WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—Aug. 18, 1878. For the Middle Atlantic States partly cloudy weather, occasional light rain, northerly winds veering to easterly, stationary temperature and stationary or rising barometer.

FASHIONABLE WEDDING.—For some time past the wedding of Mr. Moses J. Waterman, son of Simon Waterman, esq., and Miss Sarah Brager, daughter of Joseph Brager, esq., has been the theme of conversation among a large number of our people, especially the younger portion. The ceremony took place last night at the Jewish Synagogue, on north Washington street, and fully realized, in its brilliancy, the expectations of the many friends of the contracting parties.

Long before the hour fixed for the marriage, the synagogue was crowded, and many persons were unable to gain admission. The entrance to the building was handsomely decorated with flowers, and two floral arches were erected at the entrances to the reading desk. Beautiful bouquets were placed on the reading desk.

Messrs. J. H. Waterman, A. A. Brager, Solomon Blondheim and E. Goldsmith acted as ushers, and performed their duties with much courtesy and politeness.

When the happy couple and their immediate families reached the lower door of the synagogue, they separated, the groom attended by his parents entering by one door and the bride attended by her parents, by the other, meeting before the reading desk.

Prof. Heyman, who presided at the organ, meanwhile, gave Mendelssohn's Wedding March in fine style.

The marriage ceremony was then performed by Rev. Mr. Stern of Washington, the regular reader of the synagogue here having been unable to get the necessary license, owing to the non-issuance of the Corporation Code. Mr. Stern delivered a most impressive discourse to the bridegroom and bride, and then proceeded with the service. At its conclusion, the wedded pair and their immediate friends were conveyed in carriages to Serepta Hall, where the reception and wedding supper took place.

The supper was one of the most superb ever set in this city. The tables were arranged in the form of a St. Andrew's cross and were laid with the most elegant and luxuriant, all prepared in most excellent style by Mr. Henry Brengle, the caterer for the occasion. After ample justice had been done to the good things, toasts were drunk and letters of congratulation from about friends read. The tables were surrounded by arches of evergreens and flowers, and appropriate mottos were displayed at each end.

Upon leaving the supper room the company proceeded to the main hall below, where Mr. Stern's Band struck up the grand march. The bride was then formed and was quickly followed by others, and from that time until an early hour this morning the pleasures of the merry dance were indulged in. Prominent among the dancers were Mr. and Mrs. E. Weisman, of Baltimore, formerly of this city, the grandfather and grandmother of the bride. Their movements were as correct and graceful as those of any of the much younger ones, and met with many compliments from their present.

The supper room and general arrangements of the hall were presided over by Mr. Max Pretzfelder, as master of ceremonies, whose graceful and agreeable manners and earnest efforts to make every one at home, added not a little to the pleasures of the evening of the most notable which has taken place here for years.

The bride wore a beautiful shade of light mauve silk in princess style, heavily trimmed with fringe and lace, and draped with flowers. The bridal wreath was of orange blossoms, the veil trailing the ground.

Among those present at the wedding were Mayor Kemper, Alderman Strauss and Councilman Eichberg, of this city, and Mr. Joseph Rosenbaum and sister and Miss Mary Kaufman, Washington, D. C.; Mr. Samuel Scholcher and lady, Mrs. Lewis Seligman, Miss Lena Scholcher, Mr. Henry Friedman, Mr. E. Wisnoma and lady, Mr. A. Myers and lady, Mr. S. Blondheim, and Mr. L. Blondheim, Baltimore; Mr. Solomon Friedman, New York; Miss Bertha Greenstein, Richmond; Mr. Joseph Rubin, W. Chesapeake, Pa.; Miss Rosa Weinberg, Philadelphia, Pa.

The toilets of many of the ladies were very elaborate and costed and attracted much attention, but as the reporter is not an artist in the mysteries of female adornment, he refrains from any attempt to describe them.

