

ALEXANDRIA, VA. TUESDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 4.

Now that the election is over, it is hoped a renewed and concentrated effort may be made by those whose lot has been cast in Alexandria to help the interests of their city.

Why people who are hunting for town lot investments should pass by Alexandria is by no means the least of the strange things of this eventful age.

The regular "Southern outrage" election trick was not omitted this time, but it was played almost too late to do any good.

The small rate of increase in the population of this city, as exhibited by Mr. Porter's incorrect census returns, even if correct, could be readily explained by the fact of the emigration of a large number of Alexandria's negro population during the past decade.

Mr. Ro BAVELT, of the civil service commission, has been recent collection of public assessments from the government clerks at Washington, "can only be characterized as an attempt to blackmail the employes by inflection."

The fact that one of the President's clerks, Mr. Noble, the Secretary of the Interior, has the assurance to send an impertinent and offensive reply to a letter on official business from the Governor of a sovereign State, New York, and does so without the faintest idea of the gross impropriety of his action, shows how near the man on horseback has come during the twenty months of Mr. Harrison's republican administration.

In the several congressional districts of the State in which there were neither straight-out nor independent candidates opposing the regular democratic candidates, the republicans, under instructions from Gen. Mahone, refrained from voting to-day, so that the large democratic majority may afford a plausible pretext to the present republican Senate for passing the Force bill.

The President's wife, on her recent shopping trip to Baltimore, was afforded an object lesson concerning her husband's incorrect idea that those who wear cheap clothing are cheap people.

FROM THE news received at this office up to 4:30 p. m. to-day, General Lee has been elected by a satisfactory, if not large, majority.

Elections To-day. Elections were held to-day in thirty-nine States, in all of which congressmen were to be chosen, there being 333 seats to be filled. State officers and legislators were elected in several States, as in Pennsylvania, California, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Indiana, Kansas, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New York, North Carolina, South Carolina, Texas, West Virginia and Wisconsin.

The Methodist BISHOPS.—In Washington yesterday the Council of Bishops of the M. E. Church, with closed doors heard a report from Bishop Warren in reference to his visit to the various conferences of the Methodist and Wesleyan churches in Europe.

FROM WASHINGTON. Special Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette. WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 4, 1890. Among the strangers here to-day is Judge Lewis, Chief Justice of the Virginia Court of Appeals. The Judge is on his way to Richmond, where the regular fall term of the court will meet to-morrow. It is expected that the case involving the ownership of the Abington estate, between this city and Alexandria, will be decided at this term of the court.

The Capitol and all the government departments present a deserted appearance this morning, nearly all the people usually seen about them having gone home to vote. The streets and hotels, too, are comparatively empty for the same reason.

The rooms of the Virginia democratic association of this city were still open to day, and several Lee voters in the surrounding counties who had failed to obtain transportation yesterday, were supplied with passes to their respective precincts.

Wisconsin people here to-day say there is no doubt that ex-Secretary Vilas has tried to swap democratic votes for the republican candidate for Governor there for republican votes for the democratic legislative ticket, as he wants to come to the U. S. Senate.

A large number of the employes at the Government printing office are Maryland voters. A wall went up from there this morning in consequence of the inability of those employes to vote, by reason of the new election law of their State.

News received here to-day from Prince George's county, Maryland, the county opposite Alexandria, is that the vote for Mudd, the republican candidate for Congress in that district, is considerably smaller in that county than it was two years ago, and that the indications are that Mudd has been badly beaten by Mr. Conroy, whose seat in Congress he held, now holds.

The cash on hand in the United States treasury has been reduced to a little over $6,000,000.

Both Barrett and the new Lyceum Theatre in Baltimore last night. The play was the "Merchant of Venice."

Lieutenant Schmidt, who wrestled on the charge of betraying plans of Cronstadt, in Russia, to a foreign power, has been found guilty and hanged.

The New York and Pacific express train on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad running at the rate of 40 miles an hour, was switched off the main track near Rock Cut, N. Y., yesterday afternoon and collided with a coal train standing on a siding. The locomotives and a number of cars were wrecked. The fireman and engineer of each engine were caught in the wreck and ground to death.

Rev. Dr. James V. Fair, pastor of Grace street Presbyterian church, Richmond, has concluded not to accept the call recently tendered him from Birmingham, Alabama.

Mr. William A. Anderson, who returned yesterday from London, submitted yesterday to the board of directors of the Rockbridge Company at Glasgow a final contract with responsible parties in London for the investment of $1,500,000 in the stock of the company. This contract was ratified by the board.

