TUESDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 22.

LOCAL NEWS.

of this district local rains, followed by fair weather, variable winds, generally northerly, high or followed by lower temperature.

CITY COUNCIL.

Another called meeting of the City Council was held last night at the request of the Mayor, who sent a communication requesting Council to reconsider its action in regard to making an appropriation toward defraying the expenses of the parade to-day, also that the papers sent to the Aldermen last Friday night be transmitted to the Common Council.

Mr. Leadbeater said inasmuch as he was the only member who voted against the resolution appropriating the sum asked for, he would move a reconsideration of the matter, which being seconded by Mr. Straus, the motion prevailed, when the latter offered a resolution donating one hundred dollars for the use of the parade committee, and proceeded to give his reasons therefor.

Mr. Leadbeater said inasmuch as he was the only member who voted against the resolution appropriating the sum asked for, he would move a reconsideration of the matter, which being seconded by Mr. Straus, the motion prevailed, when the latter offered a resolution donating one hundred dollars for the use of the parade committee, and proceeded to give his reasons therefor.

COMMON COUNCIL.

The Common Council had a full meeting at the session held on the call of the Mayor last night, fifteen members attending.

A resolution from the Aldermen appropriating $100 in aid of the committee on the 22d celebration was adopted, Mr. Usher only voting in the negative.

Mr. Snowden introduced a resolution requesting the Hydraulion company, through the fire wardens, to send their engine into the procession on the 22d of February. He said that he knew the company was not prepared to parade, but the engine was always bright and handsome, and he thought strangers should see both steamers in the line.

Mr. Sweeney thought that the matter had been given by Council in charge of the wardens, and it should be left to them.

Mr. Brent said it was no harm to request the appearance of the engine.

Mr. Goodrich stated that the Hydraulion fire company had acted on the matter and were unable to make arrangements to come out. He did not think that the company would desire to come out in the shape proposed.

Mr. Snowden said he knew that the company had not uniformed, and were unable to appear, but the engine was always clean and bright and even in the little time remaining could be ornamented. After further debate the vote was taken and resulted—yeas 10; nays 5, and the board adjourned.

SHROVE TUESDAY, ASH WEDNESDAY AND LENT.—To-day is known as Shrove Tuesday, or, as it is commonly known, "Pancake Tuesday." It was formerly customary in England on this day for the people to confess to their priests, after which they dined on pancakes or fritters, and the occasion became one of merriment. Wednesday is the first day of Lent, or, as it is known among the churchmen, Ash Wednesday. On that day in the Catholic Church ashes are sprinkled on the heads of the penitents. The Lenten season will be duly observed by the Catholic and Episcopal Churches. In the first named churches the services known as the "Way of the Cross" will be held throughout the season at St. Mary's Church every Friday night.

To-morrow, Ash Wednesday, services will be held as follows: St. Mary's Church at 9 a. m., Christ Church at 11 a. m., St. Paul's Church at 5 p. m., and Grace Church at 7:30 p. m. Lenten services will be held as follows: Christ Church—Every Tuesday and Thursday at 5 p. m. St. Paul's Church—Every Wednesday and Friday at 5 p. m. Grace Church—Every Monday and Saturday at 5 p. m. and Tuesday and Wednesday nights at 7:30 o'clock.

THE STONEWALL BAND.—The Old Stonewall Brigade Band, of Staunton, Prof. Webb leader, and composed of twenty-seven pieces, arrived here last night and proceeded at once to the Alexandria Light Infantry Armory, where they discoursed excellent music during the evening. They were met at a depot and escorted down the street by a large crowd. They were a becoming uniform of dark blue with green trimmings and bear-skin caps. The band is composed principally of young men, sons of the members of the original Stonewall Brigade Band. Their appearance in line to-day was one of the features of the parade.

THE CANAL STOCK MATTER.—The committee of the City Council and a few others who were invited to take part in the conference, met last night at the Auditor's office to consider the petition to be presented to the Senate and House, praying relief against the pending suit to recover the value of canal stock not delivered by the City to the Government. The petition was agreed to and arrangements made to meet General Mahone and Hon. John S. Barbour in Washington Thursday, if the time suits those gentlemen.

