

STATE DEMOCRATIC TICKET FOR GOVERNOR, JOHN W. DANIEL, OF LYNCHBURG...

The most remarkable piece of news published for some time past is the report in the Gazette's Washington correspondence...

Under instructions from the Postmaster General, a postoffice convict, now in jail at Richmond, who, for many years past, has been engaged solely and entirely in swindling and forgery...

The action of the republican convention in this city yesterday shows that a large number of the republicans of both the city and county really believe in the political principles they profess...

The Richmond Whig intimates that the recently developed desire of Senator Cameron to have the internal revenue tax on tobacco abolished...

The democrats in the 2nd congressional district of Maine, having no candidate of their own in the field, either refused to vote at the election last Monday or voted for the debt paying republican, Mr. Dingley...

PROM WASHINGTON. Special Correspondence of the Alex. Gazette. WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 14, 1881.

All the telegrams from Long Branch to day report the President as improving. He sits up in a chair at the window of his room, and ate fruit and other nutriment with apparent relish...

The following is the gist of Virginia political affairs at present: That notwithstanding promises of support from Northern republicans...

General Hancock has ordered a military court of inquiry to consider such cases as have occurred at the Washington barracks, including, of course, the case of Mason, who shot at Guiteau's window...

General Fremont, Governor of New Mexico, has suggested to the Interior Department the advisability of the government opening negotiations with Mexico for the purchase of the upper portion of Lower California...

NEWS OF THE DAY. Sir Lionel Sackville West, new British minister to Washington, will sail for New York October 13.

The new Clarendon stock yards of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company will be opened for business on Monday.

An iron orison weighing 68,000 pounds, for the foundation of Sharp's Island lighthouse, Chesapeake bay, has been launched by G. O. Babcock, at Oxford, Md.

John Taylor and J. T. B. Co., confined in the jail at D. R. Janelle, Ark., charged with murder, were taken out Saturday night by armed men and hanged to the limb of a tree.

A call is issued for a national convention of representatives of the agricultural, manufacturing and commercial interests of the country, to be held in the Cooper Institute, New York city, on the 21st of November...

Reports still continue to come in of the suffering caused by the recent Michigan fires. Some of those who have been driven from their homes in Port Austin and Cass City have been found along the road digging potatoes and eating them roasted by the fire.

The National Association of Fire Engineers assembled in their ninth annual convention in Richmond yesterday. The convention was called to order at noon by President Green, of Boston, who introduced Hon. W. C. Carrington, mayor of Richmond, who delivered an address of welcome which was responded to by the president.

Letter from Kappahannock. WOODVILLE, RAPD. CO., Va., Sept. 10. Wednesday was the hottest day we have felt for years. At 10 a. m. the thermometer in the shade, marked 93; at 12 m. 101; at 2 p. m. 104 and 110 in the sun; at 4 p. m. 102; and at sunset 96.

Washington Lodge A. Y. M. No. 78, had intended to dedicate its new and handsome Masonic Hall on the 14th inst., and many sister lodges in the adjacent counties had been invited to be present...

A short time ago we favored with a visit from Bishop Latane who dedicated the reformed Episcopal Church in Washington, of which the Rev. W. A. J. Jett is pastor.

Leaving today an account of the North Carolina hoop snakes in a recent number of the Gazette, I thought it ought to interest the readers of the Gazette to know that we have a writer killed one some years ago not over five hundred yards from where he now sits, seated upon his snakeship in the road, and upon his head he wore a hat which he had made of his own hair...

Notice the removal of the President to Long Branch and the revival of hopes for his recovery, but I venture the opinion that the laudable and earnest wish of Drs. Azenar and Hamilton for his restoration is father to their hopes...

General Fremont, Governor of New Mexico, has suggested to the Interior Department the advisability of the government opening negotiations with Mexico for the purchase of the upper portion of Lower California...

The executive committee of the Yorktown Centennial Commission met at the Capitol to day to complete their final arrangements for the celebration of the Yorktown Centennial...

General Hancock has ordered a military court of inquiry to consider such cases as have occurred at the Washington barracks, including, of course, the case of Mason, who shot at Guiteau's window...

The doors of the Senate chamber were draped in mourning to day in respect to the memory of the late Senator Burnside.

Blair has given up his appointments in Eastern Virginia in order to go home and meet the charge that he had written the letters purporting to have been from him to Wilson, and a number of well known citizens of Southwest Virginia testify that in their opinion the letters are in Mr. Blair's handwriting.

The doors of the Senate chamber were draped in mourning to day in respect to the memory of the late Senator Burnside.

Blair has given up his appointments in Eastern Virginia in order to go home and meet the charge that he had written the letters purporting to have been from him to Wilson...

VIRGINIA NEWS. The house of Thomas R. Walker, at Vienna Fairfax county, was burned one day last week. Loss $1,200.

The trains on the Richmond and Alleghany Railroad are now running all along the line from Richmond to Williamson's.

Mrs. Annie Campbell, widow of the late Charles Campbell, the historian of Virginia, died in Fredericksburg on Sunday of consumption.

George N. Mosely, the engineer on the Richmond and Danville railroad whose leg was crushed off on Monday by an engine near Granite, died yesterday evening from his wounds.

At Petersburg on Monday Moses H. Sael was tried for withholding E. Levi, his brother in law, and sentenced to one hour's confinement and to pay a fine of $25 and the costs of prosecution.

