

LOCAL NEWS.

SATURDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 4

CHURCH SERVICES, &c., TO-MORROW.—Christ Church.—Services at 11 a. m. by Rev. Dr. Suter. Children's services at 4 p. m. St. Paul's Church.—Services at 11 a. m. by Rev. Dr. Norton and communion. No evening service. Grace Church.—Services at 7 a. m., 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. by Rev. H. T. Sharp. St. Mary's Church.—Mass at 7 and 11 a. m. Vespers at 4 p. m. Sermon by Rev. Father O'Keefe. Second Presbyterian Church.—Preaching at 11 a. m. by Rev. James I. Vance and at 7:30 p. m. by Rev. W. C. Hagan, of Franklin, Va. At the morning service there will be preached, by request, a sermon on "The Sin Against the Holy Ghost."

PERSONAL.—Cards are out for the marriage of Mr. Benoni Wheat and Miss Lydia A. Hester, daughter of Mrs. E. Iza Hester, which is to take place at St. Paul's Church on the evening of October 14.

Mr. Charles E. Stuart, who has been on a visit to his relatives in this city, left to-day for his home in Louisville, Ky. The Manassas Gazette says: "Mr. Robt. Porter and family, who have been spending several weeks at Mr. Porter's magnificent summer residence near here, after a tour of three years to Germany and other European countries, left here Wednesday for Alexandria where they will spend the winter months."

Rev. D. P. Chockley, lately of Bristol, Tenn., but now about to enter Crozer Baptist Theological Seminary, Pa., is still in the city, and will preach to-morrow morning in the Baptist Church. His discourse at the same church last Wednesday evening was most excellent and was listened to with much interest and attention.

Miss Eda Smoot, who has been visiting Mrs. W. H. Wright, of Baltimore county, Md., has returned to her home in this city. The Misses Perrin, who have been visiting Mrs. Samuel G. Brent on Prince street, returned to their home in Baltimore to-day.

Miss Gertrude Clarke, accompanied by her brother, Mr. Arthur Clarke, returned to the city from Rockville, Md., on Thursday. Miss Bennett, of New York, will make Alexandria her home this winter, during which time she will take a course in art from Miss May Miningerode, one of Alexandria's most talented daughters.

A delightful dance was given at the residence of Mr. E. F. Price, Thursday evening in honor of his grand-daughter, Miss Laurie Price, of Baltimore.

DEATH OF MRS. ALBRAND.—Mrs. Elizabeth Albrand, an old and respected resident, and mother of Miss Lizzie Albrand, whose death was recorded last week, died at her home on South Patrick street last night after a long illness. Her death is a very sad one. She was taken ill several weeks since and her daughter, Miss Lizzie, who was spending her vacation with relatives in New York, was summoned to her bedside and hastily returned to this city. The daughter in her constant attention to her mother was completely broken down and died on Friday of last week to be followed in just one week by the mother for whose life she had given her own.

ANOTHER TRAIN.—In speaking of the additional train south to be run on the W. & O. R. R., the Leesburg Washingtonian says: "The W. & O. Railroad which has so greatly improved the connection of this county with Washington and Alexandria, will start, we learn, at an early date, probably next week, a train which will leave Washington at 6 o'clock p. m. and come as far as Sterling, and return in the morning in time to reach the cities before 8 o'clock, to give the mechanics and laboring classes in the cities an opportunity to avail themselves of the admirable advantages of cheap, comfortable and healthy homes along the line of this well conducted and well managed railroad."

OPPORTUNITIES FOR INVESTORS.—Attention is called to the advertisement of the sale of lots in Salem, Va., by the Monteiro Land and Residence Company, to take place Oct. 17. It is understood that about 1,000 shares of stock of this company have been bought by Alexandrians, some of whom visited the property and satisfied themselves of its merit. This property lies just at the head of Broad street, in Salem, which street bears the same relation to that town that Washington street does to Alexandria, it being the principal cross street and containing many beautiful residences. Salem is in the midst of a wonderful boom.

THE MAILS AGAIN.—A subscriber of First Hill, Rappahannock county, writes: "I am very glad to see the tri-weekly GAZETTE on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays; now I don't get it till the following day—one day after all the other papers. I would like it to come as it formerly did."

A subscriber in Roanoke says: "The GAZETTE reaches here very irregularly and much belated."

We are receiving more complaints now of the irregularities of the receipt of the GAZETTE than ever before.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and mild with one prisoner and two lodgers at the station house.

