

ALEXANDRIA. FRIDAY EVENING, SEPTEMBER 13.

Scient to induce her to change that status and settle her debt upon honorable and satisfactory terms.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 13, 1889. Representative Browne, of Virginia, is in the city to-day, but will leave for his home in Accomack county, this evening. He called at the White House this morning to see what the President's intentions were respecting the invitation he received some time ago to attend the Fredericksburg agricultural fair. Mr. Harrison told him he could not reply definitely to day, but would send him an answer by mail. In reply to a question about republican unity in his district, Mr. Browne said the full republican vote would be polled there, that he knew of but one kicker in the district, and that that one was keeping quiet.

The package of GAZETTES that was put in the Alexandria postoffice at 6:45 o'clock yesterday evening, was distributed to subscribers here at half past twelve o'clock to-day. Six miles in eighteen hours is rather slow nowadays. There was better service in old stage times.

The following changes in the 4th class postoffices of Virginia were made to-day: Glenora, Spottsylvania county, Lucy M. Stover appointed postmaster, vice Lucy M. Stover removed; Mace's Spring, Scott county, Squire E. Barker, vice Edward S. Smith resigned.

People from North Carolina here to-day say the republicans of Congressman Browne's district have "shook" him and declare their intention of nominating young Mr. Lett for his seat, and that Mr. Browne is meditating revenge.

An Alexandria republican here to-day says that though the representatives of the "kickers" of that city were invited to meet with those of General Mahone's followers last night in conference on the subject of selecting a chairman for the republican committee of their city, none of them attended, but that Mr. Corbett sent a message to the effect that he was detained by business, but that he would waive his claims to the chairmanship, and be satisfied with any republican who might be chosen. A letter was read from General Mahone directing that if Corbett persisted in having things his own way the committee go on and organize without him. The conference determined that Mr. Dearborn should retain the chairmanship. Mr. D. A. Windsor resigned his membership of the city committee, and Mr. Corbett was appointed in his stead, and made chairman of the Third Ward committee. It was stated at the one-sided conference that Mr. Agnew had said the party would go on and organize, and that if General Mahone had elected the Mahone faction would doubtless get all the remaining federal offices in the State, but if defeated, they would all be given to those republicans who do not endorse the General's methods.

Secretary Noble of the Interior Department had Corporal Tanner removed from the office of Commissioner of Pensions for the reason that he was too liberal to the soldiers. The corporal's democratic predecessor, Col. Black, spent two hundred of the three hundred working days of the year in addressing G. A. R. posts throughout the North, but Secretary Noble's democratic predecessor, Judge Lamar, never objected. Secretary Noble was a Union, Secretary Lamar, a Confederate soldier. The refusal of the President to appoint a single southern man a member of his cabinet was another "blessing in disguise," for no matter what an ex-Confederate, as Secretary of the Interior, would have thought of Tanner's "liberality to the boys," it is hardly possible he would have deemed it his duty to resort to such a summary way of stopping that "liberality."

The Valley Virginian, republican, says: "Of course there are many political dead beats who wait upon his (General Mahone's) beck and call to receive his kicks and cuff with a servile smile, and cravenly do his bidding. There is an excuse for them, in that they cannot help themselves. They have their political being in, through and by him, and were they to drift from him, they would go out of sight and out of mind. They will go down with him in November, and that will be the last of them politically."

TANNER is an ignorant and foolish man, as well fitted for the place of commissioner of pensions as for that of Chief Justice of the United States. He has sense enough, however, to obey orders, and naturally thought he was winning praise instead of censure by carrying out the President's instructions "to be liberal to the boys." Mr. Harrison, and not poor Tanner, is responsible for what Tanner did, and had it not been for the row kicked up by the money kings of the North at the squandering of the Treasury surplus, Tanner would still be rearing pensions at his own sweet will.

