies of the annual report of the Smithsonian Institution and 4,500 copies of Prof. Hayden's Geological and Geographical Survey of the Territories, was passed; also a resolution from the Committee on Military Affairs authorizing the Secretary of War to issue certain arms to the Washington Light Infantry of Charleston, S. C., and the Clinch Rifles, of Augusta, Ga. A bill to abolish the Board of Health of the District was referred to the Committee on Military Affairs.

The bill authorizing the Commissioner of Internal Revenue to designate and fix the points at which collectors and Supervisors of Internal Revenue shall hold their offices was laid over. Mr. Sargent submitted a resolution instructing the President to enter into negotiations with the Chinese Government looking to such changes in the existing treaties with that country as will permit the application of lawful restrictions on the emigration of Chinese subjects to this country. The consideration of the bill to amend the laws in relation to the legal tender of silver coin was then proceeded with, after which the Senate adjourned to Monday next.

In the House of Representatives, bills to limit the power of courts to punish for contempt; also to enlarge the privileges of the writ of habeas corpus, especially in its application to both Houses of Congress, were introduced. The Committee on Appropriations reported back the Senate amendments to the Consular and Diplomatic Appropriation bill, and they were non-concurred in. A resolution reciting the outrages to which American citizens are subjected in Mexico, and requesting the President to direct the General of the Army to proceed to the scene of disturbance and to take such measures as may be necessary to maintain peace and protect the honor and dignity of the Government, was referred to the Committee on Foreign Affairs. The Committee on Rules made a report on the case of Charles H. Smith, the Journal Clerk, reprehending his action in reference to his bounty-collection circular, but recommending, in view of his resignation, that no further proceeding be taken in the matter. Mr. Cate offered a resolution, which was adopted, for the appointment of a committee to investigate the charges against Secretary Bristow in connection with the seizure, forfeiture and release of the bark Mary Merritt at Milwaukee in June, 1869. The bill to transfer the Indian Bureau to the War Department was then taken up and discussed up to the hour of adjournment.

The late L. H. Chandler.

The funeral solemnities of this gentleman took place from his late residence, on York street, yesterday afternoon, and were attended by the members of the bar of Norfolk and a large concourse of our citizens. The impressive service of the Episcopal Church was read by Rev. Dr. Okeson, followed by an earnest prayer by Rev. Dr. Thomas. The corpse was then taken in charge by eight colored men and borne to the hearse, attended by the following pall-bearers: Judge George Blow, Col. Wm. Lamb, Capt. H. B. Nichols, Capt. W. E. Taylor, L. Hartmann, Charles Sharpe, and A. G. Holliday. The solemn cortege, consisting of a long train of carriages, and many citizens on foot, proceeded to Elmwood Cemetery, where, to the solemn strains of the dead, the mortal remains of Hon. L. H. Chandler were committed to the earth to await the descent of the judgment angel and the trump of God to awake him on the resurrection morn. A meeting of the bar of Norfolk and Portsmouth, presided over by Judge Blow, passed resolutions in respect to the memory of the deceased.—Norfolk Virginian, 19th.

The Norfolk Virginian also says: The movement on the part of the friends of the late L. H. Chandler to have his daughter appointed Pension Agent of the State of Virginia, in accordance with the last request of the deceased, is meeting with the greatest favor among the people of Portsmouth, as well as Norfolk.

A day or two ago a boy, who was caught on a long bridge on the A. M. & O. R. R. by a train of cars, saved himself by lying down flat on the narrow space on the outside of the track.

VIRGINIA NEWS.

The Shenandoah Herald says that Thomas P. Conn, administrator of Chas. H. Hodgson, entered suit against the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, claiming ten thousand dollars on account of the death of Mr. Hodgson, who was killed by the fall of the Narrow Passage bridge, on the Harper's Ferry and Valley railroad, on the 6th ult.

In the Court of Appeals, in Richmond, yesterday, in the case of Eliza, &c., vs. Ball's administrator, from the Circuit Court of Loudoun, the decision was affirmed. Judge Anderson delivering the opinion of the court. In the case of Thornton vs. Fairfax, &c., a motion to dismiss or advance the case was denied.

The Fredericksburg News says: "Caroline county complains of a ram which is devouring all the spring chickens within reach. That's nothing. Mr. M. B. Rowe has a colt which eats a dozen spring chickens for breakfast every morning, feathers and all."

