

LOCAL NEWS.

THURSDAY EVENING, MARCH 3.

For this section fair and slightly warmer weather; northerly winds, shifting to easterly.

PRESENTATION SPEECHES.—As heretofore stated, Col. L. W. Rind, of this city, when he retired from the office of Assistant Register of the Territory on Monday, was presented with a handsome silver watch set, Col. Howard W. Gilman made the presentation speech. He said:

Reverend: The ladies and gentlemen connected with the Register's Office desire to speak to you in their collective capacity, and, having done me the honor to select me as their representative, I will say without further preface, that

We all assembled here not only to speak respectfully the words that will sever your official relations with us, but also to give brief expressions in language, and in another manner as well, to the esteem and respect which we entertain for you. More than six years ago you came to us as a stranger; to-day we part as friends. This fact will be something more than a pleasing memory, exemplifying as it does to us your scrupulous observance of the golden rule.

During all these years your intercourse with your associates in office has been marked by unvarying courtesy and an unflinching consideration for all whom you have met, of whatever grade or position, and this notwithstanding the occasional annoyances which are inseparable from official life.

And, now, sir, as words alone, even if addressed to express our thorough appreciation of your conduct as an officer, and your worth as a man, will at best be hung as "pictures on memory's wall," we desire to record our sentiments in a more enduring form, and we accordingly ask you to accept this testimonial, which, though slight in itself, will never fail to remind you of our sincere regard for you, and our earnest wishes for your prosperity and happiness.

Col. Rind replied as follows: Col. Gilman, General Rosecrans, Ladies and Gentlemen: It is said, I believe wisely, "It is the unexpected that happens;" certainly the present occasion tends to confirm the truth of the assertion: None of us a short time ago anticipated this assembling together for the purpose now in view, and, unaccustomed as I am to being one of the prominent characters in such a scene, I feel most deeply the embarrassment of replying in fit terms to the exceedingly kind and complimentary remarks of your representative, and express here, as I feel, my appreciation of the most beautiful testimonial of your regard for me, and, experiencing most forcibly, the truth of the sentiment that "The heart feels most when the lips move not." I must beg you to believe that the attempt is abandoned because of the inadequacy of words to convey the emotions I feel.

A little over six years ago I came amongst you. "I was a stranger, and you took me in." I became one of you, sharing your labors and heartily sympathizing in your trials. You have made my life happy while with you. I have tried to make you so, and I believe that the token of your esteem is a life that I have not tried in vain. I so regard it and so appreciate it.

We did not get all the prompt ones that we expected and to which we felt, at the time, we were entitled, but we must believe that those higher in authority had good and sufficient reasons for giving them to others; they were made, disappointments are passed away and we were again a happy family.

Many changes in the personnel of the Bureau have taken place since I joined you, and many of our associates have left us, some for better positions in the service elsewhere, no less than seven of our ladies for the matrimonial altar, and I cut deep and lasting regrets in the hearts of our friends for that source was a cross to us.

A unique historical fact connected with this office, known probably to most of you, has always impressed me; it is not only that the Hon. Joseph Nourse, the first Register of the Territory, held that office from 1789 to 1840, a period of forty years, no doubt with much credit to himself and satisfaction to the Government, but that there has never been a day since the organization of the Government that there has not been at least one member of that family whose name has been on its rolls; and I am glad to add that however creditable may have been the services of his predecessor, I am sure you will agree with me that none could have served more conscientiously, or more worthily, than the estimable lady representative you now have with you.

No class of people deserve more consideration from the government than its clerks and employees, and I assert with confidence that nowhere in its service are duties performed with more alacrity, accuracy and cheerfulness than in the Register's Office. The wisdom of a Civil Service having been thoroughly demonstrated, I am inclined to believe that in time will come when it will be supplemented by a limited civil list for those who, having spent almost a lifetime in meritorious service, have by reason of age become unfit for further active duty.

