

FROM WASHINGTON.

(Special Correspondence of the Alex. GAZETTE.)
WASHINGTON, D. C., May 27, 1887.

Ex-Congressman John S. Barbour while at the Metropolitan hotel this morning was asked by the GAZETTE's correspondent when the executive committee of his party in his State would meet to fix the time for holding a State convention there. He replied sometime in June, and that the convention he thought would meet sometime in August. He said there is a central committee of the democratic party in his State and an executive committee, of both of which he is chairman; that the former met sometime ago in Richmond and formally determined that a State convention of the party should be held, and that the latter had now only to fix the date and place thereof, which they would do early next month, and he thought August would be the month selected. He said he was decidedly in favor of holding the convention, and reforming the lines of the party and of stimulating and enlisting it preparatory to the fall campaign.

A member of the Virginia legislature here to-day says he is convinced from what he saw of and heard from the agents of the foreign holders of Virginia bonds before they left Richmond that they are as well aware of the real condition of Virginia affairs as he is; that they will upon their return to England, advise their clients to accept the terms for the settlement of the State debt offered by the legislative committee; that their advice will be taken, and that the legislature will be reconvened to ratify that acceptance, and settle the debt upon the terms referred to. The member referred to is the only one seen here who talks in this way, all the others seeming to think the settlement of the debt as far off now as it was before the legislature met. He also says that on one Saturday evening during the negotiation the difference between the Englishmen and committee amounted to only a few thousand dollars, but that on the following Monday morning there was a marked difference observable in both the manner of the Englishmen and in their terms, and that during that interval they had been the guests of Mr. John Wise.

There was a pretty good attendance at the national drill grounds here this morning, though by no means a jam, and not half the seats on the grand stand were occupied. Among the crowd were many Alexandrians, who had come up to witness the drill of the Alexandria Light Infantry. That company for the first time wore their new uniforms, which, however, did not add much to their appearance, inasmuch as the coats are exceedingly ill-fitting. Some of the members, too, were considerably rattled at first, but towards the end of the drill the company exhibited its usual proficiency, and made a better score than some of the others. The best drilled companies up to noon were those from Belknap and San Antonio, Texas.

Ex-representative Tucker has gone to Lexington, Va., to spend a month at his home in that town. His friends here have abandoned all hope of his being offered the seat on the supreme bench made vacant by the recent death of Associate Justice Woods.

It is said here that the fact stated by Attorney General Garland in his recent interview, that he had been offered a place on the interstate railroad commission, looks very much as if the President would not object to having somebody else occupy his seat at the cabinet table.

Senator Daniel, and Representatives Wise and O'Ferrall, of Virginia, are in the city to-day. They all seem to be striving at the difficult task of getting offices for some of their constituents.

Several of the brewers of this city attended the banquet of the national brewers' convention given in Baltimore last night. They say that of all the invitations sent to office holders under the administration not a single one was accepted. They also say that the President in declining the one sent him, said its acceptance was "impracticable," and they expressed some doubts to the idea he intended to convey by that word.

Major Poore's physicians held a consultation this morning at ten o'clock and found that no material change had taken place in his condition since yesterday. He is still critically ill.

Some of the cadet battalions on the national drill grounds having objected to the advantage the St. John's Academy Cadets of Alexandria would have to-morrow if drilled by Major H. W. Newby, their objection was submitted this morning to Col. Ordway, chief of staff, who decided that as the cadets were under command of the Major he has the right to drill them. The drill takes place at half-past two o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

The U. S. Supreme Court rendered decisions to-day in about forty cases. The telephone cases, however, were not among the number. The petition for a rehearing of the Maxwell land grant case was denied. The court adjourned for the term.

The Metropolitan Hotel, generally considered Southern headquarters, will be serenaded to-night by some of the Southern bands now in the city. It is expected that speeches will be made from the balcony.

WRESTLING ON HORSEBACK.—The San Francisco Chronicle thus describes such a combat which came off lately at Santa Rosa, and adds that the "sport" has only just been introduced to the public: "At the word 'Go,' the riders dashed at each other, and after sparring about ten minutes for a hold Matthews secured a neck grip on Davis, which the latter tried very hard to break. Davis finding himself in danger, spurred his horse to try to get away from his opponent. Matthews would not be denied, and he was dragged on to Davis's horse. The struggle then became fierce. Both men struggled on the same horse until they worked themselves down on the side of the saddle, and it looked as though Matthews was getting the best of it, when Davis suddenly threw his horse and gave Matthews a fall.

