

LOCAL MATTERS.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES, Sept. 11, 1882. For the Middle Atlantic States partly cloudy weather, with rain, easterly shifting to westerly winds, falling followed by rising barometer, and stationary or higher temperature.

GYPSIES. Two rival bands of Gypsies, with dancing bears, and a number of small children, some of them infants of a few weeks old, tied in bags and swung with cooking utensils over the backs of horses, led by half dressed women and brigand looking men, arrived in the city on Saturday on a begging expedition.

RIVER TRADE.—Inspector G. W. Hawhurst reports recent arrivals at the river front as follows: Scher, Curtis Goodwin, J. E. Abelin, to load with coal for Petersburg, to J. P. Agnew & Co.; scher, Joshua H. Marvell, Layman, Havre De Grace, coal to J. P. Agnew & Co.; scher, William James, Coulburn, New York, phosphate to J. T. & J. G. STONE THROWING IN THE STREETS.—Justice Nalls Injured.—On Friday night last as Justice J. W. Nalls was on his way home from a meeting of Potomac Lodge of Odd Fellows, he received a severe blow in the face, near the eye, from a stone thrown with great force by some unknown party on the southeast cor. of King and Columbus streets. As soon as Justice Nalls recovered from the stunning effect of the blow, he went to the corner from whence the stone came, but not one of the colored men and women standing around could tell him anything about the matter. Mr. Nalls, whose eye is in a very bad condition, thinks the stone, a small one, was from a slung-stone. One night last week a passenger on a train of cars passing through the city near being struck by a large stone thrown by an unknown party. The practice of throwing stone in the streets is a very dangerous one, and those indulging in it, when caught, ought to be severely punished. Had Justice Nalls been struck in the eye the injury would have been irreparable. This last outrage demands special investigation, and there is no doubt the police can get the necessary information to bring the guilty party to justice from those who were on the corner at the time the stone was thrown.

POLICE NEWS.—The Mayor had before him Saturday night Benjamin Cooley, col., charged with indecent conduct; Wm. B. Howard, of Alexandria county, two young men from Fairfax county, and "Captain" White, all for disorderly conduct in a restaurant in Market alley.

COOLEY was fined $15, or ninety days on the chain gauge. He was locked up until yesterday morning, when he was released upon the payment of the fine. Wm. B. Howard, "Capt." White, and one of the young men from Fairfax, were fined $250 each, and discharged. Against one of the prisoners there was no evidence, and he was discharged. An old colored woman picked up on the streets Saturday afternoon was granted a permit to enter the Almshouse.

A warrant is out against Charles Atwell, charged with stealing pears from Emanuel Webb. A young white man from Washington was arrested yesterday by Officer James Smith for disorderly conduct at a house on North Lee street. He was subsequently released upon a promise to leave the city.

FAREWELL SUPPER.—As is their custom when one of their members leaves the city to seek his fortune in another field, the Bachelor Club on Saturday night last gave a farewell supper to John B. Chapman, previous to his leaving here for Staunton, where he will make his future home. The supper was given at the Tontine, under the personal supervision of Mr. Alonzo Mills, the proprietor, and never were substantial and delicacies more deliciously served. The tables were tastefully and beautifully spread, and would have given equal pleasure to an artist as to a gourmand. There were about 25 covers. The bill of fare embraced oysters, crabs, lobster salad, birds on toast, fruit, ices, &c., with a sufficient quantity of liquors to harmonize any opposing elements, and the supper was eaten with a zest which assured its excellence. After toasts had been drunk, Mr. Chapman was escorted to the Virginia Midland Railway depot, where he took the 11 o'clock train for Staunton, carrying with him the best wishes of the many friends he has made during his stay in the city.