THE BALTIMORE American, on the subject of the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, says: "Nor does there appear to be any advantage in having a receiver appointed, beyond the chance that those who hold the repair bonds will then insist upon their rights and have the canal sold to the highest bidder." On the contrary, there would be a great advantage in having a receiver appointed, provided, of course, that the one selected be the proper sort of man, Mr. Mertens, for instance, who would guarantee to put, and keep, the canal in navigable order on the money received from its rents and tolls.

IT NOW appears that the chief cause of the increased democratic majority in the Louisiana congressional district in which an election was recently held, was the fact that Mr. Minor, the republican candidate, who is a native southerner of reputable associations, would not put himself upon an equality with the negroes and white bummers who compose nearly all the strength of the republican party in the district, and that out of revenge therefore, many of them either refused to vote at all or else voted for his successful democratic opponent.

NEWS OF THE DAY.

The President will go to Deer Park to-morrow to remain until the first of October. It is reported Mr. Tanner will be made recorder of deeds of the District of Columbia.

Thomas A. Edison, the inventor, gave ten thousand francs to the poor of the city of Paris.

The complaint is made that the Delaware Breakwater is an insufficient refuge in stormy weather.

One hundred and fifty Mormons arrived at New York yesterday from Europe and proceeded to Utah.

Dr. Fricke, who accompanied General Gordon to Khartoum, says Gordon was stabbed by his own soldiers while inspecting them.

The latest information from Elizabeth City, N. C., does not confirm the rumor of destruction of the Naghead Hotel and loss of life by the storm.

The amount of water passing over Niagara Falls varies with the height of the river. Prof. W. D. Gunning estimates the average amount at 18,000,000 cubic feet per minute. Allowing sixty-two and a half pounds to the cubic foot, this would give a total of 562,500 tons per minute.

Prof. Angelo Hellprin, of the Academy of Natural Science, said yesterday: "The Atlantic Ocean may some day bury the whole of South Jersey and come clear up to Philadelphia. The whole coast of New Jersey is slowly sinking," said he, "and as the State originally formed part of the bottom of the sea, it is reasonable to think that it may sometime resume its old position."

A big gray horse became frightened in New York city yesterday afternoon, and after galloping madly along Delancey street for four blocks eventually came to a full stop in a bedroom back of Meyer Hauptmann's grocery, corner of Attorney street. The horse knocked a young woman down, played and havoc in the grocery and almost frightened the life out of Hauptmann, who was in bed when the horse came in.

The grand jury at Huntsville, Ark., has indicted Rev. M. G. P. Nickens for murder in the first degree. The victim was a Baptist preacher named Jaid Carnutt, aged about sixty years. Carnutt told throughout the neighborhood that Nickens had criminally assaulted his own daughter, and Nickens had Carnutt arrested for slander. Shortly afterwards Carnutt's dead body was found half a mile from Nickens's house. Suspicion pointed to Nickens as the assassin and he was arrested.

The sham battle representing the fight at North Point in 1814 took place yesterday at Pimlico, Baltimore, and was a success notwithstanding the rain and mud. The labor parade in the morning, the post office dedication at night, and then the ball later on were also carried out. Vice President Morton and Governor Biggs and Jackson were present at Pimlico, and Postmaster-General Wainmaker was at the dedication. The military and naval review occurred at Pimlico this morning and the bombardment in the river this evening.

Thomas H. Gordon has been appointed postmaster at Newport News.

Dr. J. C. Williams, of Richmond, died yesterday, in the 65th year of his age.

Judge Robert H. Turner, of Front Royal, recently sustained a slight stroke of paralysis.

Hon. Allen G. Thurman left the Hot Springs yesterday on his return to Ohio. He is much improved by his visit.

It is said that Mr. and Mrs. Chanler will return to Castle Hill early next spring, and that Mrs. C. will resume her literary work.

In the case of the Commonwealth vs. Trussell, for seduction, tried in Leesburg on Wednesday, the jury failed to agree. This is the second hung jury in this case.