An Albany barber says that there's not half the danger in being shaved from the public cups in a barber shop as in being brushed with the public hair brush. He says: "Half of the baldness in the world is caused by the indiscriminate use of brushes in barber shops. Baldness is usually preceded by a scaling of the head. This is a sort of disease. When a barber brushes a man's hair whose scalp is diseased and uses the same brush on a healthy scalp what can you expect? That is why so few women are bald. They never go to barber shops."

The Forum for June has been received from its publishers in New York. Its contents are: Is Andover Romanizing? Books That Have Helped Me; What is the Object of Life? Why the Revised Version Has Failed; False Notions of Government; On Things Social; Capital Punishment; Railway Passes and the Public; The Control of the Pacific; An Evil of the Schools, and the Form and Speed of Yachts.

Yesterday's Local Elections.

ALEXANDRIA COUNTY.

The election in Alexandria county yesterday resulted in the choice of J. R. Clements for Commonwealth's attorney; W. C. Wibert for treasurer; R. A. Veitch for sheriff, and H. L. Holmes for commissioner of revenue. The friends of Mr. H. H. Young claim his election for clerk by a majority of 3, while the friends of Mr. R. W. Johnston claim his election for that position by 2 majority.

FAIRFAX COUNTY.

A telephone message received here to-day from the office of the Fairfax Herald says the entire democratic ticket in that county is elected by the following majorities: Love, 518; Chichester, 487; Richardson, 541; Graham, 306; Gordon, 487; Wrenn, 432; Wiley, 449, and five of the six supervisors.

In West End precinct the vote was: For Commonwealth's Attorney: Love, 139; Chamblin, 62. Treasurer: Chichester, 120; Beattie, 82. Clerk County Court: Richardson, 141, Sangster, 60. Clerk Circuit Court: Graham, 135; Nodine, 68. Sheriff: Gordon, 132; Sangster, 68. Commissioner of Revenue (northside): Wrenn, 137; Crocker, 66; Commissioner of Revenue (southside): Wiley, 137; Hunter, 66.

At Pullman's, the vote was: Love 74, Chamblin 25; Chichester 74, Beattie 26; Richardson 77, Sangster 22; Graham 71, Nodine 27; Gordon 74, Sangster 22; Wrenn 75, Crocker 25; Wiley 89, Hunter 13.

The election in Albemarle county was for county officers, sheriff, treasurer, county and circuit clerks, supervisors and constables. For the county clerkship two democrats and one republican ran. Charlottesville elected mayor and aldermen. Judge Hughes, late circuit judge, ran against Harris, nominee of the democrats for mayor, and was defeated.

The city of Staunton gives 285 majority for the democratic nominees. The returns from the county are slim, but indicate that the democratic ticket for the general offices has been elected by a good majority.

At the election in Roanoke, Capt. S. S. Brook was elected clerk of the court, M. C. Thomas, treasurer and C. M. Turner, commissioner of the revenue—all democrats. The council stands 6 democrats and 3 republicans.

In Portsmouth, city, county and municipal officers were elected by a heavy democratic majority over the labor ticket, the republicans having abandoned the field. In Norfolk county the contest was for county officers between the regular republicans and fusionists, and the regular ticket carried the county.

In the election in Lynchburg six nominees of the democratic primary were elected to the city council and nine knights of labor, four of whom are negroes.

Three tickets were voted for in Winchester, citizens', temperance and republican. There was much scratching. The negroes voted straight republican tickets. The democratic ticket is elected in Frederick county by a large majority. The contest between Cammer, independent, and Pifer, regular democrat, for commissioner of revenue was spirited.

The entire straight republican ticket in Henrico county has been elected by a majority of about 400.

A negro councilman was elected in Manchester, opposite Richmond. The republicans had a full ticket in the field. The democrats made no nominations. In Luray the principal contest centered in the corporation election of town councilmen between "the dry and the wet" tickets. The dry ticket was successful by majorities ranging from 12 to 18.

