

LOCAL MATTERS.

TUESDAY EVENING, AUGUST 11.

PERSONAL.—Mr. M. P. Greene has gone on an extended trip through the east and will stop at Atlantic City, Boston and New York.

Mr. Henry Hunter and his niece, Miss Edie Tyler, who have been on a visit to Atlantic City, have returned.

Mr. D. R. Stansbury and children after a three weeks' visit in Loudoun county returned to the city yesterday evening.

Mrs. Oliver Pulman and Mrs. J. H. Catts have gone to Pitteton, Pa., on a visit.

Mr. Louis Brager, of Baltimore, is on a short visit to his relatives in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Marbury have gone to Warrenton.

Mr. A. W. Armstrong is at Berkeley Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wolfe, of Brooklyn, are on a visit to relatives in this city.

A letter received here from Colonel Bessinger, Miss Olive Crook, who is at the beach, has won many friends by her gentle manner and winning ways.

DANGEROUS PRACTICE.—The railroad engineers complain, and with just cause, of the growing recklessness of persons crossing and walking on the tracks.

GOOD TEMPLAR EXCURSION.—As will be seen by advertisements elsewhere in this issue, the Good Templars of this District will give their fourth annual excursion to Colonial Beach, Wednesday, August 19, and it is promised to be the largest that has ever left this city.

TO RESUME WORK.—The work of erecting the shed in the market house area which was suspended last week to await the arrival of necessary lumber, will be resumed by Contractor Winston tomorrow, the lumber having arrived.

SUPERVISORS' MEETING.—At a meeting of the County Board of Supervisors to-day a committee of citizens was present and urged the board to buy a rock crusher and engage in a more extensive system of road improvements.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and warm, with five prisoners but no lodges at the station house.

THE ADVERTISEMENT of the Virginia Agricultural and Mechanical College at Blacksburg, Va., will be found in the GAZETTE.

A FEAST.—Knowing that the officials in the Royal street wing of the market building have been very much overworked during the heated term, Mr. Henry Brangle sent to-day with his compliments to Dr. A. F. Cox a freezer of delicious ice cream and a fine jelly cake.

THE HEAT to-day has again been excessive, and both man and beast are suffering the discomforts incident to the hot wave now passing over the country.

A Little Girl's Experience in a Lighthouse.—Mr. and Mrs. Lorea Arceout are keepers of the Gov. Lighthouse at Sand Beach, Mich., and last April she was taken down with Measles, followed with diphtheria, cough and turning into a Fever.

Cases are arriving daily, Mr. Eichberg, Jr., having gone North for that purpose.

We are prepared to show the people of Alexandria that we are up to the times in offering bargains when most required.

Bargains that will aid your preparations for mountains, shore or country, and bargains that will keep you cool at home.

As the saying is, "Nothing succeeds like success." Such can we say of our Merchant Tailoring Department.

The success in the past and the great demand for our garments, made only by expert hands, enable us to say with the utmost confidence that in this branch we cannot be excelled.

Perfect fit guaranteed. We solicit an early call, in order to be convinced of the true meaning of the word bargains.

The great demand for WAISTS, BLOUSES, BLAZERS and REFRES have caused us to prepare with a most extensive line of these goods, and we are offering them at surprisingly low figures.

You will find sweeping reductions in every department, and to convince you we quote a few prices: Chantilly Muslin, 7 1/2c.