WASHINGTON ARTICLES.—The current number of St. Nicholas, New York, contains an article, "A New Leaf from Washington's Boy Life," from the pen of Mr. Wm. F. Carne, of this city, with illustrations by H. A. Ogden. The Boston magazine, "Wide Awake," announces as forthcoming "Washington and his Playmates," by the same gentleman, with illustrations by Howard Pyle.

PROPOSED R. & D. FREIGHT DEPOT IN WASHINGTON.—The recent purchase of the square bounded by Maryland avenue and E. 13th and 13 1/2 streets, by Gen. W. H. Payne, of Warrenton, is understood to be for the Richmond and Danville railroad system. It is stated that it is contemplated to erect a freight depot on the square.

The steamer George Leary did not leave here for Norfolk until 11 o'clock last night, having waited until that hour for the Lang Comedy Co., which performs in the latter city to-night.

THE POCAHONTAS SHIP.—The last number of the Mechanical Engineer, published in New York, gives further details of the construction of the iron steamship Pocahontas, proposed to be built at this city, with additional drawings, &c. The paper says: "It will be seen that if the plans of the draughtsmen are properly made, the ship can be built in sections, in different parts of the country, if needed, temporarily put up, numbered in sequence, and afterward taken down to be shipped in detail and erected where the whole structure is to be launched.

The Washington Critic of yesterday says: Secretary Curtis of the new Arrow Steamship Company was found at the yards in Alexandria this morning by a reporter, to whom he pointed out the advantages of their new site with some degree of pride. "We found this to be the best place obtainable for many reasons, not the least of which is the fact that the town is so quiet that only quiet, orderly workmen will care to make their home here, and we are not apt to have the strike trouble incident to all large manufacturing interests in the North. Again, we can house our labor cheaper here and they can live better. This line of steaks you see running out into the water are for the Pocahontas, the building of the ribs for which will be commenced before the end of the week. Our yard is ample and every facility just as we could wish. Yes, we will have offices in Washington, also one here at the yard, but our main office will be in New York city. We will require a force of about 500 men, perhaps more, as we intend pushing work as rapidly as is possible. We begin active work on the 1st of March, and will probably turn this old town upside down for awhile. Our iron and wood has all been contracted for and I leave to-night for Georgia, to select and contract for a large amount of the best marble. We feel certain of our success and shall not hesitate an instant, but go ahead with all the vim and enterprise that comes of confidence and plenty of capital."

THE OPERA HOUSE.—Mr. Charles Thornton, a talented young actor, supported by Miss Isabella Grant and a strong company, will appear at the Opera House to-night in the romantic and sensational drama "Tried for Treason." While the scene is laid in the time of war with all its attendant horrors, yet the interest of the play centres in the material happiness of the Squire and his wife, supplemented by genial Irish humor. The ship-scene, the stirring incidents of the camp, the hilarious sports of the soldiers, all combine with the fearful peril of Franklin and his devoted wife to create an interest in the spectator, which is only relaxed upon the fall of the last curtain.

Edwin R. Lang and his comedy company produced at the Opera House last night a farcical comedy entitled "Scheming." The piece is based on the general style of the "Tourists," and pieces of that description. The musical numbers introduced throughout the piece were well selected and pleasing in their character, and were well rendered.

FIRE.—About four o'clock this morning a fire broke out in the frame building used as a storeroom on the southeast corner of King and Peyton streets, owned by Mr. Seifer Blouse. The alarm at first was supposed to have been sounded to bring out the fire apparatus, which had been prepared for the parade, so it was not promptly responded to, and the flames gained considerable headway before the arrival on the scene of the firemen. The building, with its contents, which, however, are said not to have been very valuable, were destroyed, but the flames were not allowed to spread to any of the adjoining property. In the building were a small stock of wine and flowers, belonging to Mr. A. F. Loose, which were insured, but the building was without insurance. The fire was supposed to have been the work of an incendiary.

PERSONAL.—Among the society items in the Washington papers is the following: "Miss Sue Lee Wheat, of Alexandria, who is at the Buckingham, receives on Saturdays."

Mr. and Mrs. Mantlebaum, of Hartford, Conn., are visiting this city. They are the guests of Alderman Henry Straus.

Mr. John B. Waller, who was recently appointed night clerk at the office of the A. & E. railway company in this city, has resigned to accept a position in the Comptroller's office of the Richmond and Danville railway company in Washington, and will enter upon his new duties to-morrow.

Among the visitors in the city to-day were Mrs. and Miss Mahone and Mr. William Mahone, jr., guests of Col. D. A. Windsor.