Since the establishment of the tannery at Luray, DeFord & Co. have paid out for bark and labor over $2,000,000, nearly half as much as the taxable value of all the property in Page county.

In the Circuit Court of Caroline yesterday in the trial of Dolly Long, a white woman, against Mr. Charles E. Beasley, a very wealthy man of that county, the charge being assault, the jury gave the plaintiff $750.

The exodus of ministers from Virginia is still going on. Rev. Robt. White is going to Georgia and Rev. Walter P. Graves to Maryland, and Rev. Charles Gauss, after serving for one year in Tazewell county, has gone to Baltimore.

The board of education has made the apportionment of the funds derived from the State for the approaching session of the public schools of Virginia. The rate is thirty-two cents per capita of school population. The whole amount is $195,318.72, an increase of about one cent per head, or $6,108.01 over last year. By this appropriation Alexandria city will receive $1,550.72, Alexandria county 466.56.

The corn crop in Fauquier is fine, especially in the upper part of the county, where it is thought to be better than it has been for years. The cattle are also unusually fine owing to the great abundance of grass. The raising of beef cattle has been to a large extent superceded by the raising of milk cows since the introduction of numerous creameries in the county and the great diminution in the price of beef cattle.

THE ELECTRIC LIGHT.—In answer to the article in yesterday's GAZETTE concerning the Schuyler Electric Company, the Committee on Light would state that Mr. McKenzie, the chairman, signed no paper, nor did the committee authorize him to do so. Mr. Cox, the agent, signed a paper for the electric company that they would run the plant according to the contract, for 60 days, and would pay the expenses for doing so; nor did the committee agree to refund the cost of doing so, but would refer it to the City Council to decide, when the experiment was made. A copy of Mr. Cox's statement would have been published to-day but the clerk of committee is out of town. The intended salary of engineer and fireman was fixed at $60 and $40 per month, but no selection was made, nor will be for some time yet. Nor is the Gas Company's cost being used by the electric company. It may be as well, perhaps, that the City Council change the Committee on Gas, there seems to be such quibbling on the part of some people who wish to make a fuss.

COMMITTEE ON GAS, L. MCKENZIE, Chairman.

HAVING understood that the Schuyler Electric Light Company would commence operations last night, in company with several friends I visited the works and there saw an illumination by electric light that would please the strongest opponents of this company. The lights were steady and brilliant, and a member of the City Council, who was there—and I think he is one of the opponents—remarked that he saw no reason for complaint by any one. Weather permitting in a few days we will leap from darkness into light.

ONE OPPOSED TO COX.

POSTSCRIPT.

ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES.

Vessels Ashore. NORFOLK, Sept. 13.—The steamer which went ashore last evening near Cape Henry proves to be the Godfrey, iron ore laden, from St. Jago, Cuba, to Baltimore. The vessel rests easily half a mile from shore, and is in good condition. All well aboard. She will probably be floated without trouble. The wrecking steamer is abreast of the Godfrey.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 13.—The German ship Geestermunde, from Stettin for Philadelphia, is aground on Absecon beach. The crew will be rescued, but the vessel it is thought will prove a total loss.

LEWES, Del., Sept. 13.—A Norwegian bark is sunk on Five Fathom bank. The crew were saved by a steamer. The steamer Old Dominion picked up, dismasted, off the Capes, a new American three masted schooner bound to Baltimore with a cargo of ice, and towed her into the breakwater last night.

Race War Feared. CAIRO, Ills., Sept. 13.—There are symptoms of a race war in Missouri, at Dexter, 42 miles from here. The people in that section have for years excluded all negroes from among them. A short time ago a man named Williams settled on a farm near there and engaged a dozen negroes to work for him. Fifty armed white men waited on him this week and told him he must get rid of the negroes. He said they might kill him first. The armed men returned to town, where they circulated a paper pledging the signers to stand by the regulators. About fifty men side with Williams, among them a hardware merchant, who has imported Winchester and ammunition sufficient to arm his side. Further trouble is expected.