The Elections. FAIRFAX C. H., Nov. 4.—Democratic outlook good. Indications received here from throughout the county are to the effect that Gen. Lee will get fully 200 majority.

MANASSAS, Nov. 4.—At 2 o'clock 250 votes had been cast. Lee's majority is estimated at 50; usual vote here 380.

LEESBURG, Nov. 4.—Leesburg precinct indications are for a full vote and the usual democratic majority is anticipated. No news from the county at this hour.

WARRENTON, Nov. 4.—Lee's majority here at 2 o'clock was 270. Telephone news from other precincts in the county indicate a majority of twelve hundred in the county. Perhaps more than that.

ORANGE C. H., Nov. 4.—The election in this county is close but the indications are that Lee has a majority.

RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 4.—Clear, pleasant weather prevails generally throughout the State and the election is progressing quietly. The democrats are polling about the usual vote in the cities of Richmond and Manchester.

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Nov. 4.—O'Ferrall, democrat, is unopposed. The vote is very light.

WINCHESTER, Nov. 4.—There will not be a full vote. O'Ferrall, democrat, is receiving all the votes cast with few exceptions.

HARRISBURG, Nov. 4.—The voting is very light and little interest is manifested. O'Ferrall, democrat, is getting nearly all the votes, against Underwood, prohibitionist. Reports from the county are to the same effect.

ROANOK, Nov. 4.—The voting is light and almost entirely democratic.

DANVILLE, Nov. 4.—Lester, democrat, has no opposition, except from Adams, prohibitionist. Adams has not received a half dozen votes and the republicans are not voting at all. Lester will have a walk over in this district.

LYNCHBURG, Nov. 4.—A very light vote is being polled. The colored people are taking no part in the election. Only six or seven have voted in the city.

STANTON, Nov. 4.—A small vote had been cast up to 2 p. m. Tucker, the democratic nominee in the 10th district, practically has no opposition. The republicans are not voting.

NORFOLK, Nov. 4.—The voting is progressing quietly throughout this district. The contest on this point is a light colored vote and the contest will be close. The democrats are confident and the strategical republicans are uneasy. In one precinct of Norfolk county the negroes are voting almost solely for Murdoch, the independent republican.

FORT MONROE, Nov. 4.—Both parties are getting out a large vote.

rep., is being scratched for governor, in favor of Owen, the alliance candidate. Wilson, dem., will also lose many votes to Owen. Salder, rep., for Congress is considered sure of election.

CHICAGO, Nov. 4.—Every body is at seas as to the final results. An unusually large vest pocket vote is being polled and all tickets are being heavily scratched.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 4.—The democratic ticket is winning in every district reported. The only republican district is the 11th, and but one report comes from there. It is from Bell county and says that the county is going democratic for the first time in its history.

VIRGINIA, Nov. 4.—The republicans expect to elect Colcord, Governor, by 300 majority.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 4.—Arizona republicans claim they will have a majority in both branches of the territorial legislature.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Nov. 4.—The vote is light. In the Tenth district, T. E. Watson, democrat, has practically no opposition. The election is quiet in South Carolina so far as heard from. The impression prevails that Tillman will be elected Governor.

MACON, Ga., Nov. 4.—There is no opposition to the State ticket and Boutwell for Congress.

SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 4.—The weather is fine and the voting progressing quietly. A large democratic vote is being polled and Lester's, democrat, re-election is a foregone conclusion.

COLUMBUS, Ga., Nov. 4.—The indications this afternoon are the election of Moses, the democratic candidate, by a good majority.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 4.—The republicans in this county, Duval, have lost beat somewhat. It will probably go democratic by 450 majority. The Second congressional district will be close, Bullock, democrat, leads in this county so far.

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 4.—Some negroes here have split from the republican nominee are voting the independent colored ticket and in some cases for democrats.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 4.—A slight vote is being polled. Reports of unregistered voters being allowed to vote from several parts of a State and of votes stolen from the democratic ticket will be checked. The negroes are not voting to any great extent. Everything is quiet and orderly thus far.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., Nov. 4.—The prospects now are that the vote will be small. The white vote will not be polled and the negroes are taking little interest in the election. The indications are that the regular democrat, William Lytle of the Haskill committee telegraph that "gross irregularities have been practiced by the Tillmanites but that a new indication Judge Hastell's election by a large majority." The democratic candidates for Congress in all districts except possibly in the 7th, will be elected. Even the 7th district may be carried by the democrats because the white demagogues are getting solidly for Eliot. The negroes are divided between Miller and Bryson, the two republican candidates.

TOPEKA, Kas., Nov. 4.—Many Farmer Alliance men have deserted their candidates and are voting for Humphrey (republican) for Governor and Robinson (republican) for Congressman. How many it is thought will give Humphrey 15,000 majority.