HOMESTEAD CLAIM.—Mr. Bushrod M. Laws yesterday evening in the Clerk's office of the Corporation Court entered a homestead exemption claim. He claims his interest in the stock of goods belonging to the firm of Fairfax & Laws, in the store on the corner of Duke and Henry streets and also his furniture valued at $184, in his residence on King street. The reason for entering the deed is not given.

THE A. L. I. FAIR last night was more largely attended than on any previous night, and the receipts were the heaviest. So dense was the throng that it was almost impossible to move about the room. The attraction of the evening was the music by the Stonewall Brigade Band of Staunton. The fair continued open all day and will close to-night.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Belle Haven Lodge, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, will give a grand ball at McBurney's Hall to-night.

Marriage licenses were issued in Washington yesterday to Henry W. Koby and Lily Wyzong, both of Leesville, Fairfax county; to John Williamson and Laura Denty, both of Fairfax county, and to Joseph T. Woodson and Lulu Meh-ring, both of Charlottesville.

Yesterday, at the meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary, which has undertaken to furnish the rooms of the Y. M. C. A., it was recommended to the committee for purchasing, by a unanimous vote of the board, that all the furniture, carpets, etc., as far as possible, be bought in this city from our own merchants.

The Day in Washington.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—To-day was generally observed as a holiday. All the executive departments and many business houses were closed. Both Houses of Congress, however, were in session. Several street parades took place during the day. The first was composed of the old volunteer fire departments of this city and Baltimore who subsequently participated in the celebration in Alexandria. The National Rifles, the Washington Light Infantry Corps, the Capital City Guards and the High School Cadets also paraded during the afternoon. The Washington Continentals made a pilgrimage to Mount Vernon where appropriate exercises were held, including addresses by Representative Herman, of Oregon, and others. The Oldest Inhabitants' Association also celebrated the day in an old-fashioned way.

Murder in Mexico.

MATAMORAS, Mex., Feb. 22.—At about 11 o'clock yesterday Senor Jose Morante, a well known Spanish merchant here, went to the house of his brother-in-law, Jose Maria Chupt Cisneros, to call upon the latter's wife. There had been trouble between the men and Cisneros had warned Morante to have no intercourse with him or his wife. As Morante was talking to Mrs. Cisneros, her husband came up, seized a carbine and shot the Spaniard through the heart.

The Sultan's Steamer Seized.

LONDON, Feb. 22.—Advices from Zanzibar state that Portuguese men-of-war, by order of the Governor of Mozambique, have seized the Sultan's steamer Kiwa at Tongi and towed her into Mozambique.

The President.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 22.—The President drove out to Oak View this morning and will remain there all day examining legislative matters. He will hold a reception at the White House this evening to the public.

HALL'S HILL, Alexandria, co., Va.

To the editor of the Alexandria Gazette: Many residents of Alexandria county visited your city Saturday and got together to discuss county matters, and as this springs election is the all absorbing topic, their loquacity was voluminous. I was struck with the facetious remarks of a well informed party, who related his hearsay of a graphic description of certain aspirants for two positions now creditably filled; he said these two candidates had manufactured "sugar-coated political pills," for the colored voters in the county and were creeping around at night to induce the colored men to try the dose. Accompanying this medicine is the ten of a dollar or so, to make the medicine more binding. Colored men seem to think the medicine offered an insult to their common sense, and those who have their "weather eye open," do not believe that prowling around at night, talking politics, is just what a laboring man wants, when after the labors of the day he has sought his bed for a night's repose, having already settled in his mind "what from which." The fecundity evidenced by these two active "politicians," has already produced nausea, and it is believed that their fuggins' productions will fructify adversely on the 26th of May, next, for the reason that the seed sown are not of the required kind, and therefore will be rejected by the voters of Alexandria county, who realize the necessity of sifting the chaff from the wheat, this pop. YORICK.

On Saturday last Mr. Charles J. Madison, father of Miss Fanny Lillian Madison, called at the Hustings Court in Richmond and obtained the personal effects of his daughter, which had been there from the time that her body was found in the reservoir.

Mr. John T. Dowell, 102 S. Charles Street Balto., Md., writes:—"For lumbago and neuralgic affections I consider Salvation Oil an excellent remedy. Always keep it on hand. If you have a cough or cold use Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup. It will cure you."