Dr. Erasmus Powell, of Richmond, died there last Wednesday night.

Col. Joseph T. Campbell died at his home, in Abingdon, last Sunday morning.

Chesapeake and Ohio Canal.

At the regular monthly meeting of the directors of the Chesapeake and Ohio canal on Tuesday, the action of the Board in reducing tolls five cents per ton between Cumberland and Georgetown was concurred in, and a paper was presented from New York city representatives of the American, Maryland and New Central Coal Companies asking the Board to join them in urging Gov. Carroll to order proceedings to be instituted to determine the legality of the transfer of the Cumberland and Pennsylvania railroad to the Consolidation Coal Co. The operating the mines and the regular supply of coal for transportation over the canal, it is alleged, is rendered impossible by the action of the railroad company. The board of public works, to whom the paper was referred, held a subsequent meeting, but the result has not transpired.

The Cumberland Alleghany says: As yet there is no compromise between the rival coal companies, and little prospect of any; and recent events give plausibility to the supposition that the Consolidation Company is preparing to sell out again to the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company.

The Cumberland News says that as the result of a conference between the coal companies and the canal company, a petition has been presented to the Governor requesting him to direct the Attorney General to institute suit against the Consolidation Coal Company and the Cumberland and Pennsylvania Railroad Company, involving a vacation of charter if the latter attempted evasion of law is persisted in by these companies. The News also notices a rumor that the Cumberland and Piedmont railroad has been sold to the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company.

Bishop Johns' Will.

Several publications having been made purporting to give the bequests by the will of the late Bishop Johns, which differ materially, our Fairfax Court House correspondent sends us the following true synopsis of the instrument referred to:

He gives to his wife a one thousand 5-20 U. S. bond, as an expression of his love, she owing in her own right a comfortable property.

He gives two hundred acres of his Sudley farm on West River, Md., to his son, Arthur S. Johns, but charges the same with the payment of an annuity of $150, payable to his daughter, Catherine R. Peyton.

To his son, Arthur S. Johns, he gives such theological works as he had collected since the destruction of his library during the war, and all his manuscripts, with strict directions that no part of them be published.

He bequeaths to his son, Kensey Johns, the stock and farming implements on West River farm.

To his daughter, Juliana Johns, he devises Melver, the farm on which he resided, containing between fifty and sixty acres, and a Cincinnati bond of $1,000, a Pacific Railroad bond of $200, and an Orange and Alexandria Railroad bond of $700, also a small silver pitcher given to him by Mr. Gresham.

To Mrs. Catharine Peyton he gives his interest in the farm on which she resides near Orange Court House, Va.

To his daughter, Nancy V. D. Johns, he gives $4,000 in Georgia bonds, and $1,100 in U. S. bonds, his silver teaset, also silver table and tea spoons, and the annuity of $700 above mentioned.

To his son, John Johns, he gives $6,000 in the bonds of the C. & O. Canal Company.

To his son, Arthur S. Johns, he devises his Baltimore city five per cent. stock, amounting to $3,100.

He gives his horse, Doron, with carriage and harness to his wife, Angelina E. Johns.

His stock, farming utensils, with all his household furniture, he directs to be divided among his children as they, or a majority of them, may agree.

The pictures of his father, mother, and himself he gives to his son, John Johns.

His gold watch he gives to his grandson, John Johns, jr.

To his faithful servant, Albert, he gives $100. To his grand daughter, Jane J. Peyton, he gives $150 in U. S. 5-20 bond.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

Money matters are still quiescent, there being no positive demand in mercantile circles, but a continued decided stringency among the people generally. The issue of silver coin in the redemption of fractional currency has begun, but will have, of course, no material effect, the currency, in many cases, being preferred. In New York the money market is quoted easy for borrowers, call loans being 3/4 per cent, and prime mercantile paper 4 1/2 per cent. State bonds are dull, with small sales of Virginia consols at 83. Railroad securities are quiet, with sales of O. A. & M. bonds, 7s, at 85 1/2—an advance. We quote:

The market for Flour continues firm and active, and prices hold steady at quotations, with a good demand for Family and fancy brands. Wheat has advanced considerably on the opening price of the week, and continues firm and active. We note sales to-day of 300 bushels choice white at 163, and 622 of red at 145, 155 and 158. Corn took a sudden rise yesterday, but went back to-day, and sales were made at 59 for white and yellow, and 58 and 59 for mixed; the receipts were large, amounting to 2462 bushels. Rye and Oats are active, with light receipts and prices good; 85 for the former, and 52 for the latter. The total receipts of Grain for the week were: Wheat 2893, Corn 1876, and Rye and Oats 452 bushels. The receipts of country produce are almost too light to warrant quotations. Good Butter is wanted, and Eggs remain unchanged.

