

"The Public Schools, and their faithful and efficient Superintendent." Responded to by R. L. Carnes, Esq.

"Our next representative—Hon. S. C. Neale: we will hold our friends in this Congressional district to their pledges, given at the last convention, that Alexandria should have the next representative from the Eighth Congressional District." Mr. Neale responded by saying that it was with heartfelt emotions that he received this evidence of the kindly feeling of his fellow citizens. In the last convention he was proud to say that his fellow citizens in this good old town of Alexandria, whose centennial they were now celebrating, unanimously supported him. It may be said that pressing business engagements would prevent him from entering into the contest, as he would be away and could not say when he would return, and although thousands of miles of ocean would divide him from his home and friends, yet in the nearest recesses of his heart he would ever cherish the remembrance of the many evidences of kind feeling shown him by his fellow citizens in the good old town of Alexandria.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

WASHINGTON, March 10, 1880. SENATE. The Vice President laid before the Senate the message received yesterday from the President, transmitting the copy of an agreement between the Secretary of the Interior and the Indians, and recommending its ratification. Referred to the Committee on Indian Affairs.

Mr. Kernan presented the petition of Roger A. Peck for the removal of his political disabilities. Referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

The Vice President said that there being evidently no quorum present, business would be suspended temporarily.

Mr. Thurman moved a call of the Senate. During the call several Senators came in and the call showed thirty-nine Senators present, more than a quorum. Business therefore proceeded.

Mr. Thurman, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported adversely the Senate bill to amend the several States for interest paid on war loans and for other purposes. Placed on the calendar.

Mr. Davis, of Illinois, stated that there was a summary report on the bill.

Mr. Hayward, from the Committee on the Judiciary, reported favorably the House bill to amend the terms of office of the chief justices of the courts. Placed on the calendar.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Mr. Reagan, of Texas, asked and obtained leave to have printed the following resolution which he stated he would offer as a substitute for the resolutions of the Committee on the Interior and Public Lands:

Resolved, That while we recognize the general interest of the whole commercial world in the use of a ship, canal or railroad across the isthmus, connecting north and south America, and while we respect that interest, it is our duty to establish a line of communication which will not only connect the Atlantic and the Mexican Gulf and the Pacific coast lines of the U. S., and as the United States would have a great interest as well as general interest in the establishment of such a line of communication, and as such a line of communication would be only necessary to her commercial interests and to the preservation of her territorial integrity and political independence, she will insist, whenever and by whomsoever, such a project shall be undertaken, that such project shall be given security to our commercial and political interests.

The Speaker then proceeded to call committees for reports. The House having received a dispatch from the morning hour.

Mr. Quade from the Committee on Naval Affairs reported back the bill authorizing the President to detail an officer of the navy or marine corps to perform the duties of collector and paymaster general. Referred to the Committee of the Whole.

Baltimore Conference M. E. Church.

At the session of this Conference in Baltimore yesterday a dispatch received announcing the death of Rev. Dr. R. L. Dashiell, formerly a member of this Conference, and one of the most worthy ministers of the M. E. Church. A resolution was adopted, and ordered to be read to the family of the deceased, expressing profound sorrow for his death and sympathy with the family in their great bereavement.

The Conference discussed the question of the call of the Baltimore Conference to a general conference, and passed resolutions for that purpose. A resolution was adopted, and ordered to be read to the family of the deceased, expressing profound sorrow for his death and sympathy with the family in their great bereavement.

At the session of this Conference at Front Royal, yesterday, the examination of character, Winchester district was completed, the characters all being approved. Dr. Head, president of this district, represented his work as unusually prosperous. The remaining districts of Winchester, Rockingham and Washington were passed in character. The character of A. W. Wilson, D. D., missionary secretary of the M. E. Church South, also passed, and he made interesting statements of his work, and of the rapidly developing interest in this church in missionary efforts.

The committee of trial in the case of W. R. McNeil, charged with immorality, brought in a verdict of guilty, and he was expelled from the ministry and membership of the Methodist Episcopal Church South.

A committee of investigation in the case of A. B. Blue reported that no trial was necessary, and his character passed without arrest.

T. J. Magruder, treasurer of the joint board of finance, read his report. Amounts raised: Bishops fund $1,267.72; superannuated fund $2,500; educational fund $1,194.99; and the Bible cause, but a partial report, $146.96—total $4,110.66.

A resolution was passed "that the conference will try to raise $1,000 during the coming year to have in this church a monumental tablet in memory of our sacred dead."

LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES, March 10, 1880. For the Middle States higher barometer, westerly, backing to warmer southerly winds, cloudy or partly cloudy weather.

A. L. I. BUILDING COMPANY.—A meeting of the stockholders of the A. L. I. Building Company was held in the armory of the Alex. Light Infantry, on Monday evening at 8 p. m., seventy-seven shares of stock being represented. After reading and accepting the charter, as passed by the Legislature, a set of by-laws was read and adopted, which require the company to be under the management of seven directors, and that the president, secretary and treasurer shall constitute three of said directors. Judge C. E. Stuart, in a neat and emphatic speech, nominated G. McFarlane, Jr., for President, M. P. Vincent for Secretary and J. H. H. Grant for Treasurer, who were unanimously elected.

The following gentlemen were put in nomination for the remaining four directors, viz: C. E. Stuart, Park Avenue, J. M. White, M. Schuler, Jas. H. Reid and Geo. O. Monroe, and the four first named having received a majority of the votes cast were declared elected. The company ratified the purchase of the lot made by the committee and authorized the board of directors to enter into negotiations for erecting an armory thereon.

It was very gratifying to see so many of the citizens present and so much interest manifested in the success of the undertaking of the young men of the A. L. I.

The board of directors propose to erect a building suitable not only for an armory, but one that may be used for entertainments of any and all kinds. The building is to be 42 feet 6 inches wide by 100 feet deep, containing a stage 25 feet deep; also a gallery that will seat 250 people, and it is also intended to put in all the latest theatrical improvements, so that Alexandria may have a building that will be not only an ornament to the city, but will afford a fine place of amusement for the people.—This is an undertaking that certainly deserves success, and the citizens cannot be urged too much to aid and encourage the young men who have entered into and are endeavoring to carry out this scheme.

The secretary, as ordered by the board of directors, has advertised for bids for erecting the building, as will be seen by reference to another column.

CENTENNIAL NOTES.—The City Council held a meeting last night, but adjourned without transacting any business, and proceeded in back to their place in the line of procession, escorted by the Alexandria Light Infantry and St. John's Club Corps.

Mrs. W. B. Brackett, of New Orleans, a native of this city, who has been here for some time, and is now in the city, for the purpose of inspecting the city, equal to anything of the kind he ever saw.

Judge Harris, member of Congress from the Rockingham district, witnessed the procession last night, and was very much pleased.

Mr. Hyne, of Indiana, who was present at the banquet last night, expressed himself as highly delighted with the demonstration.

The display of lighting and fire works and the illumination of houses along the line of the procession last night is said to equal anything ever witnessed in this city.

The centennial committee will meet to-morrow night at the Auditor's office.

The thanks of the committee are extended to Mr. W. H. Thornton, for his kindness in furnishing a carriage for the evening mayor, chaplain, orator and poet, free.

MESMERISM AT SAREPTA HALL.—Commencing to-morrow (Thursday) night, Prof. Carter the Mesmerist will hold forth at Sarepta Hall, for three nights and a matinee on Saturday afternoon. Their performances besides being unusually long, are very instructive. It has been a long time since there has been a public performance of mesmerism in this city, and it will not doubt be largely attended. Prof. Carter is a very successful operator, having so charged with annual success in Kansas, that he can and does draw some of his subjects from all distances to his office. All the bills on a are referred from the audience. See advertisement.

ACCIDENT.—Last night, while the procession was forming, a block in which were seated Judge A. W. Chilton, City Sergeant R. T. Lucas, City Surveyor A. S. Hurdie and Messenger of the Court, Richard H. I. W. in turning the corner of Washington and King streets, ran into a horse, and the horse becoming frightened became unruly. Judge Chilton is returning to his office, and sustained his wounds.

Legislative.

RICHMOND, VIRGINIA, March 10, 1880.—In the Senate yesterday the House bill to provide for conveying to the United States the site at Sewell's Point, &c., for the erection of a hospital and quarantine purposes was passed, as was also the House bill appropriating money for commutation of Virginia soldiers, sailors and marines who lost limbs or eyes in war.

A preamble and resolution in reference to the decision of the Supreme Court in the case of the United States against J. D. Coles and the State of Virginia, petitioners for a writ of habeas corpus, urging our Senators and Representatives in the United States Congress to procure the repeal of all laws of Congress which in any way tend to the exercise of powers not delegated to the United States by the Constitution, nor prohibited by it to the States, and especially of that act under which the late decision of the United States Court was rendered, and requesting the Governor to send copies of the preamble and resolution to the Governors of other States, and to ask their cooperation in redressing the wrong, were passed by a vote of 22.

