A GENTLE HINT.—In our style of climate, with its sudden changes of temperature—rain, wind and sunshine often intermingled in a single day—it is no wonder that our children, friends and relatives are so frequently taken from us by neglected colds, and the deaths resulting direct from this cause. A bottle of Bosche's German Syrup will prevent your home for immediate use will prevent serious sickness, a large doctor's bill, and perhaps death, by the use of three or four doses. For curing Croup, Whooping Cough, or any disease of the Throat or Lungs, its success is simply wonderful, as your druggist will tell you. German Syrup is now sold in every town and village on this continent. Sample bottles for trial 10c; regular size 75c.

DIED.

The obituary columns of the Gazette recorded some time ago the death of Wm. F. DENNIS. A friend offers the following as a humble tribute to his memory:—

IN MEMORIAM.

It is at all times a sad and mournful task when we are called to record the death of one whose memory is cherished in the hearts of many who were united to him by ties of nature and friendship; but particularly so when the departed one has been cut down in the flower of life—are the number of days usually allotted to man has been spent. But though the ties of nature have been severed, and though we shed tears of affection in memory of him who has been taken from us, yet we "sorrow not as those without hope," for we trust he has exchanged this life for a better. Who that knew him but a few months ago dwelling in our midst but does not recall the handsome face, his warm and genial grasp and pleasant manner, winning him so many friends; his generous nature so ready to help any one whom it was in his power to help; and his true heart, formed for such softness, that never in word or deed did he dought to wound the feelings of another. These we should never forget. His disease was consumption; and though his feeble frame wasted gradually away, he was mercifully delivered from pain and suffering. His death was emphatically one of peace, for when he breathed his last there was not the movement of a muscle or a quiver of the lip.

At last,

Without a word or sigh or groan to show a parting pang, the spirit from him passed; And they who watched him most could not know The very instant."

It did not seem like death, but as a child sinks to sleep on the bosom of his mother, so did he pass away, and waiting angels bore his spirit to its heavenly rest.

February 14th, at his residence, in Prince William co., Rev. Dr. THOMAS B. BALOH, in the 86th year of his age. It will be gratifying to his numerous friends to know that he retained his mental faculties unclouded to the end. He bore his last sickness without a murmur, and enjoyed the most delightful anticipations of the life to come. He said to his sorrowing family and friends: "I feel as though I had finished my work, and I am ready to go; I do not desire to stay; I know there is a crown laid up for me which the Lord, the Righteous Judge, will give me at His appearing." He passed into his eternal rest in the enjoyment of the full assurance of hope. He was buried at Greenwich Church on the 16th instant by the side of his beloved wife, who had preceded him but a few short months. At the request of the family, the funeral sermon was preached by Rev. Dr. Bullock, of Alexandria. His neighbors, of every denomination, and all the friends of the family, were present to testify their love and respect for the character of the venerable and gifted man whom none knew but to love and honor.

RELIEF BILL.—The following bill has been reported in the House of Representatives and placed on the private calendar for action:—

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States be authorized and directed to pay to John T. Armstrong, of Fairfax county, Virginia, out of any moneys in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of one thousand eight hundred and forty dollars, in full satisfaction of his claim for rent of wharf in the city of Alexandria, Virginia, during the late war.

The following is the report accompanying the bill:—

The Committee on War Claims, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 2255) for the relief of John T. Armstrong, of Alexandria, report:— That John T. Armstrong has been a resident of Alexandria, Va., for many years, and adhered to the Government of the United States as a true and loyal citizen during the entire period of the late war, as well as before and since; that at the commencement of the late war said Armstrong was the "leasehold owner" of a certain wharf and appurtenances in the city of Alexandria; that said wharf was taken possession of by officers of the United States Government on or about the 1st day of June, 1863, and was held and used at intervals by the military authorities of the government for government purposes for the space of twenty-three months; that it was perhaps entirely necessary at the time that said property should be taken possession of by the government, but it was well understood by the officers acting on behalf of the government, as well as said Armstrong, that the latter should be paid a reasonable compensation for the use of the property; that at the time the government was using said wharf said Armstrong was paying rent for the same to the owners thereof in fee, and that no compensation whatever has been made to said Armstrong, on an account of said property; that just prior to the occupancy of said wharf by Quartermaster Ferguson, in behalf of the Government of the United States, said Armstrong had expended a considerable sum of money to put the property in repair, and that it was in good repair when taken possession of by United States officers, and proved of great value to the Quartermaster's Department of the United States Army; that it appears by testimony that said Armstrong notified more than one government official that he desired possession of his property during its occupancy as aforesaid, and that in lieu thereof he would demand $100 per month for the use and occupation thereof; that it appears that said property was worth, during the occupancy aforesaid by the government, from $80 to $100 per month; that on account of irregularities of the quartermaster and others who occupied said property, payment was not made to said Armstrong for the same; that the government authorities occupied said wharf from June 1, 1863, to March 4, 1864, and from June 1, 1864, to March 4, 1865, and from June 1, 1865, to November 1, 1865, making in all a period of twenty-three months, for which said space of twenty-three months your committee think that Mr. Armstrong should be paid at the rate of $80 per month, making the sum of $1,840, and report a bill for that amount, with recommendation that it do pass.

Y. M. C. A.—A regular meeting of this Association was held last night, with A. J. Fleming, eq., President in the chair.

The usual religious exercises were held and the minutes of the last meeting read and approved.

The General Secretary submitted his report, showing a balance on hand since the last settlement with the Treasurer of $15.01, which was accepted.

The reports of the Treasurer and Committee on Room were made and accepted.

The General Secretary was authorized to furnish the Committee on Jail Service with tracts and hymn books and committee instructed to make some arrangements for chairs for the convenience of the Jail Service.