The wedded couple were the recipients of many valuable and beautiful presents, among which the following:

Set of gold silver tea and table spoons and ladle, from Mr. Wm. Scholcher and lady, of Baltimore; set of gold silver tea and table spoons, from S. Friedman and lady, of New York; handsome bouquet, by Weinman at 4 lady, of Baltimore; pair silver, from A. B. Brager, (brother of the bride), Baltimore; solid silver soup ladle and silver spoon, M. Friedman and lady, Baltimore; set solid silver tea spoons, L. Steifel, Baltimore; solid silver sauce spoons, A. Myers and lady, Baltimore; pair solid silver preserve spoons, S. Blondheim, Baltimore; handsome China tea set, H. Schabell, Wilkesbarre, Penn.; carved towel rack, Miss Rosa Weinberg, Philadelphia; beaded cushions, Miss Amelia Wolf, Washington; solid silver knives and forks, D. Scholcher, Baltimore; solid silver soup ladle, Mrs. Samuel Scholcher, and solid silver dinner set, Miss Lena Scholcher, Baltimore; solid silver napkin rings, Mr. Jos. Rosenbaum and sister, Washington; solid silver ice pitcher, I. Eichberg and lady; solid silver cake basket, M. Hubert and lady; solid silver basket, I. Schwarz and lady; solid silver set, H. Schwarz and lady; solid silver set, S. Blondheim and lady; solid silver syrup pitcher, S. Wolf; solid silver butter dish, I. Gerzberger; complete set table dishes, S. Waterman and lady, (parents of the groom); chamber set, L. Stein and lady; handsome ball rack, E. Goldsmith and M. Rosenthal; coral vases, L. Brager, (brother of the bride); chamber set, E. Rosenthal and lady; solid silver pitcher jar and fork, M. Bendheim and lady; silver and crystal preserve jar, M. Gerzberger; solid silver salt seller and spoon, I. Schwarz and lady; solid silver breakfast caster, M. Heller and lady; solid silver syrup jug, M. Pretzfelder; set silver napkin rings, S. Lindheimer and lady; silver and crystal bouquet holder, S. Dealham and lady; silver preserve spoon, J. Kaufman and lady; handsome Russia leather album, with stand, D. and L. Rubin; set muslin tea and coffee dishes, D. Bendheim and lady; marble top card stand, H. Stein; chamber set, Miss Sophia Bendheim; library stand, M. Ullman and lady; a handsome bronze clock, from Josiah H. Waterman, (brother of the groom).

The happy pair did not make a bridal tour, but quietly settled down in a handsome residence on Washington street, which had been leased and furnished for them by the bride's father. After the company separated the bride and groom were surrounded by Medley's band.

COMMON COUNCIL.—The Common Council met last night under the call of the Mayor to consider the resolution in relation to the city finances passed by the Board of Aldermen on the 12th previous.

A resolution amending the rule in relation to the duties of the Finance Committee came in from the Aldermen. The amendment makes it the duty of the committee to advise the Collector of Taxes in the matter of making discounts in settlement of all tax bills.

Mr. Smoot supported its passage as vital to the town. He informed the Council that the Finance judgment had been entirely settled and that by the financial ability of the Treasurer, a large discount had been obtained. The other floating debts had been curtailed, so that the entire floating debt of the city did not now exceed $5,000. If the present plan was agreed to he thought there would be little financial difficulty.

Mr. Evans favored retaining all of the coupons, but did not see precisely how this plan would operate. When the coupons bondholders came, as they now do, to threaten the public schools, he was willing to kick the value of the coupons to nothing if need be.

Mr. Hill declared himself favorable to the object aimed at by the plan, and would vote for it, but suggested that there might be some difficulty in carrying it out.

Mr. Eichberg said that when in Council before, all of the members knew, he had been in favor of paying 6 per cent, on every dollar the town owed. But times had changed, the town could not now pay it, and all that an honest contractor, like an honest man, could do, was to do the best it could. The proposition the town had made to its creditors was the very best it could.

The entire real estate in the town would not now sell for its bonded debt. It was not outsiders, but gentlemen in town who were fighting the interests of the town, and the only way to meet the coupons is by using such means as the equity of the Finance Committee could suggest.

Mr. Smoot explained that if this power was given in an act, it would stand until repealed, but if the power was placed in the rules, the power intended to be temporary would expire with the present Council.

The debate was continued by Messrs. Rice, Hill and Eichberg, and the question then came up upon concurring with the Aldermen on the proposed amendment to the rules.

The President said the vote would be taken by yeas and nays.

Mr. Smoot asked if it was usual for the yeas and nays to be called, unless at the request of some member. He did not think it necessary.

The Chair said he thought that in this case a yeas and nays vote should be taken.

Upon calling the roll the voting resulted: Yeas 11, nays none.

The Chair said that under the charter, which required twelve votes to pass a law, order of resolution, on the night of its introduction, he must decide that the motion to occur was lost.

Mr. Smoot expressed surprise at the decision. He did not think that an amendment of the rule was a law, order or resolution. He hoped the Chair would reverse his decision.