Shenandoah elects a clean democratic county ticket.

In Pittsylvania county all of the democratic incumbents were re-elected except the commissioner of revenue in the Third district.

Henry county elects a republican commonwealth's attorney; a republican county clerk; a democratic treasurer; a republican clerk of circuit court; a republican sheriff, and a negro commissioner in the northern district.

A POISONING CASE.—In a little village in Galicia, Austria, lived a happy family, consisting of an old man called Dackof; his wife, Maruicka, and two sons, Josef and Peter. Some time ago Josef was married, and in due course his wife presented him with two children. The extraordinary fondness of old Dackof for his grandchildren awakened the jealousy of Maruicka, who, after watching her husband, came to the conclusion that he was carrying on an intrigue with his daughter-in-law. Meanwhile Peter Dackof, the unmarried son, had grown suspicious that his brother was trying to cheat him out of his inheritance. Jealousy soon turned to hate, and after talking matters over, mother and son resolved on vengeance. The next Sunday they asked Josef's wife and children to dinner, and set a hearty meal before them, with a toothsome cake to crown the feast. Nobody touched the cake that day, however, which was lucky, for it was poisoned. The Sunday following Maruicka renewed the experiment on a more elaborate scale. This time she made two similar cakes—one poisoned, the other harmless—and to induce the victims to eat she herself took a piece of one cake. A few hours later she expired, having eaten of the wrong cake. Peter Dackof now tried his hand and succeeded better than his mother. One day he contrived to put some poison into the soup of his sister-in-law and her children. The children both died in convulsions, but their mother, having taken very little soup, recovered after a terrible illness. The murderer, happily, did not escape. Having been arrested on suspicion, he was tried and condemned to death.

CRUELTY ON THE HIGH SEAS.—The examination of first mate Albert M. Rich, of the ship Robert L. Belknap, who is charged with the murder of a seaman named James Peterson while on the voyage from San Francisco to Liverpool, was begun Tuesday before United States Commissioner Shields in New York. Carl Eisenger, a seaman, swore that he saw Rich beat Peterson nearly every day with a belying pin; sometimes on the back of the head and sometimes in the face. Peterson was knocked senseless twice. One night he heard the mate abusing Peterson up on deck. He heard a blow and a heavy crash. The mate opened the forecastle door and pitched the man inside. His head was cut in three places and he died soon afterward. Rich said many times that he intended to kill Peterson and chuck him overboard before he got to Liverpool. The men could not interfere with the brutality of the mate, and it was useless to complain to the captain. Once when the captain was complained to by Peterson he asked him "if he did not get enough beating out of the mate, and if he wanted some more of him." The mate gave orders to give Peterson as little food as possible. Other seamen corroborated Eisenger's story. The Belknap is an American ship, owned by Carlton Norwood, of Rockport, Me. Captain A. J. Staples commands her.

David Burke, of Kingston, N. M., quarreled with Con Ryan and challenged him to fight with pistols. Ryan being unarmed, accepted a pistol from Burke, and the result was that Ryan was killed.

TO-DAY'S TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

THE NATIONAL DRILL.

WASHINGTON, May 27.—The weather at the camp to-day was fair, a cooler westerly breeze prevailing, and the turf of the drill grounds was in the best possible condition. The following were the infantry companies assigned to drill to-day: Indianapolis Light Infantry, Alexandria Light Infantry, Jackson Rifles, Jackson, Mich.; Molineux Rifles, New York; Belknap Rifles, Texas; San Antonio (Texas) Rifles, Lomax Rifles, Mobile, Ala.; Sheridan Guards, Manchester, N. H. The Indianapolis Company, in dark blue coats trimmed with white, blue trousers and white plumed hats, came to the front at ten o'clock. Their marching and work in the manual were very good. One or two blunders on the part of individual members were noted, and one of their volleys was decidedly rattling.

The Belknap Rifles are fine looking men, uniformed in dark blue, trimmed with red, and plumed white helmets. Their performance throughout was excellent, and their work in the manual of arms superb. Their record is certainly above that of any of their predecessors of to-day. Their volley firing was superior to anything yet seen.