The Committee on Open Air Services, after receiving some instruction from the Association, reported progress.

A communication from the Lutheran congregation for reduction of rent of hall, was referred to the Executive Committee with power to act.

After some remarks it was resolved that the Association meet hereafter on the third Tuesday of each month, instead of Monday, as at present.

On motion 1,000 monthly meeting notices were ordered to be printed, and the meeting adjourned.

THE NARROW GAUGE RAILROAD.—The Washington Post says:

"An agreement has been entered into between the managers of the Narrow Gauge Railroad and the Aqueduct Bridge Company for the running of trains across the bridge, the stipulations being a per centage on passengers and each ton of freight. It is probable then that Georgetown will be made a terminus for the Narrow Gauge Railroad. A subscription paper has been circulated lately among the business men for stock in the railroad, and Mr. Wm. H. Tenny has headed it with $1,000. A person was asked to select a route for the road in Georgetown, and he did so, which, if adopted, will bring the grain to the docks of the mills, and to the large warehouses now being remodelled by Major George Hill. Late parties have been inquiring the prices for certain pieces of property along the water front, and the prices asked seem to be favorably received by the managers on the road. As soon as President Borst returns from Richmond other particulars may be made known."

THE POTOMAC FISHERIES.—The Attorney General of Maryland states that the act of March 12, 1786, and the act of Virginia of January 3, 1786, determine the power of the two States over the Potomac river. Under the compact entered into by these acts, he states that the right of fishing in the Potomac is common to, and can be equally enjoyed by, the citizens of both States, except that the citizens of neither State shall have the right to fish with nets or seines on the shores of the other State. All laws or regulations necessary for the preservation of fish in the Potomac must be made with the consent and approbation of Chief Justice Taney in Martin et al vs. Waddell (16 Peters, 407-418) that a common right of fishing includes and refers to shell fish as well as floating fish.

DEATH OF A FORMER ALEXANDRIAN.—Capt. Wm. Hunt, of Baltimore, one of the oldest ship joiners in that city, died there yesterday evening. He was born in this city March 10, 1818, and went to Baltimore in 1834. Some years ago he was the senior of the firm of Hunt & Wagner, ship joiners. For the past few years he has been running several tugboats in the harbor. He had amassed a large fortune, and died much lamented by a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

M. E. CHURCH.—The revival services were continued last night. Rev. W. C. Webb preached from Luke xiii. 8: "Cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground." At the close of the sermon three persons went forward for prayers. Rev. E. W. Wakefield assisted the pastor and secured a large number of pledges of total abstinence. The meetings will continue throughout this week. The pastor will be assisted by Mr. Wakefield and others.

Those who prove anything by experience can speak intelligently; and the unanimous testimony of all who use Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is that it more than fulfills all that it promises.

AMUSEMENTS.—A very respectable and appreciative audience assembled at Sarepta Hall, last night, to hear the grand operatic concert given there. The universal verdict of those present was that the music was the finest that has been heard here for a long time. The singers—Mrs. Sherman, Miss Mills, Mr. Pugh and Mr. Widwey, together with the pianist, Mr. Clarke W. Reynolds, won for themselves, golden opinions.

After the audience had retired the representatives of the press and a few invited guests were given a specimen of the wonderful performance of Middle Celeste, who is to appear to-night. Her playing on the piano, both in the usual manner, and on the covered key board, with bandaged eyes, was truly novel and interesting. She also gave an exhibition of her powers to a few musical judges, this morning, and was pronounced by all a most remarkable performer. All who attend to night may rest assured of a fine entertainment.

CORPORATION COURT.—Judge E. M. Love presiding.—D. T. Bayles vs. Corbett et als; in chancery; decree approving report of Receiver, and for distribution of funds.

Risheill and Hooge vs. T. L. Sanborn; in chancery; decree for sale of real estate.

A bill of exceptions in the cases of the Com. vs. G. R. Shinn was signed and sealed by the court.

Court adjourned until the court in course.

OVERBOARD.—A colored man named Charles Ball fell overboard at Reed's wharf last evening. He was engaged, with others, in trucking flour on board the steamer Lady of the Lake, and while coming ashore with an empty truck, was run into, by a loaded truck and knocked overboard. He was helped out, by his fellow workmen, with no other damage than a very cold bath. The truck was subsequently recovered by dragging for it.

RUNAWAY.—A team attached to the lumber wagon of Mr. J. H. D. Smoot ran away on King street yesterday evening and making a short turn at the Potomac Ferry wharf, threw the driver, a colored man named Daniel Bennett, off and the hind wheels of the wagon passed over him, bruising him severely. Fortunately no bones were broken.

ASHORE.—The U. S. steamer Wyoming started down from the Washington navy yard, this morning, but before reaching the end of the tortuous passage, leading out of the Eastern Branch, she went ashore, and, at last accounts, was still stuck in the mud, awaiting higher water.

ALEXANDRIA LIBRARY COMPANY.—There was no quorum of either the directors or stockholders of the Alexandria Library Company last night, and the meetings which were to have been held were postponed until next Monday night.

REAL ESTATE SALE.—The three story brick store-house, on Royal street, near the Market square, formerly owned by Charles Brill, was sold to-day, by F. A. Kerby, auctioneer, for John S. Chapman, trustee, to Charles H. Schantz, for $5,000.

"JUSTIFIABLE HOMICIDE."—A verdict to this effect has been returned by an intelligent jury in the case of John Smith, who, returning from his office tired and hungry, killed his cook for not making his biscuits with DOOLEY'S YEAST POWDER.

Every druggist in Alexandria sells Durang's Rheumatic Remedy and Ludlie's Headache Specific. The first cures rheumatism permanently and the latter headache in 5 to 20 minutes. This is not a mere assertion, but the whole truth. feb 18-3t
