U. S. DISTRICT AND CIRCUIT COURTS—

Judge R. W. Hughes presiding.—The grand jury presented several indictments against persons for violating the banking and postal laws and were discharged.

U. S. vs. Michael Shattlessey, indictment for stealing copper from the Norfolk navy yard; jury and verdict of guilty and judgment suspended.

U. S. vs. W. W. Page, postmaster at Edge Hill, King George county, indictment for robbing the mails; jury and verdict of not guilty and prisoner discharged.

An order was entered allowing Gen. H. H. Wells $2,500 as counsel in the canal case.

Court adjourned till Monday morning next.

THE GAZETTE.—A subscriber from Prince William county in renewing his subscription writes: "Really I ought to pay up and quit; but how could I do without the dear old GAZETTE? I said quit because I am not able to subscribe, for I am in debt."

We hope this may be a more prosperous year for our esteemed subscriber. A gentleman in Montana Territory who writes to subscribe to the GAZETTE says: "My nearest postoffice is forty miles away; money order office seventy five miles distant and one and two dollar bills are unknown here in the mountains."

The GAZETTE will make him forget his loneliness. A Clarke county subscriber in renewing his subscription speaks of the GAZETTE as "a very valuable and interesting paper." That is what we try to make it.

THE OPERA HOUSE.—"Bewitched," said to be a very amusing comedy will be presented by Sol Smith Russell and his excellent company at the Opera House next Tuesday evening.

The plot hinges upon an East Indian amulet, which, when it comes in contact with any person inclines that person to do things the opposite of those he would be likely to do.

In this play Mr. Russell, as Halcion Todd, the awkward embodiment of sanctimony, does his most effective work.

In addition to the play Mr. Russell will introduce his original character impersonations.

A WORK OF ART.—A photograph of the statue ordered by the Monument Committee of Alexandria to be erected in that city in honor of the Confederate dead is on exhibition in one of the windows of The State of Ice.

It will be placed in position May 1st, 1889. Mr. John A. Eder is the artist, and the work has been greatly admired.

The height of the figure is eight feet, and of the entire statue, including base, twelve feet.—Richmond State.

COLONIAL BEACH HOTEL.—Mr. R. T. Lucas, who purchased some time since of Mr. M. Bossart, the lease of the hotel, &c., at Colonial Beach, Va., has disposed of the same, and this summer resort will hereafter be conducted by Mr. J. S. Sharpless and others of Washington, D. C.

It is understood that extensive improvements will be made at the hotel and grounds.

SEVERED HIS TERM.—The term of P. C. Poulson, who was recently sentenced to the penitentiary for forgery, but whose sentence was commuted by Governor Lee to two months' imprisonment in the county jail, will expire on Wednesday next, when he will be released. He will at once proceed to his home, in Fushing, L. I.

PERSONAL.—Mr. R. M. Lawson is visiting friends in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Strauss are visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Lesterman, at Charlottesville.

Rev. J. C. Stewart, of Richmond, was in the city to-day.

Y. M. C. A.—The topic of "Personal Purity" will be discussed in the Association parlors to-morrow evening at 4 p. m.

The monthly association meeting occurs on Monday at the Y. M. C. A., when business of importance will come up.

PROPERTY SALE.—Mr. O. F. Carter has purchased from Miss Eliza Miller the lot and brick residence on the west side of Washington street, between Duke and Wolfe, for $3,500.

BUILDING ASSOCIATION.—A meeting will be held at Concordia Hall on Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock to organize a new building Association.—Mechanics No. 3.

The Perfection Of the age in the medical line is the liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, manufactured only by the California Fig Syrup Company, San Francisco, California.

It is agreeable to the taste, acceptable to the stomach, harmless in its nature, painless yet prompt and thorough in its action. For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Co.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to Samuel F. Skillman and Ella Ridiger, of Loudoun county.

The horse market is very dull in Washington and the opinion prevails that prices will continue low for some time as there are a great many horses for sale.

Robert Graves, a colored man, of Louisa county, was swindled out of $48 at the Baltimore and Ohio depot in Washington yesterday by two confidence men.

The police report last night as being clear and cold with three lodgers and one prisoner at the station house. The only case before the Mayor this morning was that of Jane Middleton, colored, for disorderly conduct. She was sent to the work house.

The shouting of a crowd of boys caused another false alarm of fire about 9 o'clock last night which brought out the fire department. The hose carriage of the Hydrant company broke down while being drawn along the street.

A hog belonging to Mary Johnson, on south Fairfax street, was stolen from her pen a few nights since.

The remains of the late Mrs. W. E. Jenkins were brought here from Richmond to day and interred.

Mrs. Sarah E. Wilkins, wife of Mr. Jno. H. Wilkins, died at her home on Wilkes street this morning.

The ferry steamer City of Washington was launched from the ways at the ship yard to-day.

An adjourned meeting of the 22d of February parade committee will be held to-night.

GAS CONSUMERS are paying up very slowly. In regard to discount the law will be enforced. The clerk will be at his office, Nos 3 and 5 Market building, dinner hour included, from 8:30 a. m. until 4 p. m. from now till the 15th instant, to receive money for gas bills.

THE REV. GEO. H. THAYER, of Bourbon, Ind., says: "Both myself and wife owe our lives to SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE." Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Co.

I WAS troubled with chronic catarrh and gathering in my head; was very deaf at times, had discharges from my ears, and was unable to breathe through my nose. Before the second bottle of Ely's Cream Balm was exhausted I was cured, and to-day enjoy good health.—(C. J. Corbin, Field Manager, Philadelphia Publishing House, Pa.)

I am on my second bottle of Ely's Cream Balm, being a sufferer from catarrh since I was a child, but with this medicine I am being cured.—(Wm. L. Dayton, Brooklyn.)

WHY WILL YOU cough when Shiloh's Cure will give immediate relief. Price 10 cts., 50 cts., and $1. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Co.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS. Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP, for children teething, is the prescription of one of the best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and has been used for forty years with never-failing success by millions of mothers for their children.

During the process of teething the child is liable to be troubled with colic, griping in the bowels and wind-colic. By giving health to the child it rests the mother. Price 25 cents a bottle.