Assassination of a Millionaire. NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—F. W. Gesswein, the millionaire tool manufacturer of Brooklyn, was shot and killed this morning by Christian Deyhle, an old man with whom Mr. Gesswein had had some trouble recently over a patent suit. Deyhle requested a private interview with Mr. Gesswein, and while in an adjoining office with him demanded $500 from Mr. Gesswein. Upon Mr. Gesswein refusing to give him the money, Deyhle drew a revolver from his pocket and fired one shot which passed through Gesswein's heart, causing the latter's death in a few moments. The murderer was arrested and locked up.

Funeral of the Late S. S. Cox. NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—Long before 10 o'clock this morning, the hour set for the funeral of the late Samuel Sullivan Cox, the First Presbyterian Church, corner of Fifth Avenue and 12th street, was filled and it was necessary to close the doors, leaving many people outside on the sidewalk. The floral tributes were unusually magnificent, covering the entire length of the altar with fragrance and beauty, and concealing the choir and transept. At 10:30 a. m. the funeral cortege arrived. In the line were Grover Cleveland, Vice President Morton, and other prominent persons.

A Murderous Tramp. SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Sept. 13.—John Davis appeared at the residence of Andy Savage, at Stratford, Wednesday morning, and on being refused lodging fired five shots, one of which killed Miss Savage instantly. Davis was captured and at his preliminary examination yesterday the father of the murdered woman attempted to kill him. The prisoner was then placed in a wagon and started for the city. They should have arrived at 6 p. m., but had not reached here at midnight. It is believed that Davis has been lynched.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 13.—The Times-Democrat Greenwood, Miss., special says: "As Louis Mortimer, the negro who was captured in Clarkedale, was being taken to Bat Ose to stand his trial for being accessory to the murder of Elder Puckett, who was killed by George Allen and his gang last Sunday night, for refusing to join them, and when about half a mile above Shell Mound, a mob of armed men rode up and overpowered the guard, took the prisoner and hanged him to a tree."

Row at a Religious Festival. SIMLA, Sept. 13.—During the celebration of a religious festival at Rohtak the Mussulmans and Hindoos became involved in religious disputes which led to rioting. The police were compelled to interfere to stop the fighting, but before they succeeded many of the rioters were shot by the officers. The Mussulmans at Delhi, 42 miles northwest of Rohtak, are organizing to avenge the insult put upon them by the Hindoos.

Collision. BROCKVILLE, Ont., Sept. 13.—The steamer Rothesay, of Kingston, and the tug Moira, of Ogdensburg, N. Y., collided between here and Maitland last night. Three lives were lost. The Moira sunk immediately. The Rothesay had an excursion party on board and was beached. The tug was valued at $10,000; the Rothesay at $40,000.

Arrived Safely. NEWPORT, R. I., Sept. 13.—The U. S. steamer Atlanta arrived here this morning from New York. She suffered no damage from the storm.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—The City of Columbia, from Havana, about which there has been considerable anxiety, arrived this morning four days overdue.

The Cronin Murder. CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—It is said that positive evidence has been adduced to prove that Dan Coughlin, Martin Burke, Patrick Cooney and Patrick O'Sullivan were in the Carlson cottage on the night of May 31, till 1 o'clock in the morning of May 4, the day of the murder of Dr. Cronin.

Fatal Effects of a Practical Joke.

TROY, N. Y., Sept. 13.—John Gordon, in employ of the Lake George paper and pulp company, at Ticonderoga, fell asleep near the machinery. Two fellow workmen it is said, planned to scare him. They tied a rope about his feet and threw it over a shaft making 125 revolutions a minute. They could not cut the rope in time and Gordon was killed, the body being horribly mutilated. One of the perpetrators of the joke lost his reason from the shock.

The Prevailing Storm.

