Graham vs. the Washington City, Virginia Midland and Great Southern Railroad Company and others, I shall, in front of the Market Building, on Royal street, in the city of Alexandria, in the State of Virginia, at twelve (12) o'clock m.

ON MONDAY, THE TWENTIETH DAY OF DECEMBER, 1880, sell at public auction to the highest bidder, the following described property: The ENTIRE LINE OF RAILROAD known as the Washington City, Virginia Midland and Great Southern Railroad, lying between the city of Alexandria and the city of Danville, and from the town of Massasa, in the county of Prince William, Va., to the town of Danville, in the county of Rockingham, Va., together with all the branches thereof as they now exist, with all appurtenances and equipments, rights, privileges, franchises, properties, real and personal, and works of the said railroad and branches respectively belonging, or in any way pertaining, including the roadway and tracks, rails and road bed, side tracks, bridges, viaducts, trestles, fences, stations, depots, machine shops and all other buildings and structures, docks and wharves, sand and gravel pits and deposits of materials, and all other things belonging to, or used or designed to be used, for or in connection with the said railroad or branch railroads respectively, together with all locomotives and tenders, freight and passenger cars and equipment and all other rolling stock or equipment for the use of said railroad or any of its branches and all other personal property thereunto belonging, including all property and things whatsoever of any nature or description as is above mentioned, and the said line of railroad and branches extends a total distance of 346 miles.

The purchaser of said road and property above described will also be substituted to the rights and assume the responsibility of said defendant company under contract between said company and the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company, dated on the 20th day of August, 1873, whereby the said Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company leases from said defendant company so much of the said road as lies between said city of Alexandria and said points which will be sold subject to said lease.

The said purchaser will further take said road and other property subject to the contracts made under orders of the Circuit Court of the city of Alexandria by the Receiver in said suit with the Charlottesville and Rapidan Railroad Company and the Franklin and Piedmont Railroad Company and subject to all other contracts of the Receiver in regard to said property, whether made under order of the Court or not, and should the purchaser not comply with the terms of sale, there will be a resale at his cost and risk. Terms: The terms upon which said Commissioner shall sell said property as set forth in the said decree are - cash to a sum of money equal to the principal and interest of all bonds secured by deeds of trust on said property or any part thereof, except those secured by the deed of trust of the defendant corporation, dated on the 1st of May, 1873, in which D. H. Miller, Robert Garrett and John W. Barker are trustees, and a further amount of cash equal to the past due interest on the debt secured by that deed; as to a sum equal to the principal of the debt which has been heretofore ascertained to be due under said deed, on such credit as will meet the amount of said debt at maturity, taking care that as to such deferred payments provision be made for the purchaser to so pay interest on the purchase money in instalments that the interest so to be paid by him shall meet the coupons for interest yet to fall due on said principal - as to residue of the purchase money on a credit of one, two and three years, with interest on each of them at the rate of 6 per cent. For the deferred payment, as above provided the Commissioner shall take the obligations of the purchaser and return them with his report of sale, when the Court will direct how the payment of the same shall be secured by some satisfactory lien on the premises sold.

Of the cash, which it is herein provided shall be required on the sale of said property, two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) shall be paid to the Commissioner within five days after said sale, and the residue shall be paid by instalments as herein provided, and the confirmation of said sale in such manner as the Court in the decree of confirmation may direct.