The Chair said he would not decide either way, but that he would be conscientious in the execution of the law. He hoped some member would appeal.

Mr. Eichberg—I will appeal from the decision of the Chair.

Mr. Smoot—I move to reconsider the vote by which Council refused to concur with the Board of Aldermen, it be until Friday evening.

Mr. Eichberg said he was going away and would not be here Friday.

The Chair suggested that a meeting be held to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

Mr. Eichberg said his engagements compelled him to leave the city at seven o'clock in the morning.

The vote was then reconsidered, and the Board adjourned until Friday.

ACCIDENTS.—The Calpeper Times has the following chapter of accidents on the Midland Road:

"A colored boy, aged about fourteen years, named David Marshall, who had been 'beating' his way with some other boys on a freight train over the V. M. & R. from Washington city to this place, jumped from the train yesterday while it was in motion at Rappahannock station, when he fell and broke his neck.

A colored man was also fatally injured on Sunday night at the same place. He was crossing the bridge over the Rappahannock river, when the south-bound express ran on it and crushed him against the timbers. He was brought to this place, and is now lying at the Alms house, where he is properly cared for.

We learn that two tramps on Monday night, were thrown from the cars near Manassas, one of whom struck his head against a large sand stone, burst his skull, and spread his brains over the rock. The other tramp is supposed to be mortally wounded.

POLICE ITEMS.—The following cases have been tried since yesterday:

Mrs. P. Peters, accused of stealing lumber from the house at Peyton's Grove, was dismissed for want of evidence.

John Allison, for being drunk and disorderly and abusing his wife, was held for further examination.

Sarah Timbers, for deserting her children, was ordered to take care of them.

Five colored boys, for fighting and disorderly conduct, were fined and discharged.

George Lewis, colored, for disorderly conduct at the Midland depot, was fined and discharged.

COLUMBIA FIRE CO.—The regular monthly meeting of the Columbia Steam Fire Engine Company was held last night, with R. C. Astor in the chair, and John Grantland secretary.

A communication was received from the Chief Engineer, which was read and approved.

London Campbell, engineer, and Henry Potts, hestler, were unanimously recommended to the Fire Wardens for re-election to their positions.

The resignation of R. W. Wheat as secretary was accepted, and John Grantland elected to fill the vacancy.

The meeting then adjourned.

PRISONERS REMANDED.—A deputy sheriff from Cumberland arrived here yesterday evening, and, on being taken to the jail, recognized the three men confined there as escaped prisoners from the Cumberland jail. The men, whose names are Frederick Johnson, Charles Mason and W. H. Lander, all from Bisell, also recognized the officer, and agreed to go along with him, professing their preference for the Cumberland jail over ours, probably because it is easier to break out of. The officer, accompanied by Captain Webster, left last night with the prisoners for Cumberland.

LAND SALES.—Green and Wills, Land Agents, have sold for Messrs. Rixey & Green, commissioners of sale, 467 acres of land belonging to the estate of the late Dr. Green, in Culpeper county, and adjoining the land of Richard H. Croningham, esq., to C. T. Fowler, of Pennsylvania, for $14,000.

Also a tract of 113½ acres near Nokesville, Prince William county, belonging to the Messrs. Jefferson, to W. S. Robinson, of Pennsylvania, for $500.

COL. MOSBY.—The United States District Attorney for South Carolina has written to Washington requesting that Col. Mosby be retained as special counsel to represent the Government in the Internal Revenue cases to be tried in the United States Circuit Court before Chief Justice Waite. Col. Mosby has also been invited to the meeting of the Grand Army of the Republic at Tuckerstown, N. J., Aug. 27, and to the Soldiers' and Sailors' Reunion at Marietta, Ohio, September 3.

ASSUMPTION.—To-day was celebrated in the Catholic Church as the festival of the Assumption of the Virgin Mary. It is a holiday of obligation, and services were held in St. Mary's Church at six and ten o'clock this morning. The day is generally observed throughout the Catholic world, although the belief it commemorates is not an article of faith.

DEATH OF AN ALEXANDRIAN.—Capt. John H. Duffey, formerly of this city, but lately of Baltimore, died at his residence there on Tuesday night. Capt. Duffey served during the late war as a member of the Old Dominion Rifles, Co. H, 17th Virginia Regiment, and was quite popular. Since his removal to Baltimore he has been captain of Co. B, 6th Maryland Regiment, and was among those who were honored by the rioters last year. His remains were interred in Baltimore this evening.
