THE CURRAN CASS.-In the Corporation THE CURRAN CASE.—In the Corporation Court to day, in the case of John Curran, indicted for the number of Officer Julian Arnold, in May las, two motions were made by Mr. E. Burks for the prisoner, one to have the case removed elsewhere, and, in case that was not granted, to have the prisoner tried by a jury from another city or county. The grounds for the motion were that the prisoner could not have a fair trial here on account of the feeling existing here. here on account of the feeling existing here. Arguments were neard from Mr. Burke, in upport of the motions, and from Mr. Martury, for the Commonwealth, egainst such motions, and both filed affidavits in support of their respective sides.

The Court oversuled the motion for a change of venue and held that as the trial may not take place until the January or April term text, and the centiment that my exist to day by that time be greatly my exist to day by that time be greatly my died, it would reserve its decision as to who is well-known and highly esteemed in Atlanta. WOULD RATHER VOTE THAN WORK. It is learned that a number of colored men of this city who had engaged to go to South Carolina with Messrs, Breen & Feeley to work on a railroad, on which these gentle men have a contract, have refused to go, having been told that they were only being taken out of the city to prevent their voting at the approaching election. It appears that the average colored man's credulity can be played upon as wall now as it. played upon as well now as it ever could be. 1 sep9