To you, General W. S. Rosecrans, our most worthy Chief, when the better I have known the more I am inclined to appreciate. I retain many cordial thanks for your uniform and untiring kindness and consideration; my service under you as Chief of Division and Assistant Register has been one of uninterrupted pleasant relations. Previous to my connection with this office, I had met you but twice—first, in battle, at the battle of Manassas in 1861, and then, in the capacity of a private soldier, in 1862, at the battle of Bull Run. I have known you since that time, and I have seen you in the capacity of a private soldier, in 1862, at the battle of Bull Run. I have known you since that time, and I have seen you in the capacity of a private soldier, in 1862, at the battle of Bull Run.

And now, to each and all of you, I tender my hearty acknowledgments for your former courtesy and kindness to me personally, and my sincere thanks for your zealous co-operation in the work of the office while with you. I shall always feel the deepest interest in your welfare and happiness, and never cease to remember the pleasant years we have spent together.

COLORED CONFERENCE.—The 29th session of the Washington M. E. Annual Conference will meet at Lynchburg on Wednesday, 5th inst. Bishop J. P. Hurst, D. D. LL. D., of Washington, will preside for the first time. This conference embraces the States of Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, and western Pennsylvania and the District of Columbia. It is one of the largest and most influential of the colored conferences. This year there will also assemble a lay electoral conference, which represents one of the lay delegates from each church within the limits of the conference. The presiding elder of this (Alexandria) district, Rev. H. A. Carroll, who resides here, will be appointed elsewhere, as he has served, of his term of six years. Rev. J. S. Cooper, the pastor of Roberts Chapel, has served only two years, and probably will be returned, but he has received pastoral calls to other places. Norman B. Finn is the lay delegate who will represent Roberts Chapel at Lynchburg.

ANOTHER VICTIM.—Another Southerner, who had been to New York to buy "green goods" and who was on his way home, told us when he reached home this morning that he had been most egregiously swindled. He had in his possession the watch set in which he felt sure the "goods" had been placed, but he was mistaken. He told the tale of woe to an interested crowd at the depot this morning and said he was going back to New York to get even. He said he had given a check for $10,000 for the "money" in the value, but which turned out to be only pieces of paper.

LECTURE.—Mr. C. W. Millen's lecture on Tuesday night was highly entertaining and very instructive. He displayed an intelligent appreciation of nature's gifts to his own State, New Hampshire, by striking comparisons with the most celebrated scenes in Europe. His language was in keeping with the beauty of the scenes, represented so vividly by means of the stereopticon. His diction was pure and clear as the mountain brooks, and his imagery was true and striking. Such lectures help all to appreciate the beauties of this country as well as incline to a more reverent study of nature's beauties and nature's best poets.

SALE OF FISTOLS.—The sale of pistols, &c., which had been confiscated by the city authorities during the past few years took place to-day at the station house. There were about 36 weapons offered and all were sold at prices ranging from 10c to $1.60. In the collection were pistols of high and low degree, of various calibre and of barrels ranging from 1 in number to 7. Some were of ancient make, while others were of modern manufacture, though most of them were of the cheap variety. The sum realized was $22.85, and after the expenses of the sale ($2) were deducted the remainder was turned over to the school fund.

INSTALLATION.—At the regular meeting of Battalion Division No. 8, U. E. K. of P., last night, Lieutenant-Colonel Samuel L. Menoos, of the First Virginia Pythian Regiment, assisted by Clarence N. Moore, J. P. Steiner and E. L. Colby, installed the following officers to serve for the ensuing year: Captain, Geo. H. King; Lieutenant, A. P. Dixon; Herald, A. H. Oehlert; Recorder, C. R. Hobart; Treasurer, V. C. Moore; Guard, E. S. Koenne; Sentinel, E. S. Boyer; Standard Bearer, M. E. Norris. The reports of the past year showing a beautiful and prosperous condition of affairs, with a handsome balance in bank, were submitted and adopted.

