THE CANTATA OF REBECCA last night at the Opera House scored a pronounced success. The house was well filled by an appreciative and sympathetic audience, and the interest never flagged from the first note of the curtain until it fell upon the last scene. The costumes of the young ladies on the stage were handsome, appropriate and very becoming. Indeed they looked absolutely perfect, and Isaac may be excused if he seemed somewhat dazed when that beauty flitted upon him, and apparently in making choice of a wife from so many suitors. Even the reporter found fault with the acting, and he felt sure the time of occurrence, and in that immediate vicinity, and he feels sure the gentlemen in the audience will pardon him. The talented and brilliant director, Miss Virginia Evans, secured a very cordial reception of her appearance. She was beautifully dressed in cream satin and silk gauze, shot with gold, and brilliant ornaments. Miss Evans deserved and received unqualified praise for the able manner in which she produced the most happy effects both of voice and action. Miss Myra Cavalier, in the title role, did some good work. Her manner is pleasing, phrasing good, and some of her notes clear and sweet. She is richly and beautifully costumed, while her petite and graceful form made quite a charming Jewish maiden, which Isaac seemed nothing loath in appreciating. She was heartily cheered. Mr. Geo. H. Evans, as Abraham, looked every inch the grand old patriarch. His resonant baritone has good carrying power, and in his solo "Let us bow before the Lord," the notes were round and sweet, filling the auditorium, to the manifest delight of the audience. In action he was easy, dignified, and in recitative "Go thou therefore," got an encore, and his solo, "I come to Thee," was well rendered and impressive, receiving deserved applause. Mr. Frank Field, as Isaac, did well. His sweet tenor was a pleasant foil to the soprano of Rebecca and the baritone of Abraham. His work in the last scene was particularly pleasing. Mr. George Terry, as Eliezer, sang with spirit. His enunciation is clear and distinct. His recitative, "O Lord, my master," was well delivered and received an encore. Miss He Buggist, as Abba, showed her sweet soprano to advantage, while Miss E. Chapman's rich contralto, in the character of Dinah, was well received. Mr. J. T. Peyton sang Solo acceptably well. His solo "Oar on the waveless sea," was given an encore. Mr. Moore's Bethuel was ably sustained, and his deep rich bass in the solo "Beloved daughter," brought down the house and an encore. Mr. Greenaway as Laban showed material for a good actor, and his "Come in and rest with me" was really good. The chorus sang compactly and with spirit and force. There are many good voices among them which need only the occasion to bring them to the front. Alexandria has reason to be proud of her musical talent. The scene on the desert and singing of the herdsmen and guards was exceedingly beautiful and sweet. The grouping at Nahor's well was very pretty, graceful and effective. Farewell to Rebecca by the Jewish maidens and the invocation for her safety (all kneeling) was tonally impressive. The barqueting hall was a brilliant scene. In fact, the performance was replete with beautiful pictures. The present improved condition of the Infirmary owes much to the efforts of Miss Evans and to the efforts of Mrs. Baldwin, Mrs. De Elroy and Mrs. Dr. Fawcett, who have devoted their time and energies to perfecting many of the details incident to the proper production of a work of this character. We understand an effort will be made to induce the company to give the cantata at Richmond and Lynchburg in aid of the Confederate cemetery at Fredericksburg.

DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE.—At the instance of Mr. J. R. Caton, the city democratic committee held a meeting last night at which a request was submitted from a number of democrats and other citizens who had heretofore taken part in the primary elections asking the committee to rescind the order of the previous night changing the rules to govern the primary election which excludes all but known democrats from taking part in the primary. Mr. Caton advocated a reconsideration and Mr. L. Martury opposed it. After hearing the arguments of the two candidates for Commonwealth's Attorney the committee decided to adhere to the rule adopted on Thursday night which allows only known democrats to participate in the primary. Mr. Caton then submitted two proposals—one that a list of known republicans be furnished the judges of election and that they only be denied the privilege of voting, and the other, that rules governing general elections should apply to the primary. Both of these proposals were rejected by the committee.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was cloudy and cool with five prisoners and nine lodgers at the station house. The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases: T. B. Cummings, arrested by officers Sherwood and Taylor charged with drawing a pistol on Mr. W. S. Towson, was fined $10. Chas. Wood, colored, arrested by officer Sherwood for disorderly conduct, was fined $1.50. Peter Simms, colored, arrested by officer Davis charged with stealing a pistol from Mr. George Ayers and Nelson Welford, colored, arrested by officers Hayes and Jones charged with disorderly conduct, were discharged for want of evidence. Lawrence Bright, arrested by officers Hayes and Jones for throwing stones in the street, was fined $1.

THE PRIMARY.—The democratic primary election will be held on Tuesday next, and the contest for the Commonwealth's Attorneyship has grown quite heated. The officers to be nominated are Commonwealth's Attorney, City Sergeant, Commissioner of Revenue, Magistrate and Constable for each ward and a member of the Board of Aldermen for the First ward. For the office of Commonwealth's Attorney, Mr. J. R. Caton, the incumbent, and Messrs. L. Marbury and Chas. Bondham are the candidates, and for the Board of Aldermen Messrs. Alex. Lytle and Noble Lindsey have been named. For City Sergeant and Commissioner of Revenue Messrs. W. H. Smith and Geo. Duffey, respectively, have no opposition. Much interest is being taken in the matter, and it is expected that the primary will bring out a large vote.

