

LOCAL NEWS.

THURSDAY EVENING, JANUARY 23

For this section light snow or rain slightly warmer, southerly winds.

HUSBAND AND MONEY GONE—About two years ago a young man named Frederick L. Pitt, of Washington, married Miss Mary E. Kersting, of Fairfax county, near Ivy Hill Cemetery, and has since been living with his wife's family. Early yesterday morning Pitt left home, kissing his wife good-bye, and telling her that he was coming to the city to make some purchases and requesting her to get her brother, Mr. Charles Kersting, who delivers milk in the city every morning, to bring the bundle when he came home. When Mr. K. returned to town he did not see or hear anything of Pitt and at the time he called he was told no bundles had been left for him. When he returned home, he informed his sister of the disappearance of her husband and told her to look and see if her money was all right, which suggestion she at first treated lightly, but went to her room and opening a drawer where she had put over $300, which she had saved during the past few years, found that the money had been taken. This accounted for Pitt's disappearance and it is believed that he took the 7:05 local train from this city for Washington and left for parts unknown, leaving his wife and one child behind. But it is supposed by some that Pitt availed himself of this opportunity to take a pleasure trip to Germany, where his mother and sister are living.

FIRE.—The old two story brick ware house, on the south side of Prince street, one door east of Union, owned by Messrs Harlow Bros., and occupied by them as a storehouse for empty boxes, barrels, etc., was gutted by fire last night. The fire, which is supposed to have been of incendiary origin, was discovered about 9:40 o'clock, but owing to the inflammability of the contents of the building and the difficulty the firemen had in effecting an entrance to the house, it was after midnight before the flames were subdued, though they were confined to the one building—those on either side, being protected by fire walls, sustaining hardly any damage. The building was insured for $1,000 in the Connecticut company, and its contents (including a quantity of old building material belonging to Mr. M. B. Harlow) for $500 in the Mount Vernon company, of this city, of both of which Mr. A. A. Warfield is the agent in this city. The loss is covered by insurance. In the absence of Fire Chief Creighton, the fire wardens deputized ex-Chief Leadbeater to assume charge of the fire department.

AN OLD OBSTRUCTION.—A government steamer is cruising in the vicinity of Kedges straits for the purpose of locating and removing the boiler of the old steamer Express. For 12 years this boiler has been rolling around the bottom of Chesapeake bay, near Solomon light. It is now on a shoal in a position dangerous to navigation, and has been struck by the steamer Eastern Shore and Tangle. The Express foundered in a cyclone after midnight between No Point and Barren Island, on October 23, 1878. The upper works were swept away and the steamer overturned. The boiler then fell out. About fifteen lives were lost, and Captain James T. Barker was rescued after clinging to a plank seven hours. During the war the Express was government transport and afterwards plied between this city and Baltimore.

RELEASED ON BAIL.—The suit of Shipman vs. Fletcher, pending in the Circuit Court of Fairfax, was by agreement argued in Leesburg before Judge Keith on Tuesday by Messrs H. O. Claughton, Col. Robert Christie and Judge Westel Willoughby, of Washington city, and Messrs. E. L. Burke and A. W. Armstrong, of this city. On his way back from Leesburg to Washington that evening Mr. J. J. Shipman was arrested by a constable, who boarded the train at Herndon, on a warrant sworn out by Mr. J. M. Magarity, and carried to West Falls Church, where he was taken before a magistrate on the charge of forgery. Mr. Shipman was released on bail, Major O. E. Hine becoming his surety. The warrant charges Mr. Shipman with falsifying pay rolls in 1879, when he and Mr. Fletcher were partners, and is the outcome of the bitter litigation which has been going on between the two for a long time past.

A NEW LODGE K. of P.—A meeting to organize a lodge of Knights of Pythias was held at Pythian Hall, on north Pitt street, last night, and was called to order by J. T. Herbert. Mr. J. C. DePatron was selected as permanent chairman, and J. T. Herbert as secretary. Fifty-five persons signified their intention of joining the lodge. A dispensation was applied for, and the following were elected officers: Past Chancellor, J. C. DePatron; Chancellor, Commander, A. D. Deaton; Vice Chancellor, J. T. Herbert; Prelate, Chas. N. Steele; Master at Arms, Wm. T. Rogers; Master of Finance, J. S. Wimsatt; Master of Excise, Daniel E. Webster; Keeper of Records and Seals, H. M. Folz.

EGGS.—Owing to the mild winter the hens have kept up a continuous laying and consequently eggs have been cheaper this winter than any for a long time past. Eggs are quoted in Baltimore, Washington and this city at 14 cents per dozen wholesale, while for the past week they have been selling at retail in the market here, and at the green grocery stands at from 16 to 18 cents.

OPERA HOUSE.—To-night Miss Adele Frost and her select company will appear here in Ingomar. Miss Frost assumes the character of Parthenia in Ingomar, and it is said that her triumph is complete. Mr. Bennett Matlack, who is well known here, will take the character of Ingomar. Mr. Matlack is far above the average actor, and as a general thing the audience grow fairly wild with enthusiasm over his work. No one should fail to see him to-night.

FIRE IN FAUCQUIER.—Judge Norton was summoned yesterday by Fauquier by a telegram which stated that "Morven," the residence of his uncle, Mr. J. K. Marshall, was burning and would probably be entirely consumed. Later news is to the effect that the main building was uninjured and two out-buildings only were destroyed. The fire was the work of incendiaries.

