THURSDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 5.

INDIAN CHILDREN AT HAMPTON INSTITUTE. Capt. R. H. Pratt, U. S. A., is in the city making arrangements to proceed to the Sioux country for the purpose of bringing East a number of Indian children of that tribe to be educated. The children, about fifty in number, males and females, will be entered at the Hampton, Va., Normal and Agricultural Institute. After their entrance to this school, Captain Pratt will retain charge of them until they become satisfied and at home amid their new surroundings and duties. The children will be taught agriculture and given a good common school education. The females will be instructed in branches of parallel usefulness. The expense of educating them will be borne by the Interior Department. In addition to these children a number of young women from the Kiowa and Comanche tribes will also be entered at the Hampton Institute. This will be at the instance of Gen. Armstrong, its president. There are now at the school a number of young male Indians, who were released from imprisonment at St. Augustine some time ago by Secretary McCrary. General Armstrong thinks that if they be thrown in contact with young women of their tribes—the Kiowa and Comanche—they will unite with them in matrimony. It is taken for granted that educated Indian couples who are Christians and have been married as such will have an elevating effect upon their tribes when they return to them. Results similar are also expected from the bringing up of the fifty Sioux children of both sexes.—Wash. Star.

ICE CREAM, SODA WATER, &c.

ICE CREAM. My Ice Cream Manufactory, one of the largest in Virginia, still continues to supply private customers, Sunday schools, excursions, picnics, fairs, festivals and associations, as well as the trade, with that SUPERIOR ICE CREAM that has made a name in this community and is known everywhere as BRINGLE'S ICE CREAM. I could easily reduce its price by lowering its quality, but good cream, of fresh, pure, wholesome ingredients, cannot be furnished at a less price than I serve it. Of course, I could "grade my cream by the price," but my fair dealing has won for me the good name of a fair dealer, and I have for it. I ask that persons ordering "Bringle's Cream" from third parties will assure themselves that the cream sent is certainly from my establishment. I warrant my cream, and do not wish that inferior cream, sent out as mine, may injure its reputation. It is my aim to furnish the BEST ICE CREAM IN AMERICA, and my customers are satisfied that I do so. HENRY BRINGLE, je 3-11
