

LOCAL NEWS.

THURSDAY EVENING, FEBRUARY 18.

This section much warmer, south winds and clear weather to-day, followed by increasing cloudiness to-night, and probably light rain or snow by Friday afternoon.

MARITAL INFELICITY.—"Woe of Real Romance" and several other head lines form the caption of a column description in a Washington paper this morning of the marriage of a widower before the termination of the conventional year to a young and pretty girl, who after a three days' honeymoon deserted her liege lord and whose whereabouts cannot be ascertained. In substance the story is as follows: Miss Laura Bowman, who, it is said, hails from Brownstown, near Front Royal, Va., left her native hamlet last April, came to Alexandria and subsequently went to Washington, finding employment in the late Mr. White's store on F street, which was wrecked by the cyclone last November and the proprietor killed. There she became acquainted with one J. Kramer, a ladies' tailor, who had just lost his wife, and after an ardent wooing from the widower became Mrs. Kramer No. 2, the marriage, it being alleged, being kept secret. After having been married three days the bride made a three-weeks' visit to her mother, and upon returning to Washington strove to clear her of her husband, until the latter, becoming exasperated at her absence, advertised for her whereabouts. Kramer alleged that his newly-made wife robbed him of about $100, had a sister of Mrs. Kramer's who the bride deserted her husband and rendered her life miserable. Kramer insists that his wife has run off with another man, which statement is also indignantly denied by Mrs. Kramer's relatives.

COMMISSIONERS AMENDMENTS.—At a meeting of the Commissioners of the Sinking Fund last night, at which the City Attorney was present, various matters relating to the city's interest were informally discussed. As it was deemed important that the city charter should be amended in several particulars, and as the legislature will adjourn in less than two weeks, the City Attorney was requested to at once prepare the proposed amendments; forward them to the city's representatives in the legislature and urge their passage at this session. The amendments proposed are to give the Mayor the power to suspend or remove a policeman for cause and to give the Council the power to consolidate or abolish such offices as are deemed advisable and to create new offices if such become necessary. The amendments do not make the changes in reference to officers obligatory, but only give Council the power to make such changes in case they become necessary. The legislature is also asked to pass an act giving Council the power to elect a police commission if such is deemed advisable. Mayor Strauss will send a message to Council at its next meeting in reference to these matters.

A NEW ALEXANDRIA ENTERPRISE.—The Potomac Novelty Company.—As heretofore stated for a couple of months past, a number of gentlemen, principally Washingtonians, have been taking active steps towards the organization and establishment of an enterprise to be known as the Potomac Novelty Company, having already purchased one of the best built and adapted factory buildings in the county, it being prominently located at the corner of King and Lee streets. Considerable modern machinery has been purchased and put in operation and the building will be equipped and made one of the best factories in the country for the manufacture of light novelties and specialties of general utility. At a meeting held at the new factory last night, the following officers were appointed: William B. Matthews, president; H. L. Davis, vice-president; G. Howlett Davis, secretary and treasurer. Directors, Frank H. Pelouza, John R. Osborne, Wm. B. Matthews, A. E. Smart, H. L. Davis, Paul H. Weadon, and O. Howlett Davis. A small amount of capital stock of the company will shortly be placed upon the market.

HEFLIN AND DYE.—Doctors Day and Carter having been requested to examine Hefflin's mental condition have furnished a report in which they say: "We do not find that he is an idiot or a lunatic, but we do find that his mental calibre is of a very low order and borders closely upon idiocy; and we furthermore think that it is not improbable, if the claim of his friends can be sustained by evidence, that he was the instrument of a designing party or parties in the perpetration of the murder of the Kincaid family." Both Hefflin and Dye are in faceted security hoping to get new trials or that the Governor will interfere and pardon them. Some time ago Dye's appetite failed him and Hefflin said Dye was a fool not to eat, that he intended to eat all he could get up to the last moment. Mr. B. E. Caspell, a lawyer for Dye, is now in Richmond to argue his case in the Court of Appeals asking for a new trial.—Warrenton Virginia