At the night session a sharp colloquy occurred between Messrs. Smith, of Nelson, and Stovall, of Henry. Smith accused Stovall and others of forging certain votes. Stovall denied it and pronounced it an unmitigated falsehood. Smith said he would have Stovall to swear outside of the hall if he did not retract that expression. The words "lie" and "God" also passed. The Lieutenant-Governor, in carrying out the order of the Senate, called upon both to apologize. Smith did so several times positively declining either to apologize to the Senate or to Smith. Stovall moved to adjourn, but the Lieutenant-Governor refused to recognize him because he was in contempt. Stovall finally apologized to the Senate.

In the House of Delegates the Senate joint resolution providing for the submission to the people of the State propositions for the readjustment of the public debt was referred to the Finance Committee.

A resolution was adopted for the appointment of a committee to examine the books and valuable papers of the Second Auditor's office, and to investigate the general condition of the office.

The mover of the resolution said he understood there were thousands and millions of dollars of uncollected coupons lying around the office, in ordinary packages, which could be abridged from the office by any dishonest person and sold upon the market again.

In reply to the usual announcement that the Legislature was about to adjourn, the Governor sent the following reply:

COMMONWEALTH OF VIRGINIA. GOVERNOR'S OFFICE. Richmond, March 10, 1880. I tender to the General Assembly my consideration and respect, and kindly wish its members, one and all, a safe journey to their respective homes, regretting, however, that they should have deemed it proper to adjourn without passing the usual appropriation "bill."

Very respectfully, FRED W. M. HOLLIDAY.

At a few minutes after 11 o'clock last night, amid scenes that may be most properly designated as disgraceful, the session closed, earnestly to the delight of a long suffering, but disgusted body.

Virginia Annual Conference.

The Virginia Annual Conference of the M. E. Church, which has been in session in Norfolk, adjourned finally on Monday.

Prior to adjournment the committee on boundaries submitted their report, protesting against any change in the boundaries of the Virginia Conference and setting forth the grounds for such protest, which was read and adopted.

The committee on temperance submitted their report, which was discussed by Rev. H. H. Pearce, who thought that the cause of temperance was to be conducted by open organizations. He thought that a great temperance societies had, to a very great extent, accomplished their work, and that hereafter those open to the public at large would yield the greater power for good. He thought that the M. E. Church should feel an ambition to be among the foremost in this work.

Mr. Pearce was followed by the Rev. J. S. Bayer.

Mr. Pearce then explained the method of conducting the great temperance reform movement now going on in Alexandria. He described in full the plan for forming a grand, the free lunches, music, smoking room, &c.

The report was received and adopted. The annual report of the corresponding secretary, Baltimore branch of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, was read, and Rev. J. S. Bayer, Bishop Merrill and Rev. H. H. Pearce made some very interesting remarks, after which the report was received and placed on file.

The report of the committee on missionary appropriation was read and adopted.

Bishop Merrill announced the examining committees as follows:

The next annual session of the Conference will be held at Price's Fork, Montgomery Co.

THE FRONT ROYAL SCANDAL.—Miss Mellic Mitchell, against whom the coroner's jury returned a verdict charging her with the murder of her illegitimate child, and who disappeared from her father's residence, as heretofore mentioned in the Gazette, was discovered concealed in a neighbor's residence, in a third story room. She is placed under surveillance and will be tried for the crime. The principal witness in the case was Dr. M. L. Garrett, who was summoned to attend the unfortunate girl after the child's birth, but from whom all evidence of the birth was concealed. The jury returned a verdict that, in their opinion, Miss Mitchell gave birth to the infant at the house of Miss Ann E. Seagins; that said infant was born alive and that it came to its death by drowning or other violent means at the hands of said Mellic Mitchell, believed to be the mother of said child. The family of Miss Mitchell are of excellent standing and much sympathy has been expressed for them in the distressing affair.

DEEDS.—On Wednesday morning, 10th of March, 1880, MARY ALICE, infant daughter of R. B. and Kila B. Atkinson, aged ten months and two weeks, was found dead in the arms of her mother's residence, No. 17 South Payne st. Her parents were called on Thursday the 11th. Friends of the family are respectfully invited to attend. Washington and Baltimore papers please copy.
