DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.—Judge Stuart Renominated.—The democratic convention to nominate a candidate for the legislature from this city and county was held at the Opera House to-day.

The convention was called to order at 11 o'clock by Mr. L. Marbury, when Mr. S. G. Brent was elected chairman, Mr. J. S. B. Thompson secretary and Mr. L. H. Kell sergeant-at-arms.

The names of the delegates elected at the late meetings were read, showing nearly all present. The appointment of committees was dispensed with and the chair announced that the next business was the nomination of a candidate.

Mr. J. W. Peake nominated Hon. C. E. Stuart.

Mr. R. A. Sinclair nominated Mr. Leonard Marbury.

Mr. Marbury withdrew his name from the convention and stated how it was that he had been presented as a candidate. He said that when Judge Stuart had withdrawn from the canvass his (Stuart's) friends had prevailed on him to allow his name to be used and he had consented. He was willing to serve and aid his party whenever it wished him to do so, but would not stand in the way of any good man the party wished to put forward. He thanked his friends for their support and withdrew his name as a candidate.

Mr. J. W. Holt, in a brief and complimentary speech, seconded the nomination of Judge Stuart.

Mr. J. S. B. Thompson moved to make Judge Stuart's nomination unanimous, when Mr. J. R. Johnston, from the county, took the stand and in a trade protested against such action. He said the same old game of crushing out the county was being played, and insisted on the nominee being a county man. He then presented the names of Mr. A. P. Douglas as a man possessing all the qualifications of a legislator, and warned the city that if he was not nominated the party would be beaten.

Considerable confusion was created while he was making his speech, during which Dr. Cox told Mr. Johnston that the city and county unanimously favored the nomination to a county man—Mr. Frank Hume, but the latter had declined.

A ballot was then taken, which resulted in the thirty-four delegates from the city voting for Judge Stuart, and the six from the county for Mr. Douglas.

A motion to make the nomination unanimous, was opposed by the county delegates. A committee from the city and county was then appointed to notify Judge Stuart of his nomination, but the county delegates refused to serve.

The following resolution was then adopted: Whereas the fish and oyster industry of the Chesapeake Bay and its tributaries is of direct importance to the interests of many of our citizens and the democratic party in convention having pledged itself to the fostering care of said industry, be it

Resolved, That the candidate nominated at this meeting is hereby instructed to use his best endeavors for the protection and advancement of the same.

Mr. Johnston then handed the chairman a set of resolutions, which he had ready prepared in his pocket, which the chairman at first declined to receive, but on calls being made to read them, he handed the paper to the secretary.

The paper was read, which proved to be a protest from the county against the action of the convention, a notice not to support the nominee, and a general withdrawal by the county delegates from the convention. It was signed by all of the six county delegates.

Mr. Thompson expressed himself surprised at the action of the county, explained that it was at the suggestion of Mr. Douglas that a nominating convention had been called, and said he did not think the county delegates had acted fairly.

Mr. C. P. Graham, of the county, then took the stand and excitedly criticized the action of the county delegates. He said the sentiments expressed in the paper presented were not the county's, but Mr. Johnston's, who he openly charged with having bought by Mr. Corbet, the republican nominee, and said he had it in black and white that this was so. He then pledged the support of the county to Judge Stuart, the nominee of the convention.

Mr. Johnston then attempted to address the meeting, but was told by the chairman that by his own action in withdrawing from the convention he was no longer a delegate, and had no rights upon the floor.

Mr. Johnston then, amid great confusion, managed to make himself heard and denounced Mr. Graham as a liar.

Capt. Wm. J. Gary then took the stand and said the action of the county delegation was most unreasonable. Some of them had admitted to him that Judge Stuart was the coming man, and had said they would support him. He saw Mr. Douglas in the hall and knew he would repudiate the action of the county delegates and would do nothing to jeopardize the success of the democratic party. He closed a most effective speech by eulogizing Judge Stuart and his course as a member of the Legislature.

At the conclusion of Capt. Gary's speech Judge Stuart was presented to the convention by Mr. Marbury.

Judge Stuart, in an eloquent speech, accepted the nomination which had been tendered him. He said that the nomination had come unsolicited and that when he had withdrawn from the canvass two weeks ago he had done so in good faith. He gave an account of his stewardship when a delegate and promised to do in the future, as he had done in the past, all he could to advance the interests of Alexandria.