The San Antonio Rifles came on the ground flying their Lone Star flag. Their uniform is of dark blue trimmed with white, with white cross belts, white helmets and white and blue plumes. They acquitted themselves with equal credit. During their drill a sprinkling of rain scattered the crowd of spectators, but the men stood their ground and carried out their allotted work without a break.

The Lomax Rifles, of Mobile, Ala., came with a record of many victories in the field of competitive drilling. They have coats of dark blue with white epaulettes, white trousers, light blue, silver trimmed helmets and white plumes. The popular verdict accords them a place beside the foremost of their predecessors.

The Sheridan Guards of New Hampshire was the last on the list for to-day's competition. It made a good general record without conspicuous excellencies or demerits. The crowd was probably as large as at any previous time since the drill began. It is a generous thing noting, but without noisy condemnation, accidents, blunders and defects and heartily applauding whatever it finds to be praiseworthy.

THE NEW YORK FIRE.

NEW YORK, May 27.—The fire at the Belt Line stables was got under control at 4 o'clock this morning. The stables, with their contents and the frame houses on the opposite side of 10th avenue and down 5th street, were destroyed. The loss will not be much less than $1,000,000. Elizabeth Walsh, 76 years old, one of the occupants of the house No. 540 West 5th street, which was burned, was sick in her bed. The police rescued her and brought her to the sidewalk where she expired from the fright and shock. Later estimates show that the loss by the fire will not be covered by one million dollars. The stables are a complete wreck and the tenements on the streets facing the stables are also burned. There were something like 1,400 horses in the stables, and only about 100 of these were saved. The bodies of twelve hundred horses that had been smothered or burned alive were roasting in the ruins of the stables together with rows of dead goats, dogs, pigs and horses that had been burned to death in a vain scramble for life. More than one hundred families, to a great extent very poor people, have been rendered homeless, and one woman perished from fright in the excitement. Any number of people, including firemen and police, had been prostrated by the consuming heat. Men, women and children wandered aimlessly over the ruins of their wrecked homes, bereft of their all and bewildered at the sudden and crushing blow. Their losses, though mostly insignificant in amount, were the accumulation of a lifetime. The loss is now estimated at $1,325,000.

THE PRESIDENT AND PARTY.

ALBANY, N. Y., May 27.—President Cleveland and party arrived here at 8:15 o'clock this morning. They left immediately by a special train on the Delaware and Hudson railroad. The party were joined by Dr. Ward, of this city.

BURLINGTON, Vt., May 27.—President Cleveland and party passed through this city on a special train at 9:40 this morning. A stop of a few minutes was made. President and Mrs. Cleveland appeared on the rear platform of their car, in company with Collector Smalley, and were greeted with enthusiastic applause. The President made no remarks.

ST. ALBANS, Vt., May 27.—President Cleveland and party arrived here at 10:30 and were enthusiastically greeted by a large crowd of citizens. The train was halted a few minutes, and the President and his wife appeared on the rear platform to acknowledge the popular greetings. They were presented with two elegant bouquets by a couple of children, and as the train moved out several giant torpedoes sounded salutes. The party will proceed direct to Moira, whence they will branch off into the Adirondack region.

QUARANTINE AGAINST CATTLE.

BURNED TO DEATH.

LAWRENCE, Kan., May 27.—About five o'clock yesterday afternoon the children of August Martin set fire to the house, and the baby, one year old, was burned to death. The father brought the child from the burning house alive, but it was so badly burned that it died in a few minutes.

London. Even officers of the army, stationed in Halifax, are not permitted to pass the gates if they happen to be dressed in plain clothing and are without the necessary pass. A communication received from the home authorities this week contains orders that these new rules were to be enforced with the greatest strictness. The reason for the measures taken to so rigorously exclude the public is said to be because newspaper correspondents have been granted so much freedom inside the citadel in the past, that they have been enabled to give minute descriptions of the works, guns, etc., and this the authorities do not appreciate.

AFFAIRS IN CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, May 27.—The master plasterers met again last night. The lockout has not yet affected them to any degree, and they declare that it will not for a good while yet. Contrary to the rule of the master builders, they are willing to hire union men, but can not pay their price and live, because of the close competition in plastering contracts. They have found it necessary to combine in an endeavor to raise the price of sub-contracts, and at the meeting last night the organization was completed by the adoption of a constitution and by-laws, twenty members being present.

