Face to Face With an Angel.

"I have read a great deal of late about occurrences of a supernatural character," said a member of the theatrical profession, "but in all my reading I have not seen anything approaching an occurrence that made a great stir in Hancock county, Ohio, thirty years ago. In 1858 I was in that county for a short time. In Orange township there was a family by the name of Charles. William Charles, the head of the family, I think, was a carpenter, and his wife was a most estimable young woman, a member of one of the best families of the county. They had been married six or seven years, and had one child, aged 5. About the middle of August, 1857, Mrs. Charles suddenly became despondent and low spirited. This was all the more commented upon as she was of a notably lively and cheerful disposition. She would give no reason for her sudden change in spirits, always giving to her husband's appeals to be made acquainted with the cause the one simple reply:

"Wait. If there is any real cause you will know in time."
"She was fearful much of the time, and was frequently found in prayer. Her affection for her child, always great and demonstrative, became apparently still greater, but tempered with a spirit of sadness that was affecting to all who came in contact with the family. Mrs. Charles could not bear to let the little one out of her sight, and the strangest part of the circumstance was that the child seemed to know what had made the change in her mother, and was often heard to console her in her childish way, and to tell her not to cry.

"As the middle of October approached, to Mrs. Charles's despondency was added a state of feverish unrest and very apparent suffering under a strain of some great suspense, until, one day, when the month was about half over, she begged her husband not to go to his work that day, but to remain at home with her. He humored her fancy, and between twelve and one o'clock that day their little girl fell to the floor in a most unaccountable state of insensibility. The mother was near, and clasping her hands to her head she exclaimed:

"My God! It is true!"
"Mrs. Charles fell in a faint, and her alarmed husband sent the servant for aid. He placed his unconscious child on a bed and did what he could to revive both her and his wife until several neighbors arrived. A doctor was sent for and Mrs. Charles was soon restored to consciousness, but the child remained in the trance in which it had so suddenly fallen, and never came out of it, dying three days later.

"As soon as Mrs. Charles could gain strength and composure she told a most extraordinary story. She said that at noon one day in the middle of August her little girl was playing in the yard. Her mother happening to look out at her, saw the child gazing earnestly up in the sky, and raise her little hand up as if reaching or greeting something. Mrs. Charles could see nothing, but she went out to where her child was standing as if transfixed, and when she reached her the little one turned to her with a beaming face and glowing eyes and said:

"Oh, mama! It is an angel!"
"Mrs. Charles said a feeling of awe came over her that she could not describe, and she felt that she was in the presence of something that struck her with awe. She could see nothing, and in much alarm took her little girl by the hand to lead her away, but the child resisted, and suddenly there was revealed to the child's mother the form that had been visible to the child even before it reached the earth. That form was exactly like those of angels she had read descriptions of in the Bible and seen pictured there, and she knew that she stood face to face with a messenger from Heaven itself. She felt no fear, but was overwhelmed by awe. The angel spoke to her, and said that her little girl would be called for from heaven in just two months from that day, but that she would lie in a trance for three days when her soul would leave her body. More than that the angel foretold to the awe stricken mother that her own death would follow that of her child by one month, mentioning the day and hour. Then the angel slowly vanished from sight.

"Mrs. Charles said she tried to make her self believe that she was the victim of some hallucination, but could not. Never having been a believer in the orthodox religion, she resolved to keep the secret of the vision, and to impress the necessity of secrecy on her child, if possible, so that it was a hallucination she would not be ridiculed for having spoken of it earnestly. Mrs. Charles's death followed on or about the day she said had been foretold."

"I have been a great sufferer from catarrh for over ten years; had it very bad, could hardly breathe. Some nights I could not sleep—had to walk the floor. I purchased Ely's Cream Balm and am using it freely. It is working a cure surely. I have advised several friends to use it, and with happy results in every case. It is the one medicine above all others made to cure catarrh, and it is worth its weight in gold. I thank God I have found a remedy I can use with safety and that does all that is claimed for it. It is curing my deafness.—[B. W. Sperry, Hartford, Conn.]
