TUESDAY EVENING, JULY 3.

A VETERAN MURDERER.—We learn from Mr. Courtney, deputy sheriff of De Soto parish, that on last Monday or Tuesday he arrested William Lungley, a very desperate character, who is wanted in Texas for many highbanded outrages he has committed in that State. He murdered his last victim in Lee county, where he was well known and feared as a bad man and a remarkably good shot with either pistol or rifle. For some time he was confined in the county jail of Lee, but subsequently made his escape and fled to Louisiana, settling in De Soto parish, where he has been living quietly and peaceably for nearly two years under an assumed name of Jackson. The sheriff of Lee county learning of Lungley's whereabouts wrote to the sheriff of De Soto parish, giving a full description of the man and the crime he had last committed, and cautioned him to be on his guard against his capture as he or some of the posse might possibly lose their lives. Soon everything was quietly and systematically arranged for his capture. Mr. Courtney and a small posse went into the neighborhood of where their man was living, and he was arrested on the 21st inst. on the way to the place where he was hiding. He was taken to the jail and immediately realized what was up, and seeing that he had no possible chance of escape, graciously surrendered, saying "Gentlemen, I am what you want; you are after William Lungley; I am the man." Mr. Courtney informed him that he had guessed correctly and produced the warrant for his arrest. Lungley, after being well secured, said he might as well make clean breast of it as to be tortured by the law, and confessed to the killing of thirty-two men, and said he came near killing a man two days before his arrest and wished he had done it, as it would have saved him from being captured.
