THURSDAY EVENING, MARCH 31.

SUICIDE.—Hon. Thomas C. Reynolds committed suicide at the custom-house at St. Louis yesterday afternoon by plunging down the elevator shaft from the third floor. He fell a distance of eighty feet, and crushed in his skull. The cause of the rash act was mental derangement, superinduced by hallucinations that he was about to become insane. In his pocket was found a letter to his wife, stating that two years ago he contracted malaria at Aspinwall, and had failed to recover, the disease settling in his spine. Recently he had been troubled by insomnia and frequent nervousness. Visions invited him to join his dead friends, and, fearing lest he should be a burden to his wife by becoming a lunatic, having twice before been troubled with dementia, and his estate of $25,000 being in order, unimpaired and productive, he determined to end his life. Thomas C. Reynolds was born in Charleston, S. C. In 1831 he studied in the University of Virginia, and continued his education in Germany, graduating at Heidelberg in 1842. He spent one year in the University of Paris, and was admitted to the bar in Virginia in 1844. He was secretary of the United States legation to Spain in 1846 and 1848. In 1859 he located at St. Louis. In 1860 he was elected lieutenant-governor of Missouri on the same ticket with Governor Claiborne Jackson, and in the civil war sided with the Confederacy. At the close of the war he went to Mexico. In 1868 he returned to St. Louis. He was a member of the commission sent to South America about two years ago in the interest of commerce with the United States. It 1854 he fought a duel with B. Gratz Brown with rifles at thirty paces on the island opposite St. Louis over a political discussion. Mr. Brown was hit in the knee, but Mr. Reynolds was not touched. It is believed that Governor Reynolds only intended to maim Mr. Brown.

The GAZETTE is now the oldest paper in the State, and with few exceptions the oldest in the country, and its usefulness has been demonstrated and appreciated during the EIGHTY SEVEN YEARS of its existence. In its columns has always been found a mirror of passing events, and the careful chronicle of the history of what is going on in the world has ever been its aim. It is always welcomed in the household, while in the counting room and workshop it has become invaluable. The GAZETTE has better facilities for obtaining news than any paper outside of the national capital. Situated as it is so close to the great centre of news, it enjoys daily the benefit of the Associated Press dispatches from every part of the world; hence its patrons can read from its columns in the evening what has transpired that day in every portion of our own domain as well as from every part of the habitable globe. Consequently it is an every day occurrence for the GAZETTE to publish telegrams from the various European capitals twelve or fifteen hours earlier than the morning papers. Another feature that serves to make the GAZETTE a great desideratum with merchants is its afternoon market reports from New York, Baltimore, Chicago and other centres. The local department furnishes a full and complete history of everything that occurs in and near the city, and this feature will, as ever, receive careful attention. Correspondence from Washington, Richmond and every section of the State, is published regularly, and all events of interest occurring within the bounds of the Commonwealth are to be found in the columns of the GAZETTE. The GAZETTE'S circulation is steadily increasing, especially among people who consult its advertising columns before purchasing. That this is self-evident may be inferred from the fact that a large country edition—nearly as large as the daily—is sent all over this section of country three times a week, and is read by thousands, most of whom send here or to contiguous cities to make purchases. The advantages of advertising in the GAZETTE are, therefore, apparent. RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION. Daily Gazette, per annum, $5.00 Tri-weekly Gazette, for country, 4.00

AMOS B. SLAYMAKER, MANUFACTURER AND DEALER IN Ladies', Gents' & Children's Furn'g Goods. DRY GOODS AND NOTIONS. Wholesale and Retail. ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE. The GAZETTE is now the oldest paper in the State, and with few exceptions the oldest in the country, and its usefulness has been demonstrated and appreciated during the EIGHTY SEVEN YEARS of its existence. In its columns has always been found a mirror of passing events, and the careful chronicle of the history of what is going on in the world has ever been its aim. It is always welcomed in the household, while in the counting room and workshop it has become invaluable. The GAZETTE has better facilities for obtaining news than any paper outside of the national capital. Situated as it is so close to the great centre of news, it enjoys daily the benefit of the Associated Press dispatches from every part of the world; hence its patrons can read from its columns in the evening what has transpired that day in every portion of our own domain as well as from every part of the habitable globe. Consequently it is an every day occurrence for the GAZETTE to publish telegrams from the various European capitals twelve or fifteen hours earlier than the morning papers. Another feature that serves to make the GAZETTE a great desideratum with merchants is its afternoon market reports from New York, Baltimore, Chicago and other centres. The local department furnishes a full and complete history of everything that occurs in and near the city, and this feature will, as ever, receive careful attention. Correspondence from Washington, Richmond and every section of the State, is published regularly, and all events of interest occurring within the bounds of the Commonwealth are to be found in the columns of the GAZETTE. The GAZETTE'S circulation is steadily increasing, especially among people who consult its advertising columns before purchasing. That this is self-evident may be inferred from the fact that a large country edition—nearly as large as the daily—is sent all over this section of country three times a week, and is read by thousands, most of whom send here or to contiguous cities to make purchases. The advantages of advertising in the GAZETTE are, therefore, apparent. RATES OF SUBSCRIPTION. Daily Gazette, per annum, $5.00 Tri-weekly Gazette, for country, 4.00
