AUCTION SALES.

VIRGINIA MIDLAND R. R.

FOR SALE AT PUBLIC AUCTION. By virtue of and in obedience to a decree rendered by the Circuit Court for the city of Alexandria in the chancery case of John C. Graham vs. the Washington City, Virginia Midland and Great Southern Rail Road Company and others.

The entire line of railroad known as the Washington City, Virginia Midland and Great Southern Rail Road, lying between the city of Alexandria and the city of Danville, and from the town of Manassas, in the county of Prince William, to the town of Manassas, in the county of Loudoun, together with all the branches of the same as they now exist, with all appurtenances and equipment, rights, privileges, franchises, properties, real and personal, and works to the said railroad and branches respectively belonging, or in any way appertaining, including the roadway and tracks, rails and ties, bridges, trestles, viaducts, viaducts, fences, stations, depots, and all other cars, and all other rolling stock or equipment whatsoever, machinery, tools, and all materials for the use of said railroad or any of its branches and all other personal property appertaining to the same, including all property and things whatsoever of any kind or description which is above mentioned.

The purchaser of said road and property above described will also be substituted to the rights and assume the responsibilities of said defendant company under a contract between said company and the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road Company, dated on the 20th day of August, 1873, whereby the said Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road Company leases from said defendant company so much of the said road as lies between Strasburg and Harrisonburg, and so much of said road as lies between said points will be sold subject to said lease.

The said purchaser will further take said road and other property subject to the contracts made under orders of the Circuit Court for the city of Alexandria by the Receiver in said suit with the Charlottesville and Rapid Run Road Company, and the Franklin and Piedmont Virginia Road Company—and subject to all other contracts of the Receiver in regard to said property, whether made under order of the Court or not, and will assume all his liabilities thereunder.

Should the purchaser not comply with the terms of sale, there will be a resale at his cost and risk. Terms: The terms upon which said Commission shall sell said property as set forth in the said decree are, cash as to a sum of money equal to the principal and interest of all bonds secured by deeds of trust on real property or any part thereof, except those secured by deeds of trust of the defendant corporation, dated on the 15th day of May, 1873, in which D. H. Miller, Robert Garrett and John W. Burke, are Trustees, and for a further amount of cash equal to the past due interest on the debt secured by that deed; as to a sum equal to the principal and interest of all bonds which have heretofore been secured by deeds of trust on real property, taking care that as to such deferred payments provision be made for the purchaser to pay any interest on the purchase money on the debt secured by that deed; as to the balance of the purchase money, the same to be paid by the purchaser upon the confirmation of said sale as such manner as the Court in the decree of confirmation may direct.
