Incidents of the Convention.

Somewhat incidentally of eventful Wednesday were not properly recorded in the chronicle of that day, because of the pressure and the lateness of the hour. One of these was the decision in the New Jersey delegation. Senator Stockton was in that delegation, but was not its chairman, that honor having been denied a Jerseyman and a man of distinguished service and given on the carpet-bag principle to a New Jersey lawyer who sleeps on the New Jersey side. Stockton had the sagacity to perceive that the vote of New Jersey was cast in the Kelly interest, though labelled with Parker's name, because at a critical stage of the ballot, when the eighteen votes of New Jersey would have nominated Tilden, it was an assistance to the rings to keep those votes out of the Tilden column. Whatever was the pretext—and the pretext that this was done out of loyalty to Parker deceived none but very stupid persons—it was not strange that it was said at the moment that the chairman of the New Jersey delegation was in the Tammany interest. It may have been that this gentleman was only to preserve the real nature of the case, in that sort of rapid, fletch-out-of-the-slow should keep to the wall and the safe side. Senator Stockton, therefore, when he proposed that the delegation have to withdraw with a view to considering a piece of vote, was politically right, and was long as Governor Parker must himself have tried to prevent that gentleman's name from being used as an obstacle to the victory of Tilden. But he was willful and abused his position, and this line of observation need at night a personal encounter in the room of the Jersey delegation. That same day said that there were six traitors in the New Jersey delegation, and that the Senator was in the room and heard what was said. He approached the traitor and said, "I heard your name spoken, and I have repeated what he had said." Stockton protested with him, and said, "I am not understanding the Senator's quiet demeanor. I have been silent, and the Senator knocked down and then another rushed in and was knocked down in turn. There were three of them on the floor at one time, and in a short time the Senator cleared the room and did much to correct those who assume that a man will not defend himself as occasion requires because he is a gentleman.

Another circumstance was the activity of Mr. Doolittle, of Wisconsin, as a disorganizer. Scarcely was any one point determined ere this gentleman had some new proposition to make on the same subject. As the hall was large, the Chairman's voice feeble and the confusion great, it was a herculean labor to bring anything to a vote, and when any point had reached that stage and seemed done with there seemed a feeling of relief that so much at last was over. At this point Mr. Doolittle commonly arose with a request for reconsideration—that all that had been done should, to oblige him, be regarded as not done, and that the convention should begin again and incorporate his little idea. He reminded me of Licello's small boy on the Mississippi steamer who wanted the captain to stop the boat and fish out the apple he had dropped overboard.

After Mr. Kelly made his address before the Convention in the morning and was about taking his seat Mr. B. F. Wood stepped up to him and cordially shook him by the hand, at the same time congratulating Mr. Kelly on his thorough democracy. This is the first time in eighteen years these gentlemen have addressed one another on any topic whatever, and thus was established at once the entente cordiale.

The Tammany braves, having washed off their war paint and thrown aside their tomahawks and scalp knives, came to the front in support of the ticket and speak their sentiments in advance of their meeting around the council fire of the Wigwam. John Kelly, the boss of the organization, so late for war, is now for peace. Being requested to state his present position Mr. Kelly said:

"As I said in my speech in the Convention, the Tammany democracy will support Governor Tilden just as faithfully and zealously as they have ever supported a democratic Presidential candidate. Nothing will be left undone which the organization has in its power to effect to remedy what before the nomination we regarded as evils. I look for one of the old-fashioned democratic majorities in the city next November, and from the spirit that animates our people I am sure I shall not be disappointed. As our opposition to Governor Tilden was honest in the interest of the party so our support of him as the democratic candidate will be honest and in the interest of the party."

"I came to St. Louis," said the ex-chairman of the democratic national committee, Mr. Augustus Schell, "to secure the nomination of the strongest ticket we could put in the field. According to my judgment at that time I did not think Mr. Tilden the strongest candidate, but as the convention thought otherwise I shall now, by my efforts and as far as my influence goes, endeavor to prove that I was wrong and that the convention was right. I shall wheel into line as a good soldier, ready to fight the battle of democracy against a corrupt and dangerous party."

Wickham says: "I am, of course, bound with the ticket. The great popularity of Mr. Hendricks in the party and his own democratic heart is shown by the boundless enthusiasm with which his name has been received by every State in the Union second place on the ticket. Mr. Tilden and his popularity all over the Union were already known to me, and that is why I supported him so earnestly. I regard the ticket as peculiarly a growing one. It cannot fail to get stronger and stronger as the election approaches. It will unite the democrats of our State, and I hope of all other States, and will get in addition a strong support from all honest, independent voters outside the strict party."

