A PLEASANT SURPRISE.—It is a very pleasant thing to be agreeably surprised, and it is equally pleasant to the one who causes that surprise. It is this in human nature that makes it as blessed, if not more so, to give than to receive. Mr. Henry Brengle, there, may rest assured that if this was his purpose, he accomplished his object, when he sent to this office, on Thursday evening last, about five o'clock, two large trunks, one of frozen custard, and the other of vanilla cream, accompanied with an abundance of cake, fruit and ice, which was highly appreciated by all. Mr. Brengle's cream is too well known to need any praise, but his frozen custard this season, if possible, goes ahead of anything he has yet produced, and families need no longer make their own custard and have it frozen, when they can have it furnished them, and that, the very best, with so little trouble, and at so small a cost. Mr. Brengle's establishment, No. 129 King street, has been thoroughly refitted, and is not only prepared to furnish the city, wholesale or retail, balls or parties, with anything in his line, but orders from the country will be promptly filled, and satisfaction guaranteed.

POLICE ITEMS.—Justice Thompson, May and Lovjoy, yesterday evening, investigated the charge of assault and battery against Officer James Smith, in connection with Wednesday night's disturbance. Officer Smith was promptly discharged from his beat.

GEORGE JOHNSON, colored, was before the Mayor, this morning, for shooting with intent to kill. It appeared that the accused and Wm. Deeks, also colored, had a dispute about some white washing, and that Johnson got a gun and shot at Deeks, killing, however, to hit him. The Mayor sent the accused on to the next term of the Corporation Court.

LAST OF THE QUANDER CASE.—The wife of Quander, sr., Felix Quander, jr., and the wife of the former, who created such an excitement in the Accotink neighborhood some time since by their resistance to constable Sarin and the posse who went to arrest them, were arraigned for that offense in Fairfax County Court on Tuesday. The old man was fined $20, the young man $10, and the old woman was discharged without punishment. The Quander, who bear a very bad reputation in Fairfax, are said to be descendants of the old Mt. Vernon slaves, thus showing a very great deterioration to that historic family.

WASHINGTON DISTRICT.—The vote in Washington district on Tuesday was as follows: Supervisors—Thomas Jewell 59, Frank G. Shurt 66, S. D. Beach 1; Magistrate—A. B. Mitchell 120, John C. Brown 60, John R. Moore 55, S. D. Beach 3, Thomas B. D. Moore 3; Constable—Elizabeth Dreyfus 71, Samuel Rich 62, Thomas C. White 45, William Campbell 7, Overseer—Pomeroy Jackson 66, Charles W. Payne 4, Commissioner of Roads—C. C. Nelson 70, George M. Donaldson 52—nearest license 70, for license 43.

SHOOTING AFFAIR AT CULPEPER.—Mr. D. M. Ream, whose shooting at Culpeper, C. H. was mentioned yesterday, was thought to be in a bad condition last night, as he was supposed to be bleeding internally.

The report that Jamison, the alleged shooter, had escaped from jail was incorrect. He is still in the custody of the Culpeper authorities, but will probably be brought to this city for safekeeping, as Culpeper jail is not considered safe.

Y. M. C. A.—It is expected that a series of meetings will be held in this city next week by members of the International Convention of the Y. M. C. A., now in session in Baltimore, under the auspices of the Association of this city. The meetings, the evangelist, who is in attendance upon that convention, will be present, and speak at the four o'clock prayer meeting to-morrow afternoon, which will be held in the Methodist Episcopal Church.

CORPORATION COURT.—In view of the illness of Judge Lyma, a meeting of the members of the bar will be held on Monday to initiate measures to secure the services of a Judge from some other city of the Commonwealth, to hold the June term of the Corporation Court, which begins on Monday week, June 24.

THE CITY DEBT.—Additions to the list of those creditors who are willing to accept the proposed compromise of the city debt continue to be made. Up to this evening the holders of $484,650 of the old bonds, and of $25,683 of overdue coupons had signified their acceptance.