THE MINISTERIAL CRISIS.

PARIS, May 27.—President Grevy to-day summoned M. Rouvier and M. Deves for a conference and induced M. Rouvier to undertake the task of forming a cabinet. M. Rouvier will endeavor to persuade M. Flourou to retain the foreign portfolio, and it is understood that M. Lockroy and M. Granet, Minister of Commerce and Minister of Posts and Telegraphs, respectively, in M. Goblet's government, will remain in office. Gen. Sausser is mentioned for Minister of War and M. Fallieres for Minister of the Interior.

VIRGINIA ELECTIONS.

NORFOLK, Va., May 27.—The returns from Norfolk county did not come in until four o'clock this morning, owing to a vast deal of scratching. The republicans straight ticket is elected by a large majority over the citizens' or fusion ticket. Asbury (colored) is elected Commonwealth's Attorney, which is said to be the first time in the history of the State where a colored man has been elected to this position. Portsmouth city elected the democratic ticket by a large majority over the labor ticket.

THE BELGIAN RIOTS.

BRUSSELS, May 27.—The striking colliers at Hornu, a village of Hainaut, have attacked the troops who were guarding mine property. Three lancers were wounded. An attempt has been made at Hornu to destroy the house of a non-striker with dynamite.

BRUSSELS, May 27.—Twelve hundred more men joined the strikers at Charleroi to-day. At Bousu, in Hainaut, 300 men went out to-day and at Dour 160. At Mons 600 strikers paraded clamoring for universal suffrage.

SUIT SETTLED.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., May 27.—The suit in the circuit court against Civil Service Commissioner Edgerton, brought by Joseph Ketchum, was settled yesterday by Ketchum proving that he was the administrator of the estate of Anna Ketchum, deceased. As soon as this was done Mr. Edgerton paid over to him $3,000 in cash and transferred a $1,000 mortgage, which he was holding in trust. This settles the rumors that Mr. Edgerton had sequestered some of the decedent's money.

SUSPECTED TRAIN ROBBER.

AUSTIN, Tex., May 27.—Joe Barbour, the suspected train robber, was apprehended on the fact that a piece of paper was found where the robbers divided their booty, bearing Barbour's name, and he had four $20 bills which had been stitched together. Among the plundered packages was one that had contained four $20 bills. None of the five prisoners have yet furnished bail. They are trying to get the services of ex-Governor Ireland to defend them.

THE FISHERY QUESTION.

HALIFAX, N. S., May 27.—Next Thursday has been fixed for the arguments of counsel in the fishery seizure cases of the David J. Adams and Ella M. Doughty. The fishery cruiser Advance sailed yesterday for the western fishing grounds. The cruiser Triumph has reported at Shelburne. A dispatch from that place reports a large number of American schooners off the coast, but says no fish have been taken up.

ENGLISH RACES.

LONDON, May 27.—The weather at Epsom Downs during the morning was cold and rainy. The race for the Oaks stakes, for three year old fillies, was won by the Duke of Beaufort's chestnut filly, Revo d'Or. Mr. T. Valentine's bay filly, St. Helen, came in second, and the Duke of Westminster's chestnut filly, Freedom, third. There were nine starters.

THE PARIS FIRE.

PARIS, May 27.—The examination of the ruins of the Opera Comique for the remains of victims continues vigorously. Twenty bodies have been found in the dining room. These victims had all met their death by suffocation. The firemen saw other bodies, but were unable to reach them. It is believed that there are 150 more bodies in the ruins.

QUARANTINE AGAINST CATTLE.

PRESCOTT, Ariz., May 27.—Governor Zwick issued a quarantine proclamation yesterday against the importation of cattle that had been exposed to pleuro-pneumonia against New York, Vermont, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland, District of Columbia, Virginia, Illinois, England, Scotland and the Dominion of Canada.

BURNED TO DEATH.

LAWRENCE, Kan., May 27.—About five o'clock yesterday afternoon the children of August Martin set fire to the house, and the baby, one year old, was burned to death. The father brought the child from the burning house alive, but it was so badly burned that it died in a few minutes.

Lord Campbell's Bankruptcy.