WASHINGTONIANS IN TROUBLE.—Notwithstanding the inclement weather yesterday a number of young men from Washington visited this city, two of whom returned to their homes sadder, and it may be wiser men. One of them, after drinking a good deal of bad whiskey, imagined himself an Englishman and commenced bombarding, with bricks, a house on North Lee street, under the delusion that it was an Egyptian fort. Officer Jas. Smith happening along at the time the bombardment was at its height, took the bombardier into custody and locked him up. Last night upon getting sober, and promising to leave the city at once, he was released. The other young man alluded to had his head so badly cut by being struck with a bottle in a house on Union street that the services of Druggist Samuel H. Lamb were necessary. This young man left the city immediately after having his wounds dressed.

YESTERDAY.—The weather yesterday was cool and cloudy, with rain in the evening and at night. The services in the different churches were conducted as usual and by the regular pastors, except in the First Presbyterian Church, where Rev. Mr. Whitlock, of Washington, preached in the morning, and in the German Lutheran Church, where Rev. Mr. Luebeck, also of Washington, preached in the evening. All our door meetings yesterday afternoon were prevented by the threatening weather, but the Gospel Temperance meeting was held in the hall of the Reform Club as usual, conducted and addressed by Rev. Dr. Hippa, of the Baptist Church. Rev. Mr. Wakefield, of Fairfax, also took part in the services.

THE HERREW NEW YEAR.—The Hebrew New Year commences on Wednesday next, when services appropriate to the occasion will be held at the Synagogue in this city. The day is observed by all orthodox Jews as a holiday and no business of any kind is carried on.

HAZEL KIRKE AND ESMERALDA.—The Madison Square (N. Y.) Theatre Company, to appear at Armory Hall, in this city, to-night in "Hazel Kirke," and to-morrow night in "Esmeralda," arrived at Green's Mansion House this morning. Manager Joe H. Hart says the plays are to be brought out in fine style, and the members of the company look as if they are fully competent to fulfill the promises made by Mr. Hart. Hazel Kirke and Esmeralda have had unprecedented runs at the Madison Square Theatre, and the plays, no doubt, will be witnessed by large audiences in Alexandria. Of Hazel Kirke, which is to be presented to-night, the Savannah News says: "The theatre was literally packed on pit to dome last evening by an audience to witness the rendition by the Madison Square Company of the comedy drama, 'Hazel Kirke,' which has had, and is still having, such an unprecedented run in New York. We believe we express the unanimous verdict of the entire assemblage when we say that the high reputation of the play itself had not been in the slightest degree overdrawn, and that the performance was one of the most meritorious which has ever been given in our venerable temple of the Muses."

The "Esmeralda Waltz," composed expressly for the Madison Square Theatre, will be played at the performance to-morrow night. RIVER TRADE.—Inspector G. W. Hawhurst reports recent arrivals at the river front as follows: Scher, Curtis Goodwin, J. E. Abelin, to load with coal for Petersburg, to J. P. Agnew & Co.; scher, Joshua H. Marvell, Layman, Havre De Grace, coal to J. P. Agnew & Co.; scher, William James, Coulburn, New York, phosphate to J. T. & J. G. Beckham; scher, Murray Vandiver, Galloway, Havre De Grace, coal to C. H. Schaaff; scher, S. F. Kirwood, to load wheat, to P. B. Hoore; scher, Thomas Richards, Hopkins, to load wheat, to G. Y. Worthington & Son; scher, Emma Aery, Hall, Philadelphia, coal to W. A. Smoot & Co.; scher, Maggie Myers, Havre De Grace, coal to C. H. Schaaff; scher, Nellie J. Dinsmore, Parker, Windsor, N. S., plaster to Herbert Bryant; scher, Pearl, Knowles, Philadelphia, coal to J. P. Agnew & Co.; scher, W. A. Moore; scher, H. L. James, James, to load wheat, to G. Y. Worthington & Son; str. Sue, Geoghegan, Baltimore, to J. Broadus & Co.; str. John Gibson, Young, New York, to F. A. Reed & Co.; schers, Thomas Franklin, Johnson, and Charley, Herbert, at Ship Yard.