CONCERT.—On Thursday, the 25th inst., there will be a delightful concert at the Opera House, after which the Peak sisters will be introduced. These ladies are from Alaska, on their way to the Mardi Gras, in New Orleans. Having observed the unfinished condition of the Infirmary building, they were moved to help the cause by their talent. Only seventeen sisters will be present; the rest of the four score and four having been detained at home with their mother by consecutive attacks of the grip. Each sister travels with her own musical instrument and refreshments and baggage. Misses Ida O'Neal and Florence Grigg and Messrs H. T. Statman and George Terry, of Washington, an octette of male voices and Misses Louise and Sara Nabhouse and Miss Ida Eggert will sing singly and in chorus. Mr. Gambrell and Mr. Fowler will have charge of the instrumental part of the concert. This is the first appearance in this city of this company.

THE FISH BENCHES.—The Commissioners of the Sinking Fund held a meeting last night and made an order in reference to the fish benches in the market. Hereafter the fish market is to be confined to the row of benches east of the southern gate of the market, and the benches now situated west of that gate are to be removed and that space devoted to other purposes. As there are now but few fish dealers, the space allotted them and they are to be rented at public auction to the highest bidder for the privilege of selecting the choice. For some time past the rent received by the city from the fish benches has hardly paid for the gas and water furnished the vendors.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and cold with three prisoners and six lodgers at the station house. The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases: Jas. Price and El. Julius, colored, for being drunk and disorderly, were fined $2.50 each. John Brooks, colored, a member of the chain gang, charged with insubordination, was returned to that gang on the promise of good behavior.

PERSONAL.—Mrs. Conrland Johnson, of Mt. Eagle, Fairfax county, who has been seriously ill, is improving. The Rev. Dea. of Canal Dover, Ohio, were in the city to-day. Mrs. M. E. Corwell, in a note received at this office to-day, requests the GAZETTE to contradict the report, published in a Washington paper, that she intends resigning as keeper of the almshouse, the first of March, and making her home in Washington. She says, "The illness of my dear Mrs. Harris, would prevent me taking such a step at present, and I shall certainly notify the Mayor and City Council a month or two before I do leave."

K. OF P.—The following officers were last night elected by the Grand Lodge K. of P., in session in Leesburg: G. C. Isaac Diggs, West Point; G. V. C. W. L. M'Leod, Suffolk; G. M. of E. T. L. Courtney, Richmond; G. P. W. T. Lithgow, Manchester; G. K. of R. and S., Walter A. Edwards, Norfolk; G. M. at A., Joseph A. Meltor, Winchester; G. I. G. T. E. Hutcheson, Smithville; G. O. G. Wm. E. Garrett, Leesburg.

ABDUCTION.—Willie Webb, colored, about 8 years old, was yesterday evening conveyed from his home in the western part of the city by a tall white man with dark complexion and long beard. This morning the boy returned to his home and stated that the man, after promising him some candy, had taken him to a barn near the city last night, but that early this morning, while the man was asleep, he ran away and came home.

DEATH OF MR. MINOR.—Mr. Fairfax Minor, whose illness was mentioned yesterday, died at his room on upper King street, early this morning. Mr. Minor was a son of the late John W. Minor, of Loudoun, who for a long time represented that county in the legislature. For some years past Mr. Minor had lived on his farm in this county. Recently he came to this city where he was well and favorably known.

LECTURE.—A lecture for the benefit of the First Baptist Church will be delivered to-night by Rev. Mr. Rawlison in that church. Mr. Rawlison has the reputation of being a fluent and interesting speaker, and this, in connection with the low price of admission charged, should insure the lecturer a large audience.

A CACCOLATAIRE for the benefit of the Educational Society will be given by the Choir of Hops, at St. Paul's lecture room, on Friday, February 19th, beginning at 4 p. m. Admission 5 and 10 cts. mt&e

Ely's Cream Balm is the only remedy among the many that I have used that affords me relief.—(E. W. Willard, druggist, Joliet, Ill.) I HAVE been troubled with catarrh for ten years and have tried a number of remedies, but found no relief until I purchased a bottle of Ely's Cream Balm.