LONDON, May 27.—Lord Colin Campbell has consented to be placed in bankruptcy, in accordance with the decision of the bankruptcy court on the petition of the Duke of Marlborough. His liabilities are 9000 pounds, including 6000 pounds for costs incurred in presenting his divorce suit against his wife.

Wreck of a Train.

HOUSTON, May 27.—It is learned that a serious wreck has occurred on the Houston and Texas railway between Waxahachie and Garret and the engineer and fireman were killed.

SNAKES IN MEXICO.—Some of the islanders are absolutely unexplorable, because of the inconceivable number and variety of the serpents that infest them. No wonder those early Indians considered a skirt of woven snakes the most appropriate garment for the Goddess of the Earth! Centuries before the coming of the Aztecs the poetical people who inhabited these Western shores, contemplating the azure Pacific, named the Goddess of Water Chalchitlicue—"she of the skirts of blue;" and no less appropriately the tribes of this section called the earth's Goddess Chihuacoatl—"she of the skirt of snakes." Other tribes called her Coatlicue—"the woman serpent"—the Aztec Eve, whose head is a serpent's, with the breast and limbs of a woman, and whose gown is a web of snakes adorned with tassels and feathers. In attempting to explore some of the islands of Lake Chapala it seemed as if the earth literally wore a "skirt of serpents." The ground swarmed with them, swaying and writhing from every bush, hissing and squirming on every fallen tree, and rippling the water in all directions. It was a question as to which were more numerous, the birds above or the snakes below. They tell us that as soon as the spring birds reappear there is a great gathering of snakes below and hawks above. The latter literally cover the trees, and whenever hunger dictates they make a dash at the tired little creatures who have settled upon the islands after their annual return from some unknown region. If a bird escapes the hawk and seeks to refresh himself with a drink, in the twinkling of an eye he is swallowed by one of the greedy serpents that lie in wait for him at the water's edge.—Phila. Record.

A REMARKABLE APPETITE.—Essex, Mass., has a citizen whose greatest claim to distinction is his appetite, and that is remarkable. He will rise at 2 o'clock in the morning and eat a slice of meat, some eggs, several pieces of bread, a cut of ham, and perhaps a few potatoes. At 7 o'clock he has a hearty breakfast. At 9 he has another. About 10 he begins to grow hungry again. He is always craving food, and yet the doctors say that the man is well.

The numbers of The Living Age for May 14th and 21st contain England and Europe, Madame de Maintenon, The Call of Savanarola, The Imaginative Art of the Renaissance, The Empress Endocia, Persia, William Hazlitt, Pastoral, My Niece, Educational Nurseries, A Pauper Fraining Ship, Jewish Pauperism, The Permanence of National Character, Spring, with instalment of "Major Lawrence" and "Richard Cable," and party.

A Michigan tramp says that for weeks he has been living on the fat of the land from the revenue derived from begging for postage stamps. His plan was to ask each available person for a stamp with which to send a letter to his wife. With few exceptions he got a stamp, or money enough and more to buy one. He had a large number of two-cent stamps in his pocket when arrested for vagrancy.

It would be next to an impossibility to construct a type-writer to handle the Chinese language, as there are some thirty thousand characters in its alphabet. We can faintly imagine the efforts of an operator of an imaginary type-writer to tap out the intricacies of a message from the Emperor on the inhumanity of the treatment of the Chinese abroad.

Mary Stewart, a negro woman of Tallahassee county, Ga., has invented a car-coupler that is said to be simple and about perfect. She says that the idea came to her like a dream and she made a model, according to her vision, out of old "oyster cups." Mary Stewart was the first slave born to Alexander H. Stevens.

Mrs. Simmons, of Canawaugus, N. Y., stood by a window with a steel fork in her hand the other day during a heavy thunder storm. Suddenly there was a blinding flash of lightning which rendered her insensible for about two hours. The house was not struck, neither did any of the inmates experience any shock.

Best Goods are Put in Smallest Parcels.

The old proverb is certainly true in the case of Dr. Pierce's "Pleasant Purgative Pills," which are little, sugar wrapped parcels, scarcely larger than mustard seeds, containing as much cathartic power as is done up in the biggest, most repulsive looking pill. Unlike the big pills, however, they are mild and pleasant in their operation—do not produce griping pains, nor render the bowels costive after using.