THE COLORED BASE BALLS.—The Manager of the Deaf and Dumb pine, who came to this city last week, to play the white-stones writes to the Washington Star as follows:—

"In regard to the paragraph in your paper of Thursday evening, taken from the Alexandria Gazette, and concerning the Kendall Base Ball club of this institution for taking a colored man to Alexandria to play the local club, as a member of their pine, I wish to state simply that the colored boy referred to is an inmate of the institution, and being one of the best players here, must naturally be included in a representative pine. So constituted the pine has played with all the prominent clubs of Washington, including those of Georgetown college, Columbian college, National, Eagle, and others, and the young men who are the companions of the colored youth had as little idea of leaving the Virginians as of degrading themselves, when they included him in the pine that went to Alexandria."

THE ENTERTAINMENT LAST NIGHT.—A highly appreciative audience attended the entertainment, given by Miss Agnes Herndon, at Sarapta Hall last night. Those who went were amply repaid by the enjoyment of a rare literary treat. Miss Herndon has a voice of much strength and purity, over which she seems to exercise an unaltered control. The changes of intonations from grave to gay, and from the soft pleadings of the love-love swain to the passionate exclamations of tragedy were really wonderful! It is understood that Miss Herndon proposes revisiting this city, in a short time, when she will give a similar entertainment to that of last night, and those who were not present may then have an opportunity of enjoying an extraordinary intellectual treat.

FIRE ALARMS.—There were (w.) slight alarms of fire last night, neither of which, however, brought out the fire department. The first alarm was caused by the light from the smoking furnace at Jamison & Collins' foundry, where the workmen were employed late. The second was caused by a bonfire at the corner of Cameron and Columbus streets.

PERSONAL.—Among the delegates to the convention of the Christian Association now in session in Baltimore is the Rev. Wm. S. Stole, formerly a boy in the Alexandria postoffice, when the late Daniel Bryan was postmaster of this city. He is a prominent minister of the Methodist Church, station in New York, and a great temperance advocate.

THE MARKET.—The market this morning was most bountifully supplied with everything in the way of meats, vegetables and flowers. Strawberries were in great profusion and selling from 8 to 20 cents per box; peas brought 20 to 25 cents per peck, and cucumbers 60 cents per dozen. Other articles of market stuff were selling at the usual prices.

EXTRA DRY CHAMPAGNE.—Mr. R. W. Avery, 226 King street, has received an invoice of "American Extra Dry" Champagne—a most excellent beverage, and superior to much of the so-called "imported article."

LOCAL BRIEFS.—Attention is called to the notice of the Secretary of the Alexandria and Fairfax Agricultural and Industrial Association in another column.

The festival of the Baptist ladies next week bids fair to be a delightful affair. The cause is a good one, and commends the festival to all our citizens.

The weather last night was very cold, and quite a heavy frost fell. In some portions of the country near this city this ice formed, but it is not believed that any serious damage has been done.

Attention is called to the new schedule on the Midland road, which goes into effect to-morrow morning.

If you want to prevent Typhoid Fever, or if you feel as if you were going to have the chills and fevers, take Dr. Ball's Baltimore Pills. Price 25 cents.

TO THE PUBLIC.—Notwithstanding the strong pressure for "cheaper" goods to which most manufacturers have yielded by lowering both quality and price, I have maintained the highest standard of our product while reducing prices by every legitimate means. The people are tired of "shoddy" clothing, bought only from necessity, and the country's improvement is evidenced by the growing demand for better goods. For the spring of 1879 I have prepared one of the choicest stocks of Stylish Clothing I ever produced, and my prices are as low as the cost of labor and material will permit. Terms cash.

S. KATZENSTEIN, 310 7th street, Washington, D. C., Near Pennsylvania Avenue.

S. DEALHAM has just returned from New York, and has now the finest and most select stock of CLOTHING, HATS and GENTS' FURNISHINGS ever before brought to this city; at astonishing low prices.

Scenes in the House. The House of Representatives was in session all day last night, under a conviction of the Warner Silver bill.

The question being on ordering the previous question resulted in a vote of 86 yeas, nays 0—aggravation vote.—Mr. McKenzie, of Ky., moved that the Sergeant at Arms be directed to take into custody and bring to the bar of the House such members as were absent without sufficient excuse. Agreed to. After several rolls of call oratory notices the Sergeant at Arms appeared at the bar of the House with twenty-one members in custody. The usual order of business took place when the delinquent members were called upon to offer excuses for their absence—the favorite excuse being for the "poor of honor."