The Mayor this morning dispensed of the following cases: Phil. Warren, colored, arrested by officers Bettis and Taylor for disorderly conduct, was fined $2.50 and in default of payment was sent to the chain gang for 30 days.

Jas. Pettit and Thos. Ogden, for disorderly conduct, were dismissed with reprimands.

FRATERNAL VISIT.—Delegates from the lodges of Old Fellows of Washington and Georgetown, accompanied by the Grand Master of the District of Columbia, last night paid a fraternal visit to Potomac Lodge of that order in this city and conferred the first degree upon a candidate. The visitors to the number of seventy-five came here by a steamer from Washington, which made a special trip for the occasion. After the meeting of the lodge the visitors were handsomely banqueted.

PANTOMIME.—The Ministering Children's League last night, at the Opera House, presented the beautiful little pantomime "Snow Drop." The little ones were greeted by a warm and appreciative audience and acquitted themselves most creditably. The ladies under whose auspices the pantomime was presented deserve much credit for its success, and the object for which the entertainment was given is a most worthy one.

THE MARKET to-day was fairly supplied with all things in season and there were indications of the autumn season on all sides. Quarters of sheep, rabbits, squirrels, chestnuts and even persimmons were offered for sale. The stands of the country people were well filled with their produce while the butchers and hucksters all had full stocks. Prices are on the advance but as yet are reasonable.

TO CELEBRATE THE SUCCOTH FESTIVAL.—To-morrow the Succoth festival will be celebrated by the Hebrews. The festival is that of the first fruits. In lieu of the ancient ceremonies, modern Hebrewism offers the sacrifices of charity, giving a recognition of God's gift to man of beautiful harvests in providing aid for the needy.

THE OPERA HOUSE.—To-night the sensational border drama entitled "Eagle's Nest," will be presented at the Opera House. The story, which is said to rank equal with "M'Liss," in interest and dramatic merit, is a chase and stirring one, well and clearly told; in fact, the drama is full of exciting but natural situations.

CONFEDERATE VETERANS.—The regular monthly meeting of R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, will be held on Monday evening, Oct. 6th, at 7:30 o'clock. EDGAR WABFIELD, Adjutant.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The double track of the Virginia Midland road through Orange has been completed.

It is reported that Mrs. Edward Finneaux, formerly Miss Mary Gilmartin, who was recently married in this city, died in a hospital in Washington yesterday.

The Young Men's Sociality Lyceum celebrated the second anniversary of their organization, in their hall, on Duke street, last night. An interesting programme was rendered by the young men of the lyceum.

The Excelsior Brick Company, from their yards at the old canal outlet locks, are now loading two large barges with 350,000 bricks for shipment to Fortress Monroe, to be used in the construction of the new hotel there.

The work of paving Patrick street from King to Queen has been completed, and now that street is one of the best paved in the city. The improvement thus made will add much to the value of that section of the city.

The St. John's Academy baseball club won another victory over a nine from town this morning, by the one-sided score of 17 to 7. The St. John's will play the Georgetown University team on Tuesday, on the grounds of the latter.

LLANO, TEXAS, MAY 13, 1889. Wm Radam, Microbe Killer, Austin, Tex. Dear Sir—I believe your Microbe Killer a certain cure for rheumatism. Up to a year ago I was down a great part of my time with rheumatism. I began taking your remedy, and after taking two saloons have never been troubled with it since but once. I bought a gallon then, and after taking a few doses it entirely disappeared. I have offered in several cases to pay for the Microbe Killer provided it failed to cure rheumatism, but have never had to pay as yet, as it invariably did the work. Respectfully,

The New Discovery. You have heard your friends and neighbors talking about it. You may yourself be one of the many who know from personal experience just how good a thing it is. If you have ever tried it, you are one of its staunch friends, because the wonderful thing about it is, that when once given a trial, Dr. King's New Discovery ever after holds a place in the house. If you have never used it and should be afflicted with a cough, cold or any throat, lung or chest trouble, secure a bottle at once and give it a fair trial. It is guaranteed every time, or money refunded.

Free bottles at E. S. Leadbeater & Bro.'s drug store (wholesale agents). Regular sizes 50 cents and $1.

Mr. R. T. Poole, of Cedartown, Ga., writes: "I believe it to be one of the best medicines sold. The physicians two years ago said my wife had consumption, both lungs affected. I have had to send her South for several springs to keep her alive, but since she has been taking Radam's Microbe Killer she has been right at home attending to her business, and is in better health than she has been in 20 years. For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Bro.