Congressman Cox says: "I was summoned by my constituents to St. Louis from Washington, and from the Speaker's chair, despite all reasonable remonstrances, to represent them in this convention. I made no faction or personal opposition to Governor Tilden, commending him at all times as a reformer of the genuine sort. My preference was for Hendricks, influenced by personal partiality perhaps to some extent, and by a sectional feeling because Hendricks was born in the same town with myself, but mainly because I thought the nomination ought to go to the West, New York having had so many candidates in late years. I am a strict disciplinarian, and no man in the democratic party will acquiesce more readily than I do in the verdict of the convention. I am glad to say I was the first man requested by Mr. Tilden's friends to address the crowd in front of the hotel on the night of the nomination. I spoke for an hour, and have stated my views fully, but as that is an unrecorded speech I may say that in it I promised a majority of 65,000 for Mr. Tilden in New York city, and I intend to do my best to make my promise good.

Captain Isaiah Rynders, the hero of a hundred democratic battles, emphasizing his words with the decided shake of the head for which he is distinguished, says:—"The right of every democrat to support a candidate fairly and squarely after he gets the nomination of his party. I have already spoken for Tilden in this city. I shall work for him when I get home. I intend to be as true as steel to him—as true as the needle to the pole. That's all I have got to say now and my acts will speak for me hereafter."—N. Y. Herald.

MEDICAL.

TAKE SIMMONS' LIVER REGULATOR

For all Diseases of the Liver, Stomach and Spleen.
After Forty Years' trial it is still receiving the most unqualified testimonials of its virtues from persons of the highest character and responsibility.
It is eminently a Family Medicine, and by being kept ready for immediate resort will save many an hour of suffering and many a dollar in time and money.

Your Regulator is one of the best family medicines I ever used. I have not spent one dollar for my family for medicine in five years, only for your Regulator, and must say it does all it says it will. You can also recommend it in Colic for Stock, it having cured a fine milch cow worth five hundred dollars. [J. A. Nelson, Mason, Ga.]

The Liver, the largest organ in the body, is generally the seat of the disease, and if not regulated in time great suffering, wretchedness and DEATH will ensue.
If you feel DULL, DROWSY, DEBILITATED, HAVE FRONTAL HEADACHE, MOUTH TART, INDIGESTION, POOR APPETITE and TONGUE COATED, you are suffering from Torpid Liver or "Biliousness," and nothing will cure you so speedily and permanently.

Hon. Alexander H. Stephens.
"I occasionally use, when my condition requires it, Dr. Simmons' Liver Regulator, with good effect."—[Hon. Alex. H. Stephens.]

Governor of Alabama.
"Your Regulator has been in use in my family for some time, and I am persuaded it is a valuable addition to the medical science."—[Gov. J. Gilchrist, Ala.]

Baltimore Episcopal Methodist.
This medicine is acknowledged to have no equal as a Liver Medicine, containing those Southern Roots and Herbs which an all-wise Providence has placed in countries where Liver Diseases most prevail.

Lady's Endorsement.
"I have given your medicine a thorough trial, and in no case has it failed to give full satisfaction."—[Ellen Meacham, Chattahoochee, Fla.]

Professional.
"From actual experience in the use of this medicine in my practice I have been, and am, satisfied to use and prescribe it as a purgative medicine."—[Dr. J. W. Mason.]

Florida M. E. Conference.
"I have used Dr. Simmons' Liver Regulator in my family for Dyspepsia and Sick Headache, and regard it as an invaluable remedy. It has never failed to give relief in any instance."—[Rev. W. F. Esterling.]

President Oglethorpe College.
"Simmons' Liver Regulator is certainly a specific for that class of complaints which it claims to cure."—[Rev. David Willis, my 11]

ENCOURAGE HOME MANUFACTURE. I am now manufacturing a good and cheap PAINT, of several colors, the body of which is equal to Lead and Zinc, which for tin roofs, barns, stables, fences, &c., will be found very suitable as well as economical, and an improvement over other cheap mixed Paints now in the market. For brick walls with a northern exposure it will act as a preventive to dampness. For iron it makes a solid and lasting coating, impervious to moisture and a preventive of rust. Being of various shades of color, the cornice and trimmings can be painted to suit. This Paint has been used by one railroad company and by many of the farmers in this vicinity, and is highly recommended by all who have tried it. Price, single gallon, 75¢. 10 gallons 5¢ per gal. 1 lb. oil, or 40 gallons, 90¢ per gal. Call and examine samples at 85 King st., under Sargeant Hall, mh 31 W. F. CREIGHTON.

THE BALTIMORE READY MIXED PAINT—the best and cheapest ready mixed Paint extant. In color it is a rich, dark, reddish brown. It is especially adapted for painting railroad depot buildings and station houses, brick walls, weather boarding, iron or wood fences, barns, stables, dairies or other out buildings. It is also a capital roofing paint for some years to come. Price per gallon $1.30, either wood or metal. Price per gallon $1.30, 10 gallon lots $1 per gallon, or in 40 gallon quantity desired. This Paint has been in use in Baltimore for over four years and with entire satisfaction to all who have tried it. We have secured the exclusive agency for this section of Virginia.
