FRIDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 2.

WOULDN'T MARRY AMONG THE HEATHENS.
—An amusing scene occurred at the Maryland Steamboat Company's wharf at Salisbury, Md., Wednesday. About fourteen months ago Mrs. Cordelia Geare, of Baltimore, advertised in the Heart and Hand, published at Chicago, for a husband. Mr. George W. Fooks, a gentleman living near Salisbury, saw the advertisement and answered it, and from that time a correspondence has been kept up, resulting finally in an engagement to marry. The marriage was arranged to take place in Salisbury. A short while ago Mrs. Geare wrote to Mr. Fooks that she might be expected at Salisbury. She was taken sick in the meantime and informed her affianced that she could not come. Wednesday however, she arrived at Salisbury on the steamer Pratt. Mr. Fooks was not at the wharf to meet her. She was interviewed by several parties, and after it was learned in what difficulty she found herself a courier was dispatched for Mr. Fooks, who soon arrived in his matrimonial garb. By this time over a hundred people were on the wharf, and everybody who knew the would-be groom congratulated him and received hearty thanks in return. In the saloon the lovers met for the first time. After a short talk Mrs. Geare said that there were so many people on the wharf who acted so much like heathens that she would not live in Salisbury for any consideration, but if Mr. Fooks would go to Baltimore and live she would marry him. Mr. Fooks then came out and announced to his friends that the marriage was off for the present. Mrs. Geare returned to Baltimore on the boat. She is about 35 years old, and a widow. Mr. Fooks is about 45 years old, and a widower.

The Morning Dress.
It is said that a lady's standing in society can easily be determined by her dress at the breakfast-table; an expensive, showy costume indicating that the wearer has not yet learned the proprieties. But no one need be afraid of being called "shoddy" if her loveliness is as apparent by daylight as at the hops. Perfect beauty is never the attendant of disease; above all, of those disease peculiar to women, and which find a ready cure in Dr. Pierce's "Favorite Prescription." Price reduced to one dollar. By druggists.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.
Mrs. WILLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP, for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children. During the process of teething its value is incalculable. It relieves the child from pain, cures dysentery and diarrhea, griping in the bowels, and wind-colic. By giving health to the child it rests the mother. Price 25 cents a bottle. Wm. J. M. W.