Mr. A. P. Douglas then took the stand and in a magnificent speech promised to stand by the action of the convention. He said others might do what they chose but he would never falter in his alliance to his party. His speech was warmly received.

Mr. J. E. Clements, on being called for, said yesterday he was for Douglas, but to-day he was for the nominee of the convention. He promised that the county would accept fully on election day and hoped the county delegates would withdraw their names from the paper read in the convention. He made an excellent speech predicting Judge Stuart's election by a large majority. The convention then adjourned.

Miss Fannie French has returned to her home in this city from a visit to friends in West Virginia.

Mr. Lewis McKenzie has returned from a visit to Petersburg—presumably to see Gen. Mahone.

Dr. Albert Fairfax, who has been quite ill at the Infirmary for the past week, was slightly better to-day.

Rev. J. Calvin Stewart, formerly of this city, pastor-elect of the Fourth Presbyterian Church of Richmond, will be installed as pastor of that church to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and cool with two prisoners and two lodgers at the station house.

The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases:

Samuel Bagot, arrested by officers Betti and Brenner, charged with disorderly and indecent conduct, was sent to jail to await an examination as to his sanity.

Wm. Johnson arrested by officer McCuen for being drunk was discharged.

Two small white boys charged with an assault on an old colored man were fined $1 each.

Francis Ludwig, arrested by officer Sherwood for disorderly conduct, was fined $1.

Wm. Campbell, arrested by officer Brenner for disorderly conduct, was fined $1.

A warrant was gotten out for the arrest of Thos. Oden for hitting Geo. Chichester on the cheek.

STREET REPAIRS.—Superintendent Dobie is taking advantage of the fine weather to push the repairs now being done on the streets, and is making good progress. He has recently tapped the sewer at the corner of Henry and Princess streets, which will relieve the latter street of the overflow during heavy rains. He has also put the lane leading to the cemeteries in excellent order, a much needed improvement, and is now engaged in repairing various places on King and Fairfax streets.

COMMITTED TO JAIL.—Mr. Samuel O. Bagot, who for some time past has been in feeble health, both in body and mind, was recently sent to the Infirmary, where he could be properly treated. Last night he became very disagreeable and abusive, and violated all of the rules of the institution. An officer was sent for and he was taken to the station house where he was kept all night, and this morning was committed to jail to await an examination as to his sanity.

CONTRACT AWARDED.—The Committee on Schoolhouses and Furniture of the City School Board to-day awarded the contract for furnishing fuel for the public schools for the year as follows: To Messrs. Hewes & Atchison, for stove coal at $5.34 per ton, and for nut coal at $4.84 per ton; to Mr. C. O. Palmer for sawed and split pine wood at $4.50 per cord. The fuel is to be delivered and stored.

NEW STORE.—Messrs. Ruben & Son have just leased the large store on the northwest corner of King and St. Asaph streets and will in a short time open a cash and installment house for the sale of furniture, carpets and general house furnishing goods. Such establishments have become a necessity in the larger cities and there is every reason to believe that one will be a success here.

ATTEMPTED ROBBERY.—Last night an attempt was made to rob the store of Mr. John Cully on north Fairfax street but the would-be thief was scared off before he succeeded in his undertaking. He had managed to remove the bar from over the door and had broken a glass in the transom when he was heard by a neighbor who drove him off.

TRYING TO OUST SULLY.—The New York Sun says that bankers Fainestock and Banker of the First National Bank and George S. Scott are trying to oust Alfred Sully from the directorate of the various roads controlled by the Richmond Terminal people. His successor would be W. P. Clyde or Wm. Rockefeller.

APPOINTMENT.—Gov. Lee yesterday re-appointed Geo. T. Price fish inspector for Alexandria. As Mr. Price has recently been appointed a letter carrier, he can not fill both positions, and will probably decline to qualify as inspector.

A SITE OFFERED.—A gentleman of the county has authorized the Alexandria Real Estate Investment, Trust and Title Company to offer twenty-five acres of land in Alexandria county as a site on which to erect the proposed Catholic University, and to-day, Mr. M. E. Harlow, for that company, wrote to Bishop Keane tendering the offer.