SUIT AGAINST A STEAMBOAT COMPANY.—On Saturday in Washington Theo. F. S. King and others, constituting the Georgetown Catholic Union, entered suit against the Washington Steamboat Co. (limited) for $2,500 damages. The plaintiff arranged for an excursion to Marshall Hall on July 25th last, engaging for the conveyance of their patrons the steamer Arrowsmith, which they (the defendants) failed to have at the wharf at 4 o'clock as agreed upon, and to have the same at the wharf at Marshall hall between 4 and 7 o'clock as agreed upon, and ready to receive passengers and leave at 7 o'clock, and consequently a large number of their patrons were disappointed, both at the wharf and at Marshall Hall, and in consequence they were obliged to refund $300 to those who had purchased tickets, and also lost the sale of a large number of tickets to parties who were at the wharf with the intention of going.

PERSONAL.—Mr. L. M. Blackford of the Episcopal High School, near this city, who has been spending his vacanti in Europe, has sailed for home. The Shepherdstown Register says: "Miss Nettie Johnson, of Alexandria, Va., and niece of Col. Johnson, formerly a resident of this town, has been visiting friends in this place during the past three weeks. Mrs. J. M. Hill and her niece, Miss Florence Adam, have returned from the Greenbrier White Sulphur Springs.

SEMINARY CHAPEL WALLS SPRING.—The walls of the new chapel at the Theological Seminary, near this city, recently built at a cost of nearly $12,000 have sprung, and iron rods will have to be put in to save them. The springing of the walls of this new chapel has caused great disappointment among those having the property in charge, as the putting up of the building, a very handsome one, was attended with much trouble and many sacrifices.

DEATH OF CAPT. FOLLANSBEE.—Captain George Follansbee, a well known river man and a respected citizen, died at his residence on Cameron street, near the corner of Pitt, yesterday morning, after a long illness from consumption. The remains will be taken to Washington to-morrow by undertaker B. Wheatley, and the funeral will take place in the afternoon from the Masonic Temple in that city.

THE NEW SCHOONER.—The new schooner now being built at the shipyard of the Potomac Manufacturing Company in this city will be launched from the stocks about the first of November. Capt. A. A. Dumeau will be her commander. Parties in interest may attempt to bribe jurymen and corrupt the seat of justice, but there is no place on earth where as tasty and elegant clothes for school-boys can be purchased at reasonable prices as at B. Robinson & Co's., 909 Pennsylvania avenue, Washington, D. C. sep11-2t

LOCAL BREVITIES.

There were no cases at police headquarters to-day. Attention is called to Mr. Rose's advertisement of wood in to-day's GAZETTE.

The September term of the corporation court, Judge Meade presiding, commences to-morrow. The arrival of the Leesburg train this afternoon was delayed an hour or two by the washing of a bridge near Carlin's Spring.

Judge Meade, of the Corporation Court, arrived to-day from Winchester, where he and his family are spending the summer. Seventy-five carloads of cattle passed through here Saturday night over the Virginia Midland railway.

The four masted schooner Elliott B. Church, 2,000 tons, passed down the river from Georgetown, for Fall River, Saturday evening. Train No. 56, due here early this morning did not arrive until after twelve o'clock to-day, having been detained by a land slide near Amherst, caused by the heavy rains of last night.

John Cash, an old peddler, better known as "Indigo blue and matches too," died Saturday afternoon from a short illness, and was buried yesterday afternoon from the house of Thomas Penn, near Fishtown. Messrs. Geo. E. Price & Co. will have in market a fine lot of tailors and mackerel, to-morrow morning; also some of the finest watermelons that have been brought to this city this season.

F. A. Magruder, white, was arrested this afternoon and locked up, charged with stealing a chicken from Silas Jackson, colored.