Richmond News. (Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.) RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 13.—Yesterday was comparatively cooler than usual. The drought has, at all appearances, abated, as we have had rain several times—good ones, too—lately.

"Haverly's Mastodon Minstrels" are in town; they showed last night and will also show to night. Yesterday afternoon the "Haverly" base ball club played a match game with the "Richmonds," with a score of 5 to 2 in favor of the "Baltimore," the champions of the South.

Among the candidates nominated for the House of Delegates from this city, last week, was Capt. M. S. Spotswood, who has not a few friends in Alexandria. He was a classmate of Capt. F. L. Smith, at Lexington College.

Politics are slow here. Outside of the conservative committee room no one ever (or hardly ever) mentions the subject. Politics are very much like a jug, the handle on one side, and that the fenders side. Last fall there are but 275. One of the delegates to the June convention is now for Major Daniel.

Mr. J. M. Blackford wrote to the Southern Churchman that he was to sail from Liverpool September 10th. He has an interesting letter from his wife in Paris, describing the sewers, etc., in this week's issue of that paper.

Terrible Accident. (Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.) RICHMOND, Sept. 13, 8:45 p. m.—A terrible accident happened this evening about 5 o'clock. The walls of the new building for the offices of the Richmond and Alleghany Railroad Company gave way while workmen were roofing the building, wounding four, one fatally, and killing one.

From Tunis. LONDON, Sept. 14.—A dispatch from Tunis to the Times says: It appears that the camp at Zaghouan is in a critical position, as all communication with Tunis, has been cut off. The Bey is greatly distressed at the demand of France, to dismiss Premier Mustapha, as he is a special favorite with the Bey.

From Egypt. LONDON, Sept. 14.—The Alexandria correspondent of the Times says: The officers' regiment of 6th in Turkey, their open promise to fight, and the hinted dangers to Europeans are a precise repetition of what was foisted at the deposition of Ismail Pasha.

From Tunis. LONDON, Sept. 14.—The Post's financial article says: "The stock exchange markets continue active. U. S. bonds are 1/4 higher for the 4 1/2 which have been bought up to 117; the 4 1/2 and extended 5 1/2 have advanced 1/4. State bonds are dull and steady. R. R. bonds are generally strong with speculative issues buoyant. The stock market opened about as it closed yesterday; there was then a fractional decline; the market then became decidedly strong and in the following hour prices advanced 1/4 for the general list. Before noon the market became heavy and prices have since fallen 1/4 per cent. Western Union Telegraph has fallen to 91 from 92 1/2 on the report that that settlement to be issued to day will be favorable because it includes the proceeds of sales of securities. Officers of the company deny the report. D. Lawrence, Luckwanna and Western have declined 1/4 per cent. with no special reason assigned. All the coal shares have been active as have also the trunk lines and the granger and Southern Western shares. The money market is easy to day at 4 1/2 per cent. for call loans and 5 1/2 per cent. for time loans and prime mercantile papers.

The Markets. BALTIMORE, Sept. 14.—Virginia 60 old — do deferred 13; do consolidated 7 1/2; do 24 or 26; do 30; do 36; do 42; do 48; do 54; do 60; do 66; do 72; do 78; do 84; do 90; do 96; do 102; do 108; do 114; do 120; do 126; do 132; do 138; do 144; do 150; do 156; do 162; do 168; do 174; do 180; do 186; do 192; do 198; do 204; do 210; do 216; do 222; do 228; do 234; do 240; do 246; do 252; do 258; do 264; do 270; do 276; do 282; do 288; do 294; do 300.

How to get Well. Expose yourself day and night, eat too much without exercise; work too hard without rest; doctor all the time; take all the vile nostrums advertised; and then you will want to know How to get Well.

Whoooping Cough! Received to day another supply of BOGGER'S WHOOPING COUGH SYRUP at WAREFIELD & HALL'S, Corner Prince and Fairfax streets.

Whoooping Cough! Received to day another supply of BOGGER'S WHOOPING COUGH SYRUP at WAREFIELD & HALL'S, Corner Prince and Fairfax streets.

Whoooping Cough! Received to day another supply of BOGGER'S WHOOPING COUGH SYRUP at WAREFIELD & HALL'S, Corner Prince and Fairfax streets.

Whoooping Cough! Received to day another supply of BOGGER'S WHOOPING COUGH SYRUP at WAREFIELD & HALL'S, Corner Prince and Fairfax streets.

TO-DAY'S TELEGRAPH NEWS. (For the Alexandria Gazette.)

"Falls Church Hospital." The old adage says, "A wounded bird will flutter;" and to judge from the amount of "buttering" in the vicinity of Falls Church, several of the prominent birds got severely hurt by the "shots" published a few weeks ago describing the "hospitality" of that place.

10:30 a. m.—When first taken this morning before the dressing covered, the President's pulse was 106. A short time afterward it fell to 104 and at the morning dressing it indicated 100 beats per minute. At this hour it has decreased to 98.

11:40 a. m.—Secretary Litchin just saw the President. He says he expected to see a very ill man and that his expectations were realized. He had not seen the patient since the afternoon he was shot and of course a great change had taken place since that time.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.

12:30 p. m.—The President has been safely removed to his reclining chair and is enjoying the scene very much. After he had comfortably settled down in his chair he expressed a sense of gratification, and remarked: "This should have been commenced three weeks ago." The patient will remain in his chair until he requests to be returned to his bed. His head is elevated to an angle of about 25 degrees.