COLUMBIA FIRE COMPANY.—The regular monthly meeting of the Columbia Steam Fire Engine Co. was held at their hall last night. Mr. Wm. A. Smoot, president, in the chair and Frank L. Eatwile secretary. Five new names were offered for membership. A vote of thanks was extended to Mr. J. Clifton Smoot for the use of his horse during the winter for the hose cartage. Appropriate resolutions in respect to the memory of Thos. E. Nugent, deceased, late a member of the company, were adopted.

FLAG POLES.—Lewis McKelzie, esq., one of Alexandria's most patriotic and generous citizens, has had the Washington school building furnished with a flag-tiff forty feet long to take the place of those now in use. When it shall have been put into position, the burgee of the school and a twelve-foot national flag—also a gift of Mr. McKelzie—will be daily thrown to the breeze therefrom. A similar pole has been sent by the same gentleman to Seaton building.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was cool and cloudy till about 8 o'clock when it became clear. There were eight lodgers but no prisoners at the station house.

The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases: Two boys, arrested for an assault on children, were dismissed with a reprimand. John Washington, colored, for an assault on Mildred Herrick, was fined $2.

THE WEATHER.—After two weeks of cloudy weather, during the greater part of which time it either rained or snowed or was generally disagreeable, the skies cleared last night and the sun arose this morning in all his effulgence, bringing gladness to mankind. The temperature fell last night and some ice formed, but during the day the weather became milder and much more enjoyable than for the past two weeks.

GETTING READY.—Mr. Theo. Ballenger was to-day making preparations for the fishing season. He has a gang of men at work loading his seine on his vessel and in other ways getting ready for the opening of the season. Mr. Ballenger will this year fish at Arkerdale shore and not at the Gums.

PERSONAL.—Mr. Frank Moore, of south Leje street, who has been quite sick, is able to be out again.

Mr. W. A. Sisson, who two weeks since fell from a roof and was severely injured, is now in a critical condition and grave fears are entertained for his recovery.

Your life is in danger when you allow a severe cough or cold to go unchecked. Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is a cheap, harmless and reliable remedy.

I FEEL IT MY DUTY to say a few words in regard to Ely's Cream Balm, and I do so entirely without solicitation. I have used it more or less half a year, and have found it to be most admirable. I have suffered from catarrh of the nose kind ever since I was a little boy, and I never hope for a cure, but Cream Balm seems to do great things. Many of my acquaintances have used it with excellent results.—Oscar Ostrum, 45 Warren Ave., Chicago, Ill.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The City School Board meets to-night.

Rev. J. W. Webb, colored, formerly of this city, was installed as pastor of Antioch Baptist Church, the leading colored church of Pittsburg, on Sunday last.

Mrs. Mary E. Fugitt, aged sixty-two years, died yesterday of paralysis at her home in Baltimore. Mrs. Fugitt was a daughter of Mr. F. C. Wood, of this city, and widow of George F. Fugitt. There is a daughter and a daughter survive her.

The funeral of Mrs. Joshua E. took place this morning from her late residence on Fairfax street and was largely attended. The services were conducted by Rev. Mr. McAllister and the remains were taken to Oak Hill cemetery, Georgetown, for interment.

Mr. Chas. Sullivan, while at work in the lumber yard of Messrs. Finnot & Co. this morning, found a $11.13 silver cup, which it is supposed had been stolen and hid there to be sold when a favorable opportunity presented itself.

During the Lenten season services will be held at Grace Church every morning at 7 o'clock and Wednesday and Friday evenings at 8 o'clock.

Mr. G. E. Price will have for sale in market tomorrow some fine Potomac shad, perch, rock and other fish.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

NEW YORK, Mar. 3.—The stock market this morning while extremely active was also very narrow as to the dealings. First prices in the general list were in most cases slightly higher than those of last evening but the subsequent fluctuations were insignificant in all but the few leading shares. The opening was attended by considerable excitement. The best prices were not maintained in the late trading and the market at 11 o'clock was still active but heavy at material concessions from the best prices.