The Columbia Steam Fire Company and the Relief Hook and Ladder Company having accepted the invitation to participate in the oriole parade at Baltimore to-morrow shipped their apparatus by the Baltimore and Potomac Railroad this afternoon. Letter from Loudoun. (Correspondence of the ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE.) WHEATLAND, Va., Sept. 8.—We attended the big readjuster or coalition meeting at Lincoln, yesterday. We were not the only ones that went. Indeed there were several democrats who had business at Lincoln yesterday evening, and it was well for G. W. H., county chairman, it was so, otherwise it would have been a thin meeting as it was, we are sure that more than half the crowd were not in accord with the speakers. Mr. Carter M. Louthan, of Clarke county, was the first speaker. He commenced his speech by reading an extract or two from a Richmond paper in condemnation of Massey; then he told us a story; then some more extracts, then another story, then several extracts, and a little joke, then a Bear—(we called it a bare story and so on all about Massey, and finally wound up with a 'Hell bending' gully washing story, as we thought, much to the relief of his audience.

The county chairman then, with a most grandiloquent eulogium introduced the Hon. John Paul, of Rockingham. The Hon. John delivered a very pretty speech; I might say a regular circus speech. He created a great deal of merriment, made eyes at the darkies, talked negro talk for them, told one or two good corn field stories and in fact was very funny, but we failed to see any logic in it; it all seemed mere sophistry. He made some statements and showed some figures, in relation to the blessings upon the State, the people in common, and especially the colored population. In speaking specially to the negroes present, he compared Massey's canvas to a "big show," called it the "big tent" and Dawson's the little tent, with the hand organ and the snakes; but, he said it was near enough to hear the big animals squeal. Altogether it was very entertaining but not in the least convincing. Some of his references to the Coward of the Democracy we took in, and confess felt a little humiliated by, as they seemed too true.

There is nothing else of much interest, except of what you have heard, in this section. The rape case near Pureville excites great feeling, and there is strong talk of lynching, but it is generally believed that Sheriff Caruthers is prepared to defeat any such undertaking. A bush meeting under the auspices of the M. E. Church is in progress at Rehobeth church near here, and has been largely attended. It closes to-day. There were three parties, (all from Leesburg we believe) fined $11.50 each on Wednesday for having whiskey on the ground, though I believe it was in evidence that they gave it away. The recent rains have had generally a good effect, but the wheat in stack has been somewhat damaged thereby. Politics are slow, but Massey and Barbour will get a good vote.

A WEDDING UNDER AN APPLE TREE.—The Kent, Md., News says that on Sunday week Mr. Henry Baer and Miss Eva Lieberman were united in wedlock at Willis's Cross Roads, Kent county, by Rev. Dr. Szold, a distinguished rabbi of Baltimore. The ceremony was performed under an apple tree, and witnessed by a hundred or more invited guests, including both ladies and gentlemen. A sumptuous dinner had been provided, of which all the guests freely partook.

TO WHEAT GROWERS.

The undersigned, PIONEER in the manufacture of FERTILIZERS in this city, and ORIGINATOR in 1858 of the formulas and processes of manufacture of Excelsior and Ammoniated Phosphate So well and favorably known by the agricultural public, relying upon his experience and personal reputation hitherto acquired in the uniform excellence of these FERTILIZERS as manufactured by him, continues to offer them to the farmers and planters of Maryland and Virginia, with the assurance that the High Standard Quality of each will be maintained as heretofore.

Excelsior GUANO and AMMONIATED BONE. The above are the most concentrated FERTILIZERS ever offered to the farmer, combining all the stimulating qualities of Peruvian Guano and the ever-durable fertilizing properties of bones in fine dry powder, prepared expressly for drilling. For growing wheat, it is the universal opinion of the farmers of Maryland and Virginia, after twenty years' experience in the use of these Fertilizers manufactured by me, that an application of 100 pounds is equal in its effects to 200 pounds of any other fertilizer or guano, therefore fully 50 per cent cheaper. With my present advantages and superior facilities for manufacturing, I challenge competition with any fertilizer sold in the United States, in quality, mechanical condition and price. By strictly adhering to my original formulas, using only the most concentrated materials and superintending in person their manufacture, as for the past twenty-four years, UNIFORM QUALITY IS GUARANTEED. To farmers, to secure the ONLY GENUINE EXCELSIOR and PHOSPHATE prepared according to my original formulas, established in 1858, should see that every bag is branded as above, with the ANALYSIS and MY NAME IN RED LETTERS.
