

LOCAL NEWS. MONDAY EVENING, JANUARY 11.

For this section snow, turning into rain, a light warmer, winds becoming southeast.

DYE CONVICTED.—The jury in the case of Joseph Dye for the murder of the Kines family in Warrenton on Saturday night brought in a verdict of murder in the first degree. The exhibition before the jury on Friday of the head of one of the murdered Kines children had a marked effect. At the announcement Dye broke down and wept, but protested his innocence. His counsel will take the case to the higher court, if possible, as the judge refused a change of venue. Mr. James P. J. Hines was prosecuting, and Hon. E. E. Merrill and Mr. R. R. Campbell were counsel for the defense of Dye. The evidence against Dye was strong. Various motives for the murder are assigned: Hines' folks claim that Dye came after him at his home in Steford, and bired him to do the murder.

The evening Judge Lipscomb sentenced Hines and Dye to be hanged on the 18th of March between the hours of 6 and 8 o'clock in the morning.

The proprietors of Ely's Cream Balm do not claim it to be a cure-all, but a remedy for cuts, colds in the head and hay fever. It is a liquid or a snuff, is easily applied into the nostrils. It gives relief at once.

I had a cold in the head and throat for five years. I used Ely's Cream Balm, and from the first application I was relieved. The sense of smell, which had been lost, was restored after using one bottle. I have found the Balm the only satisfactory remedy for catarrh, and it has effected a cure in my case.—H. L. Meyer, Waverly, N. Y.

Fire Alarm. As a tax paying citizen of this city I feel that I have the right to make an inquiry on the subject that heads my communication. Cannot something be done in the way of giving a better fire alarm than the system now in vogue? At the recent fire (Wheatley's) all three of the companies were short of men from the fact that not a sufficient alarm was given. The efficiency of the companies was seriously handicapped at a critical moment owing to the absence of experienced members. Still more recently a house was entirely consumed within the corporate limits at the midhour of day, and resulting in the death of two children, and no alarm given, consequently there was no response from the fire department. Where does the fault lie? Is it with the authorities? It certainly cannot be with the volunteer firemen, for they are always ready and willing to respond at all hours to the sacrifice of business, health and many times to life itself. The city is spreading and naturally a better plan should be adopted for protecting property. The present system is a failure. CITIZEN.

STRIPPED BARE TO THE SKIN.—Shortly before noon Sunday a man who represented himself to be Ernst Ban, about 30 years of age, entered an empty car of the Ridge Avenue line at the depot in Philadelphia, directed himself to his clothes, unwrapped them carefully on the seats and then started into the aisle shouting he was Lady Godiva, and had set out to deliver the country of heavy taxes. He shouted for everybody to go in doors, ran to the corner of the street over the snow, and leaped into a carriage belonging to Doctor E. C. Blair, who was visiting a patient nearby. The doctor came out just as the man had started the team up the avenue. Several men along the sidewalk succeeded in stopping the crazy person who showed fight. Sergeant Melillo and Officer Schaffer of the Falls, were attracted to the scene and secured Ban not were obliged to manage him before he stopped struggling for liberty. He was wrapped up in the doctor's lap robe and a basket from a passing milk wagon and taken in a patrol wagon to the station, from whence he was sent to the Philadelphia Hospital. He refused to give his residence. Pedestrians who saw the sight were so astonished that they could hardly render assistance, while the woman in the car fled out of the way.
