WEDDING.—The marriage of Mr. Samuel Fischer, of Washington, and Miss Clara Schwarz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. Schwarz, took place at the Synagogue yesterday evening. The Synagogue was prettily decorated with flowers for the occasion and during the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Dr. Stern, the bride party stood beneath a beautiful floral bed composed of white roses. After the ceremony a magnificent wedding dinner was served at the Old Fellows' Hall, Mr. G. A. Appich being the caterer. Here with held the board for some hours during which toasts were proposed and speeches made. At 8 o'clock a reception was held in the lodge room of the hall, where the bride and groom were the recipients of the congratulations of the large gathering, including many from outside the city. Later dancing was begun on the first floor of the building and was kept up till a late hour. At intervals delightful refreshments were served by Mr. H. Brengle and wine flowed like water, the pop of the corks being incessant. During the evening addresses were made by Messrs. Chas. Bendheim, Max Fischer, Harry D. Young and others. The first toast of the evening was given by Mr. Isaac Schwarz, formerly of this city, but now of New York, humorously responded to the toast, the S. O.