FARMERS AND MECHANICS' SAVINGS BANK.—The property of the Farmers and Mechanics' Savings Bank, of this city, heretofore advertised in the GAZETTE, was offered at public auction to-day by Mr. R. T. Lucas, auctioneer, for Mr. Leonard Marbury, receiver, and the aggregate bids not reaching the limit price named in the decree of sale from the Circuit Court of this city, the entire offering was withdrawn. On the lot of ground in the city of Baltimore, the Court fixed a limit of $1,500. Only $1,200 was offered. On the three life insurance policies of Andrew Jamieson, amounting to $12,500 the decree of the Court fixed a value of $5,000, and the offerings aggregated $3,740, and for the policies, etc., of Mrs. Spaulding, limited by decree at $800, only $600 was offered.

BAL POUFRE.—The bal poufre given at McBurney's Hall last night by a number of ladies of this city was, as the ladies intended it should be, the event of the year, and closed the gayest social season Alexandria has enjoyed for a long time. The bal was well attended, many persons from elsewhere being present, and dancing was kept up till a late hour. The ladies, in their bandeaux and becoming costumes and with powdered hair, never looked prettier, the music was delightful, and altogether the affair was a most brilliant success, and the bal will long be held in pleasant recollection by all who participated.

TEMPERANCE SERMONS.—The joint committees of the different temperance organizations of this city having invited the pastors of all the churches to preach a sermon on temperance to-morrow night, the committee have received information that the following will comply with the request: Rev. I. M. Mercer, Baptist Church; Rev. W. J. Young, M. E. Church, South; Rev. W. M. Palsal, M. P. Church; Rev. R. F. Bishop, Trinity M. E. Church; Rev. J. S. Cooper, M. E. Church (col.); Rev. Fields Cook, Ebenezer Baptist Church (col.).

TEACHERS' MEETING.—The monthly meeting of the teachers of Washington School was held this morning in the Washington building. Principal Ficklin gave a very instructive lecture on differences of brain power. He dwelt upon the necessity of the educators bearing in mind that children are endowed with very unequal cerebral capacity, that the wholeness of vital force is a different one in the case of different children, and that the distribution of this among the several organs is also different.

SUIT FOR DIVORCE.—Lewis C. Milburn has filed a bill in Washington for divorce from Mary Gertrude Milburn. They were married February 17, 1885, and have one child, born February 14, 1888, and the bill states that July 5, 1887, when he returned, after closing his drug store, to his home where he and his wife were boarding—the house of defendant's father, Gustavus Jones—defendant and her father denied him access to his room and ordered him to leave and not return.

ACCIDENTS.—Frank Ballenger, son of Mr. R. W. Ballenger, while skylarking with a companion yesterday evening, fell and broke his ankle. He was attended by Drs. O'Brien and Ashby. Little Maud Downham, daughter of Mayor E. E. Downham, while playing on a trapeze in the yard of Mr. J. Mulheiser yesterday, fell and broke her arm. ROBBERY.—The store of Mr. F. L. Van-Auken, on King street, between Fairfax and Royal, was entered by thieves last night and ransacked, but so far as known little of value was stolen. An entrance was made by breaking the glass from the rear door, and a desk in which the thieves spread was a sum of money was broken to pieces. PERSONAL.—Mr. Wesley Avery, baggage master on the Manassas train, was stricken with paralysis a few days since whilst running between Washington and this city. He was removed to his home where he is now improving. Mr. Theodore Ketcham, of this city, has received an appointment in the census bureau.

FISH.—Since yesterday about 150,000 herrings and 200 shad have arrived at Fishtown. Herring sold at $2.50-$3.25 per thousand and shad at $9-$11 per hundred.

LOCAL BREVITIES. The Chesapeake and Ohio Canal receivers completed their inspection of the waterway yesterday. The handsome new club house of the Columbia Athletic Club, of Washington, was formally opened last night. An effort is being made to change the mail route between Pleasant Valley, Chantilly and Herndon. The change proposed is to go to Fairfax Courthouse, instead of Herndon. Andrew J. Terry, of Virginia, the custodian in the Interior Department, in Washington, has resigned, and Mr. J. J. McDonald, of Virginia, has been selected for appointment to the vacancy. Refuge Council, Sons of Joseph, will tonight attend the "tin wedding" of Judge John West, of Washington. The entertainment will be held in Grand Army Hall and all the subordinate lodges in the District of Columbia will be represented. A grand banquet will be served. James Beagle, a special policeman at the Globe Variety Theatre in Washington, tried several times to set fire to the building last night, but his efforts were unsuccessful. Harry Loop, one of the proprietors of the theatre, while expostulating with Beagle about the matter, received a shot in the arm from the policeman's pistol. The wound is probably not very serious. Beagle is believed to be insane. It is reported that "Be'mont," the farm and handsome residence of the late Richard Lloyd, about two miles northwest of this city, has been sold for $50,000 to a Washington syndicate. A government inspector came here to-day and inspected the internal revenue collector's office, and found Mr. Johnson's accounts to be correct in every particular. This is the twenty-fifth anniversary of the surrender of General Joseph E. Johnston and the shooting of John Wilkes Booth. The only application approved at the last meeting of the Excise Board this week was that of John McGahay as agent for a steamboat. The Corporation Court adjourned to-day for the term. Mr. W. E. Fendall qualified as a notary public. The Savings Bank will be open again this evening for the receipt of deposits. If pure blood is a guarantee against Catarrh and like diseases, those who are using Stonebraker's Blood and Liver Corrector need apprehend no danger. It purifies the blood, 150 doses for $1.