RICHMOND MARKET, April 20.—The receipts of produce very light now, and the offerings of Grain hardly warrant accurate quotations. Small sales of Wheat at 137 1/2 for good to prime. Corn 58 1/2. No sales of Rye or Oats.

LYNCHBURG MARKET, April 20.—The receipts of Grain very light now, and the offerings of Grain hardly warrant accurate quotations. Small sales of Wheat at 137 1/2 for good to prime. Corn 58 1/2. No sales of Rye or Oats.

FREDERICKSBURG MARKET, April 20.—The market is very quiet, with light receipts of Grain. Wheat 115 1/2 for poor to choice. Corn 56 1/2. Rye 70 1/2, and Oats 45 1/2.

BALTIMORE SUGAR AND COFFEE MARKET.—SUGARS.—We are again without transactions to note in raw Sugars, but we write the market still firm in tone for both refining and grocery grades, with low inquiry for both the latter services. Stocks are very light, and we quote as before: Cuba, grocery grades..... 8 1/2 @ 8 3/4
Cuba, centrifugal..... 8 1/2 @ 8 3/4
Porto Rico, grocery grades..... 8 1/2 @ 8 3/4
Demerara, vacuum pan..... 8 1/2 @ 8 3/4
New Orleans, grocery grades..... 8 1/2 @ 8 3/4

COFFEES.—The market for Coffee is dull and heavy, and the tendency seems to be toward lower prices. The trade generally are buying very sparingly, and we have no transactions to report to-day either from first or second hands. The latest telegrams from Rio have not been of a character to improve the tone of the market. The dispatch of yesterday shows that the stock there has run up to 100,000 bags. We quote nominally as follows:

Job lots—Ordinary..... 16 1/2 @ 16 3/4
Fair..... 18 @ 18 1/2
Good..... 18 1/2 @ 18 3/4
Prime..... 19 @ 19 1/2
Choice to fancy..... 20 @ 20 1/2
(Gold, 60 days.)

ALEXANDRIA CATTLE MARKET, April 21.—Owing to the dullness of the market last week but few Cattle were offered here this week, and a large number of the best of the breed were sent to the butchers to go to Georgetown for supplies. The market continues dull, and prices are a shade lower. We quote Cattle at 3 1/2 @ 4, and Calves at 4 1/2 @ 5. Sheep are also dull, and sold at 5 1/2 @ 6 for wool, and 4 1/2 @ 5 for clipped. A few Lambs sold at 3 1/2 @ 4 per head. Receipts of Hogs light, and prices 10 1/2 @ 11 per 100 lbs for live. Cows and Calves 35 @ 36 and wanted.

NEW YORK CATTLE MARKET, April 20.—Receipts—Receipts 2820 head. The quality was fairly suited to the wants of wholesale slaughterers, but not so good generally as were the offerings last Monday. The market opened with a little better feeling, and some of the sellers were able to get an advance of 1/4 c per lb; but this improvement was not maintained to the close, and the private dispatches sent to Chicago were to the effect that the market was weak at a decline from Monday's level to 1/4 c per lb. The trade appears to be that the prices varied materially, according to the needs and opportunities of buyers. Such wholesale slaughterers as walked the strong credit which would enable them to purchase from any and every salesman in the market place, and were at the same time in need of stock to keep their paper all set, could not do otherwise than pay nearly the asking price put on lots shown to them, and these sales show an advance equal to nearly 1/4 c per lb. But for cash, or short time checks from responsible parties, the prices received were certainly no higher than the current rates. Receipts of Hogs light, and prices 10 1/2 @ 11 per 100 lbs for live. Cows and Calves 35 @ 36 and wanted.

RECEIPTS OF HOGS.—Receipts 484 head. None for sale alive. City-dressed Hogs were steady at 10 1/2 c per pound.