ALEXANDRIA MARKET, March 3.—The market to-day was quiet with little doing. Prices are generally unchanged and we quote Wheat 85a 102; Corn 45a 58; Rye 70a 83, and Oats 38a 42.

Grand Display

OF

1892 Wash Fabrics.

THIS IS TO BE A GREAT WASH GOODS SEASON. The new things are crying out for space wherein to bespeak their respective merits. Their beauty and attractiveness, together with their very low prices, demand recognition. Expense is not always beauty. The WONDERFUL LOTIONS come in just here and give to woman with wit to choose, a chance to dress well for a trifle.

WHAT HAVE WE TO POINT BEST?

All that's new—the greatest number of styles and most original ideas that ever have been produced in cotton. Limitations to clever that at first sight they are scarcely distinguishable from the choicest of Silks and Wools.

WHAT ARE THE LATEST?

LIAMA CLOTH. A soft trilled fabric, suitable for tea gowns and wraps—Pink, cream, Gray, and Black grounds, with figures and spray—face colors. 10c a yard.

CANTON CREPE. The newest and prettiest Cotton Fabric on the market. The same effect as the imported Crepes at 40c a yard. It comes in Cream and Black and faded grounds, with dainty figures and sprays. 20c a yard.

SHANTONG PONGEE—A superior wash fabric, very fine and soft. 15c a yard.

BEDFORD CORD—A very desirable cotton goods in more than forty pretty styles. 12 1/2c a yard.

PERSIAN CORD—Corded All-color Grounds with White or Colored stripes, dots and figures. Warranted fast colors. Worth 18c. 12 1/2c a yard.

To-morrow, Friday, is Our Remnant Sales Day.

We have left every week "short lengths," "odd pieces," small lots "broken lines," soiled, mused, and tumbled goods, trice-brac, china or glass ware that is chipped or scratched—these with everything else that is not strictly perfect—are marked at a reduced price, and sold as "Remnants" on Friday. We don't expect you to pay full price for such. You get just the thing you want, perhaps, at just about half its real worth.

DRY GOODS: SPECIAL SALE FOR FEBRUARY.

We commence with this month our annual special sale of a variety of goods at large reductions. These sales have been a very successful feature in our business for several years past, and many of our customers are large purchasers of staple and desirable goods at a large sacrifice. As we do not buy goods without value, when we put the knife in, as we do in these sales, to clean up stock for new goods, we make real bargains. The

DRESS GOODS STOCK,

As usual, is a severe sufferer in the special sale.

WOOL DRESS GOODS that were 50c now 30 and 37 1/2.

Remnants of Dress Goods at About One-half Former Prices.

In these we have some desirable short lengths in Black Goods.

We bought late last season a bargain in a figured Mill to sell at 10c. Our special sale price of these is 6c.

A LARGE LOT OF LACE EFFECTS

In a very desirable imported wash fabric at 8c. This price wouldn't pay the duty on them under the present tariff.

MORE ATTRACTIONS.

Our special sale this year has been more successful than any of the previous ones, and as we have them for the purpose of clearing up stock we continue to add new bargains until the end of February. A special opportunity is given you in the Reduction on Brussels Carpet,

The entire stock of which we offer for the next ten days at prices that will make them move.

Another late addition to the bargain counter is made by the DISCOUNT ON TABLE LINENS. These goods were specially good values at regular prices.

We Have Reduced Dress Goods

In many cases to one-half their former value. Dress Goods that were 50 and 75 now 25, 30 and 37 1/2. These that were 25 and 30 now 15.

All Remnants at Very Low Prices

Among them goods from every stock. A FEW OF THE LACE EFFECTS left. The price, 8c, ten one-half the cost.