NEW YORK, Sept. 13.—The signal officer says this morning that there will be no let up in the storm for the next 24 hours. The storm is still central off the coast of Virginia. The wind has diminished to the south of New York but still remains high along the coast.

ONANCOCK, Va., Sept. 13.—The late storm played havoc on the Eastern Shore. Bridges were washed away, telegraph wires blown down, the lowlands inundated and crops ruined. The steamer Maggie was blown ashore Tuesday in Chesconnetux creek and has not yet been gotten off.

Sir Edwin Arnold.

Sir Edwin Arnold, author of "Light of Asia" and chief editor of the London Telegraph, with his daughter, was in Washington yesterday and called on the President. In conversation with a friend in Washington yesterday Sir Edwin related the following incident: "Lady Arnold and myself were traveling to London, and the train was greatly crowded. My party was at a great inconvenience for room. We were permitted to enter the compartment occupied by a lady. She was kind to give us room and I exerted myself to see that her seat was not taken in the rush, and when we reached Waterloo the lady asked Lady Arnold who I was who had been so attentive. Lady Arnold told her, expressing pleasure that I could have been of any service to her, and in turn asked her name. She was a daughter of Gen. Robert E. Lee. Now that meeting gave me great pleasure. I was not in sympathy with his cause, but General Lee was a remarkable man, a great general, and it was a great pleasure to meet his daughter."

Effects of the Storm.

While the damages by the storm to property at seaside resorts near New York city and along the coast of New Jersey have been considerable, the chief disasters have occurred to shipping in the vicinity of the Delaware Breakwater. It is thought that this storm has given Coney Island a shock from which it will not recover its prestige as a resort. At Long Branch and vicinity, the ocean has crumpled the bluffs, while lower down it has spread over the meadows. Of the resorts between Atlantic City and Cape May, Sea Isle City has been the most roughly handled. Cape May has escaped with but little loss. The total loss of property along the New Jersey coast, including the losses of the railroad, will amount to about $2,000,000.

The telegraph wires between Norfolk and Cape Henry are again up, and no disasters are reported along that section of the coast. No news has as yet been received from Hatteras, the wires being still down, but it is thought that there have been no serious mishaps to vessels in that vicinity.

MASONIC.—A Richmond correspondent of the Petersburg Appeal writes: "I predict that there will not be more than one 'Triennial' after this one at Washington. The grand encampment may continue to meet as usual to transact business, but without fuss and feathers. The national body—the grand encampment—has never been popular with the Templar 'dignitaries' of Virginia, and the Virginia grand commandery was allowed itself to be forced in simply because it was unwilling to be cut off from the rest of the Templar world. The Grand Royal Arch Chapter of Virginia held out never to join the general grand chapter of the United States. Texas followed Virginia's example. The general grand chapter, like the grand encampment, is triennial. It meets in November next in Atlanta."

CONVULSIONS OF NATURE.—A dispatch from Mammoth Hot Springs, Yellowstone Park, dated the 11th says: "During the past twenty four hours there have been great convulsions of nature, and subterranean explosions of gas and steam in the upper geyser basin. As a result all the system is in active outbreak, the large geyser being especially demonstrative. The Giant and Giantess are in furious activity, as are many others which have long lain dormant and were supposed to have been extinct. Scientists explain that all of this phenomenal outburst is directly traceable to and connected with the atmospheric and submarine demonstrations of the great storm that prevailed along the Atlantic coast on Tuesday."

A PASTORAL LETTER FROM THE CARDINAL.—A pastoral letter from Cardinal Gibbons calling attention to an allocution of Pope Leo will be read in all the Catholic churches of the archdiocese next Sunday. The pastoral letter refers in severe terms to the unveiling of a monument in Rome recently to Bruno, an apostate monk of three centuries ago. The Cardinal describes Bruno as a wild theorist, a shameless writer and a denier of the divinity of Christ, with many other forcible sentences.