INJURED.—J. T. Ashby, a brakeman on the Midland train, had one of his hands badly mashed while he was coupling cars near Springfield on Tuesday, and on the same day another brakeman named J. H. Boyd was thrown from the top of a box car at Culpeper and quite badly bruised. Both men were brought to this city where they were attended by Dr. O'Brien.

Messrs. Pretzfelder & Co., announce in another column that they have a large stock of winter dry goods on hand which must be gotten rid of to make room for their spring stock. Blankets, furs, underwear, etc. are offered at astonishingly low prices—some at below cost.

SECRETARY RUSK AND THE ARLINGTON RESERVATION.—In reference to the statement that Secretary Rusk is going to ask Secretary Proctor permission to use an experimental garden about 400 acres of the Arlington reservation, Mr. Rusk said yesterday: "Secretary Proctor and I have fixed that long ago. We rode a lover that place last October and I picked out a patch of about 300 acres on the south side of the road; that's about all the good farming land that is there. If you'll look at my estimates now before the appropriation committee you'll find that I have asked for $25,000 for preparing the land for our purpose. There hasn't been any formal assignment of land yet, but there will no as soon as we are ready for it." Being asked if he would consent to the removal of any of the negro quarters now on the reservation he said: "No, sir; my plan doesn't touch the village nor any of the ground which is tenanted. Quite a number of Virginia people have been in Washington urging me to assist in a general clearance of the colored people. Wonder what they're so anxious about? Is the majority pretty close in Alexandria county? Ain't going to disturb a living soul. No; I don't think it risky to establish experimental gardens so close to Jackson City. I don't propose to raise watermelons."

PERSONAL.—The family of Mr. Eskin, of Pohick, Fairfax county, have recently moved to Fort Payne, Ala., where a number of other Fairfaxans had preceded them. Dr. E. more A. Adams, who was well known in this city, died in Washington yesterday.

Mr. L. W. Corbett and Miss Rosa Powell were married at St. Mary's Church last night. Misses Mamie Muse and May Willis, of Winchester, are visiting Mrs. Martha B. Carlin, on Duke street.

Mr. M. P. Vincent, who has been quite sick for some time past, expects soon to be out again.

Cards are out for the marriage of Mr. Robert W. Wheat to Miss Florence Smoot, second daughter of Mrs. Laura Smoot.

Representative Lee is again sick, and was unable to attend yesterday's session of the House.

Mr. H. H. Young, Clerk of the County Court, is suffering with influenza and will not be able to be at his office to-morrow.

DEATH OF CASSIUS F. LEE, SR.—Mr. C. F. Lee, sr., died this morning at 11:30 after a short illness, at his home on Cameron street. Mr. Lee had been for the larger part of the century a prominent citizen of Alexandria, engaged in business pursuits for many years, and was closely identified up to the close of his life with the interests of the Theological Seminary, of which he was treasurer. He was a grandson of the celebrated revolutionary statesman, Richard Henry Lee and first cousin of the late Gen. R. E. Lee. His character was marked by great energy and his long labors in behalf of the Seminary entitled him to the name Bishop Johnson said should be inscribed on his tombstone, "The Seminary Friend." He leaves a wide circle of relatives and friends to cherish his memory.

Mrs. LEE'S RECEPTION.—The Washington Star says: "One of the largest receptions held during the social season was that of Mrs. W. H. F. Lee at the Eblit House Tuesday afternoon from 2 to 6 o'clock. Fully 1,500 people attended it. Often during its progress there was a blockade of carriages in front of the hotel extending to the corner of Fourteenth street. The reception was held in what is known as the red parlor, a lengthy saloon apartment. Its floral decorations were very fine and very artistically arranged, while there were palms and other plants in tubs in the adjacent halls. A band played exquisite music. Mrs. Lee was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Joseph E. Washington, her daughter, and Miss Kemp, of Virginia.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was cold and clear till 3 o'clock, when it became cloudy. There were nine lodgers and one prisoner at the station house. The mayor this morning disposed of the following cases: A young man, arrested by Officer McCuen for abusive language, was fined $1.50. Andrew Jackson, a colored boy, arrested for throwing stones in the street, was fined $1. Three young men, arrested for disorderly conduct, were fined $1.50 each. Sheriff H. H. Russell, of Loudoun, with Wm. Fin, colored, sentenced to five years' imprisonment in the penitentiary for burglary, lodged his prisoner at the station house last night and to-day took him to Richmond.

MEMORIAL VOLUME.—We have received from the author, Rev. Philip Slaughter, D. D., the historiographer of the Episcopal Diocese of Virginia, a memorial of the Rev. George Archibald Smith, A. M., of this city. The neat little volume contains a most interesting biography of the deceased, written in Dr. Slaughter's beautiful and inimitable style, together with the tributes paid to the memory of Mr. Smith by the ministers who are and have been rectors of the churches in this city. To the professors, alumni and students of the Episcopal Seminary of Virginia the beautiful tribute to the memory of the eldest son of that institution is lovingly inscribed by the author.

SNOW.—For the first time this winter the ground was covered with snow this morning. The snow commenced falling about 9:30 o'clock but soon ceased, and the temperature became mild.

Sight Restored. Mr. A. K. Hawkes: Dear Sir—About one year ago my sight began to fail, with the usual symptoms, viz: after reading for a short time my eyes became confused and there seemed to be a dimness before them, also accompanied with pains in the eye ball. Being satisfied that glasses were imperative, I demanded, applied to you for them, and, I am happy to say, with wonderful result, after having worn your crystalized lenses for a short time my eyes regained their accustomed strength, and I can now read the finest print for hours with perfect ease without glasses.
