POLICE REPORT.—Last night was cloudy and cold with one prisoner and two lodgers at the station house.

THE WEATHER.—The raw, cloudy weather of yesterday and last night was followed to-day by clear skies and a cold northwest wind.

I. O. G. T.—Talisman Lodge, I. O. G. T., will consider at its regular meeting to-night several questions of vital importance to every member of the order.

RUNAWAY.—A horse attached to a wagon belonging to Mr. Herrington, of this county, ran off near the W. & O. bridge on Saturday evening last.

YESTERDAY was a quiet and uneventful day. The weather was raw and cloudy and during the evening there was a slight fall of snow.

FIRE ALARMS.—By the record kept at the Hydrant engine house it appears that during the year 1890 there were 38 alarms of fire—16 of which were false.

CREA HOUSE.—Don't fail to attend "Ye Old District School" at the Opera House to-night for the benefit of the Commandery, K. G. E., and annual dinner on Monday evening.

Attention is called to the advertisement in another column, of Mr. I. Eichberg, who has just received a large and select stock of goods in his line, to which he invites the inspection of the public and guarantees to sell at remarkably low prices.

Mothers should never forget that the sufferings of their little ones can easily be overcome by the use of Dr. Bull's Baby Syrup.

KNOW THAT pride in themselves! Old Bull's Catarrh Cure prides itself on the cures it has performed, but there is no "hittleness" about that.

BOOKS AND STATIONERY.

NEW GOODS! NEW GOODS!

Democratic Caucus.

An informal conference of democratic Senators and Representatives was held at the residence of Senator Gorman in Washington on Saturday night, at which a plan of action was discussed to be followed by the democratic Senators in regard to the election bill now pending in the Senate.

A Short Courtship. SHELBYVILLE, Ind., Jan. 5.—Mr. Mary Reed, of this city, has suddenly quit her wash tub to become the wife of a wealthy farmer and business man of Lima, Ohio.—Mr. Alexander Caseman, Mr. Caseman came here to find her, telling her that he had promised his wife on her death bed that if he ever remarried he would take a sister of his wife, and ask her if she would consent. She consented, and in twenty minutes they were married.

A HANDY MAN.—A special from Thomson, Me., chronicles a novel condition of things at the State prison there, in that Wm. E. Gould, serving a ten-years' sentence for embezzling $180,000 while cashier of the First National Bank runs the institution. It is alleged that Gould has unlimited power and is virtually a warden. He pays all the bills, including the officers' salaries, receives all money and buys all the goods, runs the commissary department, and the deputy publishes men on his complaint. He is not locked in a cell, as the others are, and has privileges accorded him, it is stated, never given any prisoner to any institution. He is the position of clerk, assistant librarian, choir member, assistant physician and assistant warden, and it is also said that he made out the annual report of the prison.