Mr. Wright, of Pennsylvania, one of the delinquents, offered as an excuse that he was a very old man—in point of years the father of the house. He was discharged from custody, though it was suggested that the father of the house should remain to take care of his very young children.

Mr. Reed, of Maine, another delinquent, said that he had been detained by a discussion with a stranger upon the subject of finance. Mr. McMahon, of Ohio, moved that, in view of the fact that the stranger must have suffered, the gentleman from Maine be discharged which motion was agreed to, amid loud laughter.

All the delinquent members were discharged without cost, and then (at 8:30) Mr. Ryerson moved to adjourn. The motion was again rejected, and another call of the House ordered.

Another batch of delinquents were presented by the Doorkeeper. Their several excuses were deemed satisfactory (that of Mr. Bowman, of Massachusetts, being that he had become exhausted in the frantic endeavor to understand the Silver bill, and had left the hall to get his dinner). As soon as these excuses were disposed of the Doorkeeper appeared, having in custody Messrs. Bliss and Chittenden, of New York, and Knott, of Kentucky.

Mr. Bliss was the first who was interrogated as to what excuse he had to offer for his absence. His answer was that he had some very important business which required his attention. He had another reason.

Mr. Wright, of Pennsylvania, (interrupting)—Prove it, Bliss. [Laughter.] His next reason was that he did not think there was really any business going on that required the presence of members. He did not know whether that was a good reason or not.

Mr. Wright, of Ohio, gave as his excuse that he had been called to the bar of the House by the Sergeant at Arms, who was searching for the absentees. Many of the members were asleep upon the lounges at the rear of the desks, while the remainder were engaged in conversation. Every now and then a compromise was suggested, but it invariably met with objection.

ALLEXANDRIA MARKET, May 24.—The market today was quiet and easy, with a slight depression in prices. Flour is unchanged. To the Colored People of Alexandria. I have waited long and patiently for some of our old men to declare their opinions, not because I had nothing to say, because I hold that it is presumptuous in young men to come forward as reformers, when there are old men qualified to take the lead and conduct us to those things which will make true manhood and true womanhood—even virtue and integrity. But these hopes have been futile, and therefore I will speak my sentiments. The ascriptions I may make may not be popular, but I am convinced that they are nevertheless true. However, I am not a young man, I am a delinquent, it is possible to create a stimulus for that which is good, true and noble, that you may be elevated, enlightened and refined, socially and religiously. That there are excellent and religious men among us, who will do the question is, where shall we find a remedy? We can find it nowhere. "Ourselves to do evil and learn to do good." For the last fourteen years we have made the summer season notorious by our profane songs. We have been too stupid and indifferent to our true interests. Come, let us be sober and provident, and then we shall get the approbation of all men. Camp meetings, bush meetings and excursions are (nearly) by virtue, and, therefore, ought not to be tolerated by Christians. Some will say that the white people do these things, but I must confess that an evil cannot be called a virtue simply because white people tolerate it. In that case there would be no evil. Again, some may say that we are making money for the church, but I do not feel that we ought to do so to make money for the church. However, some good brother may say that the class of persons whom we catch are those who never attend the church at all, and never contribute anything to its support. This is said indeed. Yet I cannot say in my heart that the church ought to provide a way for these poor, sinful people to hurry themselves to ruin and destruction faster than they are already going. The church should be made so attractive that these people would attend. But there is one thing that all Christians are to learn, viz: that systematic giving is an indispensable part of a Christian's life. That religion which does not cost anything is vain. We are to learn to do that which is practical and useful in life, especially to do our duty in that state wherein we are placed. And above all we are to live for that which will further the good in the community wherein we dwell. Let every one, then, exert himself not only for his own individual good, but for the community of which he is a member. Young women be chaste, pure and undefiled, and young men be manly, virtuous and Christ-like. Let us all live to the glory of God and the good of those around us. By diligence, frugality and prudent management we can overcome every obstacle, and be respected according to our worth. If we learn to be a blessing to the community rather than a curse all will respect us. Cast away everything that is low, degrading and shameful, and be clothed with pure minds and pure hearts. Come now, and let us be prudent, for we have been frolicking long enough. Let us learn to live not only for the immediate present, neither for the gratification of the appetites and the passions, but to live noble, manly and upright lives. And, then, our children will rise up and call us blessed. Yours, &c., J. H. M. POLLARD.
