VEGETINE

FOR CHILLS, SHAKES, FEVER AND AGUE.
TARBORO, N. C., 1878.
Dr. R. H. Stevens:

Dear Sir—I feel very grateful for what your valuable medicine, Vegetine, have done in my family. I wish to express my thanks by informing you of the wonderful cure of my son; also, to let you know that Vegetine is the best medicine I ever saw for Chills, Shakes, Fever and Ague. My son was sick with measles in 1870, which left him with Hep-joint disease. My son suffered a great deal of pain, all of the time; the pain was so great he did nothing but cry. The doctors did not help him a particle, he could not lift his foot from the floor, he could not move without crutches. I read your advertisement in the Louisville Courier-Journal, that Vegetine was a great Blood Purifier and Blood Food. I tried one bottle, which was a great benefit. He kept on with the medicine, gradually gaining. He has taken eighteen bottles in all, and he is completely restored to health, walks without crutches or cane. He is twenty years of age. I have a younger son, fifteen years of age, who is subject to Chills. Whenever he feels one coming on, he comes in, takes a dose of Vegetine and that is the last of the Chills. Vegetine leaves no bad effect upon the system like most of the medicine recommended for Chills. I cheerfully recommend Vegetine for such complaints. I think it is the greatest medicine in the world.
Respectfully,
Mrs. J. W. LLOYD.

VEGETINE.—When the blood becomes thick and stagnant, either from change of weather or of climate, want of exercise, irregular diet, or from any other cause, the VEGETINE will renew the blood, carry off the putrid humors, cleanse the stomach, regulate the bowels, and impart a tone of vigor to the whole body.

VEGETINE

FOR DYSPESIA, NEUROUSNESS, AND GENERAL DEBILITY.
BERNARDSTON, MASS., 1878.
We, the undersigned, having used Vegetine, take pleasure in recommending it to all those who are troubled with Hepatitis, Dyspepsia, Neurosis, or General Debility, it being the great Blood Purifier. Sold by R. L. Crowell & Sons, who sell more of it than all other patent medicine put together.
Mrs. L. F. PERKINS,
Mrs. H. W. SCOTT,
JOSEPHUS SLATE.

VEGETINE is the great health restorer—composed exclusively of barks, roots and herbs. It is very pleasant to take; every child likes it.

VEGETINE

FOR NERVOUS HEADACHE AND RHEUMATISM.
CINCINNATI, O., April 9, 1877.
It so happened that the Schuykill Harbor Police boat was moored under the bridge, and by the time her head appeared on the surface a dozen strong arms had seized her and dragged her into the little boat. Good whiskey was then poured into her and respiration was started according to the latest mode. The whiskey and rubbing had the desired effect. She was then placed in an ambulance and hurried to the Almshouse Hospital, where, by careful nursing, she was brought around. It was here she made the statement that she believed it was intended that she should live. After her water experience she appeared to be vivacious.
"It was not on the impulse of a moment that I determined to commit suicide, like the people in the New York Ledger stories," she said, "but I had been thinking of it for some time."
The cause for this double attempt at self-murder she refuses to divulge. She has been married seven years. She and her husband have lived happily together, but for five months they have not met. It was stated at the boarding house that it was supposed her act was committed because she feared to meet her husband on his return on account of something of which she had been accused, which she thought had come to his ears.—Philad. Record.

PROTESTANT PRAYERS FOR THE POPE.

The Roman Catholic churches were not the only places where prayers were invoked on behalf of the new Pope on Sunday last. A similar request was made in the forenoon at the Church of St. John the Divine, Kensington. At the close of his sermon at the twelve o'clock service the Rev. Mr. Athawes, one of the curates, after referring in eulogistic terms to the virtues and general character of the late Pope, asked for the prayers of the congregation on behalf of the newly elected Pontiff, that he might inherit all the virtues of his distinguished predecessor who had just passed away.—Gallivan's Messenger, March 1.