Murder at a Wedding Feast. GLASGOW, Nov. 4.—A wedding feast which was being held in the Italian colony in the city last night was broken up by a murder. While the feast was progressing Lorenz, a man of about 30 years of age, who had been invited to attend the feast and he was ejected. In a short time returned and the bridegroom and a number of the guests attempted to assist him out. Antonio resisted and during the struggle drew a knife and plunged it into the breast of the bridegroom who fell to the floor gasping. When the bride saw her husband lying dead before her she uttered a wild shriek and fell upon her knees in a faint. One of the guests who had taken upon himself the attempt to eject Antonio also received a thrust from the murderer. The assassin was finally overpowered and arrested.

A REMARKABLE SEASON.—Our old friend, Mr. E. W. Kinchloe, of Clinton, writes to us under date of October 26: "To-day we have cherry trees and strawberries in bloom and have just gathered ripe raspberries for dinner."

We have also received the following: "Mr. J. F. Compher living near Colvin Run, has the second crop of raspberries in the garden. These same vines bore very large and fine fruit. They are the red variety and still blooming."—Fairfax Herald.

BURNED TO DEATH.—At Peoria, Ill., yesterday, Mrs. James H. Carico was engaged in cleaning a carpet with gasoline, while on a bed in the same room lay a little baby. In some manner the gasoline caught fire and spread over the room. It so frightened the woman that she ran screaming from the room, forgetting her child. The fire department extinguished the blaze, but when the infant was rescued it was found to be terribly burned. Its eyes were burned and its fingers burnt off and it died in a couple of hours.

At South Bethlehem, Pa., last night Mrs. Arzene F. Jullin, while going down stairs with a lighted coal-burner and carrying her one-year-old child, stumbled and fell to the bottom. The lamp extinguished and the child was horribly burned and lay a cry for help in the home at the time. So other persons were in the house at the time the blazing woman running about the yard. While the neighbors helped extinguish the woman's clothing the child was burning in the boat. Neither can live.

A Scrap of Paper Saved Her Life. It was just an ordinary scrap of wrapping paper but it saved her life. She was in the last stages of consumption, told by physicians that she was incurable and could live only a short time; she weighed less than seventy pounds. On a piece of wrapping paper she read of Dr. King's New Discovery, and got a sample bottle; it helped her, she bought a large bottle, it helped her more, she bought another and grew better fast, continued its use and is now strong, healthy, rosy, plump, weighing 145 pounds. MARRIED HER BROTHER.—An extraordinary case was brought to light in the Police Court in Albany Saturday, through the arrest of a husband on complaint of his wife. The man gave the name of John McDonald, the wife that of Julia McDonald. Mrs. McDonald said she was born in New York city, and lived with her parents and sister there until her father died. Then she was but a mere child, but was put out to work. Her mother married a second husband, John Morey, by whom she had a son. Soon after the war the complainant met John Anthon Morey, who had served in the war, and who, after a year's courtship, married her.

A year later Julia discovered her mother, whom she supposed to be dead. When the present visited the daughter's home, she recognized in the husband her son by John Morey. The result of a revelation was a separation of Morey and his wife. Subsequently Julia married John Cummings, with whom she lived for five years. During all this time Morey kept urging Julia to leave Cummings and go with him. Finally he threatened to kill her, and worried the woman to such an extent that she wanted to live with him again. To prevent Cummings from discovering them, Morey assumed the name of McDonald, and came to Albany, where the couple have lived for ten years. In the meantime Cummings married another woman, and is living happily with her in Massachusetts.

There have never been any proceedings for divorce by any of the parties. The continued abuse of his wife McDonald led to his arrest.

25 cents invested in a bottle of Salvation Oil will do a great deal of good. Buy it. Try it. The saying "time is money" is best illustrated by the prompt action of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup in all cases of coughs, colds, &c. Price 25 cents.

COMMERCIAL. ALEXANDRIA MARKET, Nov. 3.—There is nothing new to-day of the Flour market; Jobbers are buying to supply current needs; Millers are firm and not pressing sales; so figures move in a higher direction. Wheat is fairly active for two beds samples, but other sorts are heavy and sell steadily as to price, making the long range of from 80 to 103. Corn is stronger at 60 to 61 for choice old crop; 50 to 56 for new; the latter is rather too green yet to land with safety. Eggs 60 to 70. Hens 49 to 52. Eggs 23 to 24. Butter is dull at 14 to 18. Apples, Walnuts, Peaches, Chestnuts and other products scarce, and all well and Hay are without change.
