FRIDAY EVENING FEBRUARY 8

COMMUNICATED
A Pleasant Party.
MARSHALL, Feb. 7th, 1889—On Tuesday night last Mr. Samuel P. Triplett, living near here, gave a very pleasant and enjoyable party, the occasion being the 21st birthday of his charming daughter Fannie, who, with the aid of her half sister, Miss Sallie Richards, dispensed the honors of the evening. At 7 o'clock the large company sat down to an elegant supper which was heartily enjoyed. Miss Fannie was the recipient of much attention from her circle of friends assembled, numbering some thirty ladies and gentlemen. At 8 the happy crowd were soon whirling away to the mazes of Terpsichore, to the inspiring strains of excellent music most capitally rendered on violins by Messrs Marshall, Finch, John P. Chinn, James F. Crupper and Chas. B. Triplett. Mr. Samuel P. Triplett contributed in no small degree toward making his guests feel at home, in every way possible. The youth and beauty of Culpeper, Loudoun and Fauquier were well represented, and at early dawn all separated for their homes, carrying with them pleasant recollections of this most delightful occasion, and vowing it a success.