CHICAGO CATTLE MARKET, April 20.—Cattle—Receipts 5800; market dull and weak; tending downward; the pens are full; prices range at $5 1/2; fair to good native shipping Steers 4 2 1/2 @ 4 1/2; choices to extra, 4 3 1/2 @ 4 3/4; shipments 4 1/4. Hogs—Receipts 10000; market dull and weak; prices lower; bacon 7 1/2 @ 7 3/4; shippers 7 3/4 @ 7 1/2; Philadelphia 5 1/2 @ 5 3/4; shipments 4 1/4.

Sheep—receipts 1000; improved demand and firmer; good to choice natives 5 1/2 @ 5 3/4, and best 6 2 1/2 @ 6 5/4.

GEORGETOWN CATTLE MARKET, April 20.—The offerings of Beef Cattle this week reached 215 head, most of which sold at prices ranging from 3 1/2 @ 3 3/4 per lb. There were 330 Sheep offered and sold at 5 1/2 @ 5 3/4 per lb for old Sheep, and 10 c per lb for Lambs. A few Cows and Calves brought 20 @ 24.

CINCINNATI HOG MARKET, April 20, 1876.—Live Hogs steady and firm; common to good light 6 50 @ 7 50; fair to medium heavy 7 75 @ 8; bulk of sales at 7 50 @ 7 70; receipts 1610; shipments 1600.

New York April 21.—Flour quiet. Wheat dull and drooping. Corn dull and declining.

BALTIMORE, April 21.—Cotton dull; middling 12 1/2 @ 12 3/4. Flour fairly active, firm and unchanged. Wheat quiet, firm; No. 2 Western 1 1/2 @ 1 1/2; Pennsylvania 1 1/2 @ 1 1/2; Maryland 1 1/2 @ 1 1/2; do number 1 1/2 @ 1 1/2; do number 1 1/2 @ 1 1/2. Corn—southern steady and firm; Western firmer and higher; Southern mixed 6 1/2; Southern yellow 6 1/2; Western mixed 6 1/2; 65 April; 62 1/2 May. Oats quiet, firm; Southern good to prime 45 @ 45; Western mixed 42 @ 44. Rye dull but steady at 90 @ 92. Hay scarce and firm and unchanged. Provisions quiet and unchanged. Pork 23 1/2 @ 24 1/2; Butter dull, heavy and unchanged. Coffee dull and heavy; Rio Santos 12 1/2 @ 12 1/2; Jobbing 16 1/2 @ 17; Sugar active and firm at 9 1/2 @ 9 1/2. Whiskey quiet at $1 1/2.

CANDIDATES.

[All cards inserted under this caption must be paid for in advance.]

I READ with much gratification the nomination for the House of Delegates of Mr. Henry Febray, as I know from a long and intimate acquaintance with him that he is just the man to be elected for the benefit of the people. Mr. Febray certainly comes up to the Jeffersonian standard of "he capable, he honest, he possesses the necessary qualifications in an eminent degree." The county of Alexandria is undoubtedly entitled to a representative, particularly so at this time, as the city of Alexandria has had her full share of representation for several years past. I say, therefore, that the county should now be represented by a county man, and that, too, by the very best of men—Henry W. Febray.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE CITY OF ALEXANDRIA.—I respectfully announce myself a candidate for the office of City Sergeant—subject to the action of the Conservative party in convention or primary election. ap 4-4 JOHN W. CAMPBELL.

TO THE VOTERS OF ALEXANDRIA CITY AND COUNTY.—I desire to be a candidate for the vacant seat in the House of Delegates to be filled at the May election. I believe I can be of service to the community, and I am prepared to do so, to the interests of the city and county without prejudice, partiality or fear of individual consequences. M. D. BALL.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE CITY OF ALEXANDRIA.—I respectfully announce myself a candidate for re-election by the office of Clerk of the Corporation Court—subject to the action of the Conservative party in convention or primary election. mh 30-3 MORTON MARKE.

TO THE VOTERS OF THE CITY OF ALEXANDRIA.—At the request of some of my friends, I hereby announce myself a candidate for re-election to the office of Commonwealth's Attorney of the city of Alexandria at the approaching May election. This announcement is made subject to the action of the Conservative party. I am pledged, I shall devote my time, energy and ability to the discharge of the legitimate duties of the office. JOHN M. JOHNSON. mh 29-4
