Pleuro-Pneumonia and Hog Cholera.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23, 1879.
Dr. Gadsden, Veterinary Surgeon of Philadelphia, called upon Dr. Bushman, Veterinary Surgeon of the Army, to day and requested him to show him some cattle with contagious pleuro-pneumonia at Alexandria, Va., whither Dr. Bushman had previously taken Dr. McElshran, the agent of the Canadian government. Drs. Gadsden and Bushman accordingly went first to the stable where Dr. McElshran had previously purchased a cow for post mortem examination. At this stable they found only one cow, three belonging to the same person having died within a few months past. This cow was suffering from pleuro pneumonia in a chronic form. She had a peculiar cough, pallid membranes, and her temperature was 103 degrees. Dr. Bushman says the cow has 103 degrees. Dr. Bushman says the cow has 103 degrees. Dr. Bushman says the cow has 103 degrees.

VEGETINE.

HER OWN WORDS.
Baltimore, Md., Feb. 13th, 1877.—Mr. H. R. Stevens: Dear Sir—Since several years I have had a sore and very painful foot. I had some physicians, but they could not cure me. Now I have bought one of your Vegetine from a lady who was sick for a long time, and became all well from your Vegetine, and I went and bought me one bottle of Vegetine; and after I had used one bottle, the pains left me, and it began to heal, and then I bought one other bottle, and so I take it yet. I thank God for this remedy and yourself; and wishing every sufferer may pay attention to it. It is a blessing for health.
Mrs. C. KRAEMER, 638 West Ball st.

VEGETINE

SAFE AND SURE.
Mr. H. R. Stevens: In 1872 your Vegetine was recommended to me, and, yielding to the persuasions of a friend, I consented to try it. At the time I was suffering from general debility and nervous prostration, superinduced by overwork and irregular habits. Its wonderful strengthening and curative properties seemed to affect my debilitated system from the first dose; and under its persistent use I rapidly recovered, gaining more than usual health and good feeling. Since then I have not hesitated to give Vegetine my most unqualified endorsement, as being a safe, sure and powerful agent in promoting health and restoring the wasted system to new life and energy. Vegetine is the only medicine I use; and as long as I live I never expect to find a better. Yours truly,
W. H. CLARK, 120 Monterey st., Allegheny, Pennsylvania.

VEGETINE

THE BEST SPRING MEDICINE.
Charleston—H. R. Stevens: Dear Sir—This is to certify that I have used your "Blood Preparation" in my family for several years, and think that for Scrophulous or Cancerous humors or rheumatic affections it cannot be excelled; and as a blood purifier and spring medicine it is the best thing I have ever used, and I have used almost everything. I can cheerfully recommend it to any one in need of such a medicine. Yours respectfully,
Mrs. A. A. DUNSMORE 19 Russell st.

VEGETINE

WHAT IS NEEDED.
Boston, Feb. 13th, 1871.—H. R. Stevens, esq.: Dear Sir—About one year since I found myself in a feeble condition from general debility. Vegetine was strongly recommended to me by a friend who had been much benefited by its use. I procured the article, and, after using several bottles, was restored to health, and discontinued its use. I feel quite confident that there is no medicine superior to it for those complaints for which it is especially prepared, and would cheerfully recommend it to those who feel that they need something to restore them to perfect health. Respectfully yours,
U. L. PATTINGILL, Firm of S. M. Peckinpaugh & Co., No. 19 State street, Boston.

VEGETINE

ALL HAVE OBTAINED RELIEF.
South Bend, Ind., Jan. 17th, 1872.—H. R. Stevens, esq.: Dear Sir: I have had dyspepsia in its worst form for the last ten years, and have taken hundreds of dollars' worth of medicines without obtaining any relief. In September last I commenced taking the Vegetine, since which time my health has steadily improved. My food digests well, and I have gained fifteen pounds of flesh. There are several others in this place taking Vegetine, and all have obtained relief. Yours truly,
THOMAS E. MOORE, Overseer of Cart Room Portsmouth Co's Mills.
